BOTH ARMIES PREPARING FOR BIG BATTLE

DELEGATES GATHERING AT CHICAGO —— HIGHBALL WINS THE DERBY

ALL THE DELEGATES SATISFIED.

Roosevelt Very Popular With Men Who Will Nominate.

California Delegation Arrived in Chicago This Morning.

CHICAGO June 18—Twenty members of the California delegation together with the Philippine and Hawaiian delegation arrived today J W McKinley of Los Angeles will be chairman of the California delegation and he announced that his State had no especial preference for Vice President but understood that it would go to Senator Fairbanks if he wanted it When told of the attitude that the Senator had decided to maintain in regard to the position he declared that he would not be able to say positively just what California would do but in any event he did not look for a contest of any account over the position

In the opinion of Mr McKinley the man for the position would be practically agreed upon before the time came for his nomination and not more than one ballot would be necessary to nominate him whoever he might be

FROM THE PHILIPPINES

The Philippine delegates were jubilant when told that there was an excellent chance of their being seated as delegates They were strongly of the opinion that they had as good a right on the floor of the convention as had the men from Hawaii and were decidedly pleased when informed that the National Committee held the same view

FROM HAWAII

George R Carter chairman of the delegation from Hawaii said

There are some things that the people of the Hawaiian Islands would like to obtain in the way of special legislation but they are hardly matters to bring before a national convention and I do not think that we have any especial plank to offer to the platform It looks very much to me as though the platform would be about the same as that adopted by the Philadelphia convention Conditions have not changed materially in the last four years and what applied then would be as good at the present time as far as I can see

ALL FOR ROOSEVELT

During the day but few delegates put in an appearance and the situation with one was the situation of all All of them were for Roosevelt none of them knew whom exactly he wanted for Vice President and nobody had a new plank for the platform

It was expected that headquarters would be opened today at the Stratford Hotel by Congressman Hitt of Illinois who is a candidate for Vice President Owing however to the fact that Mr Hitt is ill in Washington it was decided by his friends to run his campaign from the headquarters of the Illinois delegation and the plan of an independent gathering place for Mr Hitt's friends was abandoned

The fight over the chairmanship of the Illinois delegation was growing warm to

FAIRBANKS WILL MAKE THE RUN.

He Will Accept the Nomination for Vice-President.

National Committee Does Little Business Today.

CHICAGO June 18—Politics even though it did concern a national convention was in second place today with the great majority of the delegates who are in the city and particularly with the men who came into the city this morning The greater number of them had just two questions to put to the hotel clerks They were Where can I check my grip? And the other was, 'How do I get out to the Derby?'

Save for a few clerks who were there to attend to necessary work the members of the committee were conspicuous by their absence Senator Scott was one of the first to put in an appearance and remained but a short time saying as he went out

TO FINISH CONTESTS

You know we decided yesterday to hold a continuous session until we finished up all of those contests and I remarked to the other members of the committee I don't suppose any of you gentlemen are aware that there will be a big horse race in this town Saturday? I don't know whether they knew it before I told them but they know it today and I think it would be somewhat difficult to obtain a quorum if we had any business late this afternoon

VICE-PRESIDENCY.

Congressman Hemenway of Indiana made the most specific statement today that has yet been made regarding the desire of Senator Fairbanks for the Vice-Presidency

He will take the position' said Congressman Hemenway but he will not ask for it nor will he express a desire for it He does not think that there should be a scramble for the office and he will only say that he will accept it after he has been selected for it Does that mean that when the roll of States is called for the presentation of candidates for the Vice-Presidency Indiana will not present the name of Senator Fairbanks?"

FAIRBANKS TO ACCEPT.

It means exactly that said the Congressman Indiana will not present the name of Senator Fairbanks or any other man according to the present program If the Senator is nominated he will take the place and that is all and I might as well add right here that all attempts to get him to make a statement will be fruitless He will say nothing either one way or the other but if the Republican party desires to have him in the second place on the ticket he will accept it after he has been chosen for it That is as far as he will go and that is as far as Indiana will go in pushing his candidacy Of course the State takes its cue from the attitude of the Senator and the situation I have described will continue until somebody is nominated for Vice-President'

HEARSES FILL THE STREETS.

Diver Finds a Deep Hole Filled With Bodies.

Police Looking After the Crowds in Stricken District.

NEW YORK, June 18—A diver who today renewed the search for victims of the steamer General Slocum disaster found a deep hole in the bed of the river practically filled with bodies

Within an hour after the search was begun eight bodies had been brought to the surface and when he was forced to abandon work for a time because of the swift current he stated that between thirty and fifty bodies still remained in the hole

The diver was searching along the river bottom and had reached a point near the foot of the sloping lawn on North Brother Island where the bodies of the first victims of the tragedy were laid last Wednesday when he found several bodies lying together At first the diver supposed there were no more than half a dozen in the pile but upon removing several he found a great hole in the river bed literally packed with dead He says that no less than thirty more bodies will be found when the tide again turns and permits a resumption of work This number he says may be greatly exceeded One of the bodies taken from the water today was that of a woman wrapped or entangled in a large American flag

NUMBER OF DEATHS.

After the lapse of three days since the disaster the most carefully collected data show that 568 bodies have been recovered up to this time

Based on the same data the list of missing today was estimated at 330 while 53 victims of the disaster were in hospitals slowly recovering from their injuries

Elaborate arrangements had been made by the police for the handling of the crowds that were expected to attend the many funerals in the stricken district today So far as could be learned, plans had been made for the burial of one hundred and eleven bodies from homes in the vicinity of St Marks Church The arrangements include services in thirty-seven churches of all denominations in the neighborhood

HEARSES SCARCE.

Much difficulty had been experienced by the undertakers in getting a sufficient number of hearses and it became necessary to call upon various surrounding cities

In accordance with the German custom those obliged to be out of doors passed through the streets in the stricken district with bared heads Business was practically suspended and nearly every store was draped in black The streets were literally filled with hearses The funerals began at an early hour and at times the streets were completely blockaded Every church in the vicinity was filled to its fullest capacity Clergymen from all parts of the greater city had left their own congregations and come down to the bereaved district to do what they could to give spiritual consolation to the afflicted

HIGHBALL WINS THE DERBY.

Great Race is Witnessed By Fifty Thousand People.

Absence of Bookies Made Affair a Society Event.

CHICAGO, June 18—HIGHBALL WINS DERBY; WOODSON WAS SECOND; RAPID WATERS THIRD TIME, 2 33

CHICAGO June 18— Fifty thousand race-goers watched the American Derby at Washington Park today For the first time in the history of this turf event there was no betting on the race

The absence of the bookies and the tipsters from the course made the day more of a society event than ever The in-field was a jam of coaches traps landaus and vehicles of every description

Up to a late hour Rainland was the only absentee leaving a field of seventeen to struggle for the prize

Almost at the last moment it was announced that Proofreader and Rainland were scratched

THE RACE

WASHINGTON PARK Chicago June 18—Coming under the wire in long sweeping strides W M Sheffels bay colt Highball won the seventeenth American Derby by one length and a half in front of Woodson Rapid Water was third a length back with English Lad the favorite fourth Time 2 33 equalled the record for the Derby set by The Picket last year

Highball led practically from start to finish being only headed on the back stretch by the long chunky neck of Woodson English Lad could never get up He came with a strong rush in the stretch in the middle of the track but all that Dominick could do was unavailing

Fuller on Highball rode a splendid race He let Proceeds set the pace passing the stand the Eastern colt being second

Rounding the turn opposite the club house Highball took command and only for Woodson's smart rush on the back stretch held the field safe all the way Fuller skinned the rail and saved ground at all times The field was badly strung out at the finish

ST LOUIS June 18—Leslie M Shaw Secretary of the Treasury visited the World's Fair today and called upon President Francis president of the exposition To representatives of the press Secretary Shaw stated that the much-exploited telegram in regard to advertising the World's Fair was not sent by him with any idea of criticising or reflecting upon the methods of the exposition officials

RUSSIANS PLEASED.

Raid of Vladivostok Squadron Showed Dash and Pluck.

ST PETERSBURG June 18 1 40 p m—It transpires that the simultaneous raid of the Vladivostok squadron and General Stakelberg's march southward were the direct outcome of a plan agreed upon by Viceroy Alexieff and General Kuropatkin at Mukden after the battle of Kinchou to relieve the tension at Port Arthur

The authorities apparently are satisfied with the results of Stakelberg's mission he having compelled the despatch north of detachments of the Third Japanese army commanded by Gen Nodzu delaying the siege to that extent while at sea the aid of the Russian squadron has rendered the further transport of troops from the Japanese mainland impossible

The admiralty has no direct news from the Vladivostok squadron and has not intimated what its further mission is The papers are all rejoicing at its exploits the Novoe Vremiya describing the raid as a marvel of dash and pluck

The War Office has received important news regarding General Kuroki and the reason why he is at Siu Yen with three divisions of about 30 000 men and without reserves But dispatches dated yesterday do not mention his advance It is believed Kuroki really contemplated combined operations to cut off and pocket Stakelberg but that he delayed too long It is understood that Kuropatkin sent a strong Russian force south of Liao Yang to meet Kuroki's move It is possible that a general engagement may be precipitated in the neighborhood of Hai Cheng.

GREAT BATTLE.

Both Sides Planning for a Desperate Encounter.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD via Fusan June 18—General Kuropatkin is assembling forces at Hai Cheng A great battle is expected within a month

The Russians again in their attempt to retrieve Port Arthur were permitted to select their own battle ground and again greatly misjudged the Japanese numbers and the disposition of their forces and again were out generaled

VIOLATED FLAG.

TOKIO June 18 3 p m—A dispatch from Fokio dated June 16th describing the fighting at Telissu on June 10th said the Japanese commanders had made specific charges that the Russians had violated the Japanese flag during the engagement They declared that during the fighting a body of Russians soldiers appeared carrying a Japanese flag and that the Japanese artillery deceived by this flag, ceased firing on that particular body of Russians

PLAN TO DEVELOP STATE

SACRAMENTO June 18—What is regarded as one of the very important steps toward the development of the State was the convention of the promotion and development organization held in the Senate chamber of the State Capitol today

Representatives of Board of Trades development associations and commercial bodies from all parts of the State were in attendance when the convention was called to order The call for the convention was issued by the California Promotion Committee and its purposes were fully set forth by Rufus P Jennings, executive officer of the committee in calling to order. Mr Jennings said

'This meeting has been called by the California Promotion Committee for the purpose as you are well aware of enabling us to get better acquainted, to compare notes on the work we are all vitally interested in and finally to devise a plan to still more effectively centralize promotion effort and encourage practical co-operation'

The following papers were read:

How can we best present the industrial advantages of California and how

CLAIMS HER AS WIFE.

Mrs. Bentley Repudiates Old Man Fitzpatrick.

"Have you any love for this man?" asked Judge Quinn this morning of Mrs. Honora Bently, who was testifying in her charge of battery against James Fitzpatrick.

"I have more love for a cat," was the reply in a low tone of a woman 60 years of age, haggard and gray, whose liberal endowment of the world's goods gives her no immunity from trouble.

The query was prompted by a statement by Fitzpatrick that Mrs. Bently and himself were contract wife and husband, respectively. The accused declares he is 90 years of age, and has all the airs of a braggart of half that age.

Disgust and incredulity were pictured on the faces of a dozen people in Judge Quinn's court when the defendant told his tale.

There was no witness to the charge save the complainant, and, with remarkable pertinacity, the accused denied every allegation. Not only that, but he took occasion, when on the stand, to make counter charges. Mrs. Bently declared that Fitzpatrick had caught her by the throat with his hands and choked her until she was almost strangled.

She attributed this treatment to her refusal to give him money although a short time before, she had signed a check in his favor under compulsion. Fitzpatrick having placed a revolver against her head. Mrs. Bently also stated that Fitzpatrick pretended to have claims against her amounting to hundreds of dollars when the fact was that she owed him nothing and that there was nothing he could do which would put her in debt to him.

Fitzpatrick in denying the alleged battery stated that he had, on the contrary, treated Mrs. Bently with extreme gentleness and care; that the injuries of which she had complained had been sustained by her falling while passing through a field near her house while in an intoxicated condition and that, under an alleged contract of marriage, the twain had been living as man and wife.

To all of these charges Mrs. Bently made explicit denial, but Fitzpatrick repeated them with a boldness and persistency which contrasted with the meek and modest demeanor of the complainant who is now over sixty years of age.

In a splenetic outburst Fitzpatrick railed against the woman who had provided him with a home, charging her with taking without his consent from the house in which she resided a number of articles of personal property. When asked what claim he had to the goods in question, he unblushingly replied that the property was his by reason of the alleged fact of a marriage contract between him and Mrs. Bently.

Just where Fitzpatrick's effrontery would cease, it was difficult to imagine, until Attorney Ennis, as amicus curiae, testified that, in another case, viz: that of Fitch vs. Bently, Fitzpatrick had asboldly sworn that there were no irregular relations whatever between Mrs Bently and himself.

This Fitzpatrick promptly characterized as false, whereup Ennis declared he knew Fitzpatrick to be a prison bird, to be without a cent instead of possessed of means and to be devoid of truthfulness and manhood.

Judge Quinn will decide the case Monday next.

AT SAN QUENTIN.

SAN QUENTIN, June 18.—The State Board of Prison Directors met today, Fitzgerald and Felton being absent. After an executive session, bids for supplies for the ensuing year were received and several hours consumed in consideration of them. There were several hundred bids presented, each accompanied by a certified check for ten per cent of the amount bid. Over $10,000 was thus placed on deposit at this session. The contractors supply the penal institution for one year. Their contracts expire on June 30th of each year. On the first of July the new contracts take effect. This year, contrary to expectations, there were many firms in the field to furnish supplies.

It was expected that over 100 applicants for parole would be considered this afternoon, but as only three members of the board are present, it is doubtful if any paroles will be granted.

MRS. BAXTER IS ELECTED MATRON.

Mrs. C. F. Baxter was appointed to the position of matron of the City Prison yesterday by the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners. There were four applicants for the place. Mrs. Baxter, who is the daughter of the former matron of the prison, lately deceased, had the recommendation of ten Councilmen.

There was some question as to whether the appointive power as far as the matronship was concerned was vested in the City Council or in the Police Board. This was settled by an opinion of the City Attorney, who stated that the Board had exclusive charge of such matters.

WILL CARE FOR SICK POLICEMAN.

The Board of Police and Fire Commissioners yesterday made a special appropriation of $50 as a sick benefit for Patrolman James Drew, who has been seriously ill for more than a month as the result of an operation.

Commissioner McElroy stated that while a policeman who was disabled was entitled to half pay after thirty days, that in Drew's case this was not enough.

Chief of Police Hodgkins said that Drew was one of the best officers in the department.

The commissioners then allowed the amount above mentioned.

G. A. R. COMMANDER TO VISIT COMRADES.

Next Tuesday evening Department Commander Charles T. Thomas of the G. A. R. in California and Nevada will pay an official vist to comrades in this city. He will speak in Loring Hall and members of the posts in this city and vicinity, namely, Lyon, Appomattox, Porter, Hooker, Lookout Mountain and the several Women's Relief Corps and Ladies of the G. A. R. will be present in large numbers. This is Commander Thomas' first official visit to this city and will be the only one which he will make during his present incumbency.

SUSPENDS SENTENCE ON SICK FATHER.

L. M. Fickes, who was found guilty a few days ago of failure to send his minor child to school as provided for by the new law, had sentence suspended in his case this morning in Police Judge Samuels' court this morning. The defendant must report in ninety days and inform the court whether he is sending his child to school.

The court stated that the poor health of the father was the reason of the suspension of sentence.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL SEVERELY INJURED.

W. W. Fogg, principal of the Oroville High School, was severely hurt in a runaway accident at Eighth and Adeline streets this morning. He was accompanied by his mother and wife. Both of the women escaped with slight injuries. Mr. Fogg sustained a cut under the left eye of a serious character and many minor bruises about the face.

Dr. H. S. Kergan attended the injured educator.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place Sunday, June 5, in Benicia when Miss Anna Pauline Jurgensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jurgensen became the bride of George Thomas Cosgrove of Oakland.

The bride was gowned in white silk crepe de chine made over taffeta and elaborate with rich lace. A long tulle veil caught with orange blossoms completed the costume. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. Miss Emma Jurgensen attended the bride and she wore a becoming frock of crepe de Paris and carried pink carnations. Arthur Cosgrove acted as best man. Rev. Isaac Dawson performed the ceremony under a magnificent floral bell composed of pink and white carnations.

After reading the impressive service the clergyman presented the bride with a handsome copy of the "Book of Common Prayer." The wedding march from Mendelssohn was played by Miss Lillian C. Steffan.

The house was beautifully decorated in green and pink and white and after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the spacious dining-room. The presents given to the young couple were handsome and costly. After a honeymoon spent in Southern California Mr. and Mrs. Cosgrove will make their home in Oakland.

Among those who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Phil. Steffan and family, Mrs. Sciule and family, Mrs. Jennings and family, Vallejo; Mrs. Cosgrove, the Misses Marguerite and Mayne Cosgrove, Clarence Arthur and Willie Cosgrove, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. L. Gearty, Oakland; Miss Helen Eartier, Sacramento; D. Offermann, Rio Vista; Mrs. O. Johnson and L. Fish, Benicia.

SENT TO STOCKTON.

Alice Muldooney, an insane girl, was committed to Stockton Insane Asylum this morning by Judge Ogden. She was in such a condition that she was unable to walk and had to be carried into the courtroom on a stretcher. She said nothing and was incapable almost of action as well as thought.

STRENUOUS WORK CEASES.

COURTS SLOW DOWN AND JUDGES OFF FOR THEIR VACATIONS.

Court vacation begins with the end of this week and the court calendars are pretty well cleared of pressing work. The probate calendar, presided over by Judge Greene, and other civil and criminal business which needs immediate attention will be looked after by Judge Ogden and these departments will continue open, while Judges Ellsworth, Hall and Melvin are away.

Judge Greene is in the enjoyment of better health than he has had in some time and is loth to give up work. Judge Ogden is looking forward to taking his vacation later in the season when he expects to get a little good shooting at big game. These two will keep the courts clear of pressing matters.

Judge Ellsworth will spend several weeks at Castella on the Sacramento river about twenty miles from Mt. Shasta.

Judge Greene has not yet decided where he will go for rest and change when his turn comes.

Judge Henry A. Melvin and wife leave this evening for the East. He will first go to Chicago and later visit Pittsburg, Milwaukee, the World's Fair at St. Louis and his old home in Illinois. During his sojourn there he will also attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Elks at Cincinnati.

Next week will see the family of Judge S. P. Hall at their summer home near Felton. He has had considerable sickness in his family of late and is looking forward to the change in the hope that it will be of great benefit. He recently brought his son Whipple back from St. Louis where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

GREAT BATTLE.

tain William V. Judson of the United States Engineer Corps, were present with the other military attaches at the battle of Vafangow.

Red Cross trains filled with wounded from the south are passing through Liao Yang. The proportion of wounded officers testifies to their gallantry. Almost all the officers of one regiment were killed or wounded.

Military activity on a grand scale is apparent at Mukden. A high authority confirms the announcement that General Kuropatkin is assuming the offensive.

MANY WOUNDED.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18, 1:43 p. m.—About eleven hundred men wounded at the battle of Vafangow, including fifty-five officers, have reached Liao Yang. The total Russian losses are about 2000.

General Stakelberg's force is marching north, the railroad being unable to transport more than a few thousand men.

Special dispatches say the Russians at Vafangow had forty-two battalions, against forty-four Japanese battalions. The Japanese had great superiority in artillery, having more than 200 guns.

spondents, says a hospital assistant in charge of three wounded soldiers, having been driven off on the approach of some Japanese cavalry, saw the latter mutilate the wounded men, inflicting stabs and slashes.

One body showed twenty-eight wounds on the head, the face was cut open, the eyes were gouged out, the breasts were pierced and the knees were crushed by rifle butts. The skull of one man was crushed. M. Danchenko declares that this horrible practice was indulged in by the Bashi Bazouks in the Turkish war and says General Simonoff, commander of the Siberian division of Cossack cavalry, drew up a statement in regard to the Japanese mutilations which was signed by the British, French and Spanish military attaches.

THEY WILL VISIT MANY THEATERS.

Manager Guy Smith of the Macdonough Theatre and his cousin, Van Britton, press representative of the Macdonough, will leave on the overland this evening for a tour through the Eastern cities. On their way home, they will stop at the St. Louis exposition. Messrs Smith and Britton will visit all the leading theatres of the East and when they return to Oakland they will bring many new ideas which will be put into effect at the popular Macdonough Theatre.

WEBERS ARE DIVORCED.

A decree of divorce was granted Eliza A. Weber today by Judge Ellsworth from Henry L. Weber on the grounds of desertion. They were married several years ago and have one child.

KAISER PLEASED.

Extends Glad Hand to the President of France.

PARIS, June 18.—A significant exchange of dispatches has occurred between Emperor William and President Loubet, following M. Teery's winning the James Gordon Bennett international automobile race at Hamburg yesterday. The Emperor's dispatch says:

"I hasten to felicitate you, Mr. President, on the victory French industry has just won, and of which I have had the pleasure of being a witness. The welcome which the public has given the victor proves how success gained through intelligence and common purpose serves to create sentiments free from rivalry."

M. Loubet answered:

"I am particularly grateful for your majesty's amiable telegram and for the sentiments which have inspired it. The success of French industry could not be better appreciated than by German industry, which was so worthy of obtaining success."

The exchange of dispatches created a favorable impression and promises to alleviate some of the lingering Franco-German animosities.

HAWAII'S DUSKY KINGS.

William N. Armstrong, who was attorney-general under King Kalakaua of Hawaii, has written an amusing volume about that monarch. He says in it. "It is a singular trait of the Hawaiians to avoid the use of English when sober, but when drunk to use it with much volubility. The king's immediate predecessor on the throne, Lunalilo, when in liquor would often refuse to converse with his native relatives in the native language, but addressed them in English, and directed an interpreter to translate his speech; and, on the other hand, required a translation into English of their conversation in Hawaiian. The king's remarkable memory furnished him with a considerable vocabulary of uncommon words; alcohol seemed to open that part of his brain where they were stored, especially when, like the moon, he was at the third quarter and coming to the 'full.' On one occasion the use of the words 'hippodramatic performance' secured to him the prestige of a learned man."

When Kalakaua went around the world in 1881 he called first on the present mikado of Japan. Mr. Armstrong thus pictures the two rulers: "The emperor and the king now rose and stood beside each other. The emperor was slightly above the average height of his race; his complexion was dark and his face an open one; his forehead was unusually high; his eyes black and penetrating; nor did he look like one who would put himself entirely in the hands of his ministers. His dress was a European military uniform and the breast of his coat was decorated with orders. The king, with a complexion unusually dark for a Hawaiian, towered above him, graceful, imperturbable. The contrast was striking, but the inscrutable face and the eye of the emperor disclosed the stronger character."

While Kalakaua was out riding the day after meeting the mikado, says Mr. Armstrong, "a flock of crows flew up and with much cawing, settled in the branches. The king, who was half asleep from the reaction and strain of the previous day's extraordinary excitement, listened, and then uttered to the imperial prince by his side this aphorism: 'The noblest aspiration of man is to hear the birds sing.' The prince was no doubt surprised, but, like a true courtier, he bowed and replied: 'Your majesty, it is true.' The king's head began to nod again in peaceful nap, and the crows gave him a screeching encore."

QUAINT AND PICTURESQUE.

Gowns of silk and light wool, which are to be worn this summer are charmingly picturesque. So nearly are they copies of the gowns of fifty or sixty years ago that it seems as though the designers might have ransacked countless old cedar chests in their search for ideas. To go shopping this season, gives as much pleasure as one could receive from examining some one's cherished old finery, for on every hand one sees the delightful old fashions reproduced.

The silks themselves are exact copies of the designs which were formerly used. In any box of treasured silk pieces one might find duplicates of all the patterns which are worn this spring. There are tiny hair line stripes, and pin-head checks in delicate colorings; plain colors, broken into little checks by a line of white, and little invisible checks with large irregular polka dots in bright colors scattered over their surface. A great many changeable silks are used and the softest of French taffetas are made up with lovely effects.

To say that these gowns are copies of the gowns of 1830 implies that the skirts are full and sweeping, but so ingenious is this fullness arranged that there is not a suggestion of awkwardness. A narrow box pleat, down the front of nearly all the skirts, throws the fullness toward the sides and the back. The very old idea of shirring the skirts in clusters is used again, and many of the lighter materials are simply pleated into the belt in pleats an inch or an inch and a half in width. Nearly all the silk skirts are ruffled and the ruffles whether wide or narrow are invariably cut on the bias and in this way the wide spreading effect of the skirts is accentuated. These ruffles are often repeated on the blouse, using, of course, narrower widths. They go around the entire waist back and front alike, and are used also on the sleeves.

FRENCH COOKS ARE ECONOMICAL

The American housewife spends far too much money on meat, in comparison to the housewives of the Old World, and there is no need that this condition should exist. But we are yet young, and it is not too late to learn. The most economical cooks, according to the wise, are found in France, because French cooks fully understand the possibilities of cheap cuts. They know how to produce the most appetizing results from what the American cook would throw away.

The tip most required will be found to be sufficient cooking—slow, steady simmering, stewing and roasting. Parboil a piece of tough meat before you roast it, and note the difference; it will be twice as tender; besides, you can serve the water in which the meat has been parboiled for the next day's soup.

The only sure test by which we can judge what we can do with cheap meat is to mix our brains into its preparation as well as pepper, salt and other seasoning. We know inexpensive meats will save our husbands wrinkles; therefore, why not give them a trial? Only in the trying, remember the enemy—dyspepsia.

CLEANING HOUSE.

One very capable housekeeper states that the most "restful" way to clean house is to begin at the attic, then clean the bedrooms, sitting room, cellar, dining-room, pantries and kitchen in the order named; and she makes it a rule never to begin till the furnace fire is dumped for the year, cleaning the furnace the first thing. She never cleans over four rooms a week, even with extra help, occupying the intervening days with washing curtains, varnishing furniture and straightening bureaus and closets. And every day she cleans house she has some pleasing entertainment at night—if only an hour at a particular friends' or the library.

WHAT A SALAMANDER IS.

A salamander is a round iron plate to which is attached a long handle. It is used to brown the surface of dishes that cannot be placed in the oven. Heat it red-hot and then pass it over the top of the dish, being careful not to hold it too close or it will scorch the dish. A very good substitute can be made from an ordinary flat iron fire-shovel.

THE POSTAL FROM ST. LOU.

I got a close writ postal from my aunt
Jemima Pugh—
Jemima's Uncle Tudy's wife, they're livin' in St. Lou
I'd wrote about a week ago and told her like as not We'd all be comin' out there when the days got good and hot.
And this is what Jemima said as near as I recall:
"I'm glad to get your letter; 'twas a score of years last fall
Since one of you had written—let alone to make a trip
To see us, and we'd rather guessed you'd given us the slip.

"Your mother, I remember well, once held herself aloof
And wouldn't even hesitate beneath our humble roof.
'Twas that as much as anything that drove your uncle west—
He said we'd always quarrel and to separate was best.
Since then the world has prospered us in basket and in store—
I'm glad you're dear old mother doesn't scorn me any more.
It's sweet to be forgiven by the one you've never wronged
And recognized by those to whom for years you have belonged.

"But yet your letter's vague about the circumstance that made
Your mother change her notion. I'm no better, I'm afraid.
Than when she used to snub me in the days of long ago.
I wonder, O I wonder if the fact that there's a show
Out here with us this summer didn't melt her heart a bit—
I wonder, O I wonder if that couldn't have been it?
Still, we're exceeding careful who we shelter in our home;
I'm writing you this postal now to say you needn't come."

day and probably will reach the climax Monday. The friends of Governor Yates claim that he has a clear working majority of fourteen votes and that he will without question defeat Senator Cullom for the chairmanship.

A few members of the Iowa delegation put in an appearance during the day. The prominent men of that State will not be here before Monday, when Senator Allison and Governor Cummins are expected.

DELEGATES ON THE WAY.

It is not expected that the great number of delegates will be here before Monday morning. The majority of the rooms at the hotels have been engaged with this understanding. The number of visitors who have come in advance of the convention proper is smaller than at any national convention for a long time. The hotel-keepers ascribe this condition to the settled condition in the convention program, which promises excitement only in the matter of the choice of a Vice President, and not a great deal of it in that direction.

The finishing touches were put on the convention hall today and it is now in all respects ready for the convention.

LUKENS IS A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

His Friends Are Preparing to Make a Strong Fight to Nominate Him.

Believing that Hon. Victor H. Metcalf will accept the Cabinet position tendered him by the President, the friends of State Senator G. R. Lukens are preparing to make an organized fight to secure his nomination for Congress in the Third District.

However, in case Mr. Metcalf should decline the honor tendered him, Mr. Lukens has no pretensions, he being a warm friend and ardent admirer of the Congressman.

JOHN A. BRITTON URGED FOR STATE SENATOR.

Friends Will Endeavor to Have Him Succeed Senator Lukens in Case Latter Resigns.

Friends of John A. Britton announce today that they will urge him as a candidate for State Senator to succeed Senator Russ Lukens in case the latter should succeed to the position of Congressman in the Third District.

These matters, of course, hinge on the proposition as to whether Congressman Metcalf will resign as Congressman to accept a position in the Cabinet which it is said he has been tendered by President Roosevelt. It is also stated that Assemblyman W. H. Waste is a candidate to succeed Senator Lukens in case of the latter's promotion.

SAW THE ROBBERS.

Eye Witness Tells Story of Holding Up of Train.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 17.—A special to the Dispatch from Butte, Montana, says:

The men who held up the North Coast Limited last night near Bear Mouth secured $65,000 from the Northern Pacific Express Company's safe, which they dynamited.

The safe was billed through from the coast to Chicago.

WILL RESUME HARBOR DREDGING.

SAN DIEGO, June 17.—The work of dredging the entrance to San Diego harbor to a width of five hundred feet and a depth of thirty feet at mean low water, which was stopped, when half completed, by the sinking of the dredger by the steamer State of California, will be resumed at once. The barges and pumps to be used in the work have been completed.

STALWARTS WIN.

CHICAGO, June 17.—The Republican National convention this afternoon decided to seat the Wisconsin "Stalwarts" including United States Senators Spooner and Quarles. The vote was unanimous and is a defeat for the faction headed by Governor La Follette.

FIGHTING CONTINUES

Chinese Bring Late News From Port Arthur.

CHEFOO, June 17, 5 p. m.—Two thousand Chinese, mostly small merchants, arrived here today in junks from Port Arthur.

After the Chinese were ordered to leave the Russian stronghold the Russian authorities commandeered all the provisions and cattle in town.

Fighting on both land and sea about Port Arthur continues. The Chinese refugees are not aware of the result. They believe the Russians will not be able to hold out against the Japanese and that they are preparing to destroy Port Arthur.

Several Chinese from Dalny have also arrived here, but they are without knowledge of the result of the reported fighting around Port Arthur. They say that fully 150,000 Japanese, including cattle carriers, have been landed on the Lao Tung peninsula.

JAP BOAT IS SAFE.

TOKIO, June 17, 4 p. m.—The steamer Ise has arrived at Kokuda carrying more of the crew and troops of the transport Sado. The Sado is safe and is being towed into port by the Higo.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The China Commercial Company's steamer Lothian arrived in port today unheralded. She went into quarantine and may not be released for some time as she has a great many Chinese aboard.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The Eppinger trial progressed slowly today, many objections being made by the defense. Little new evidence was developed, the witnesses going over statements already published.

BRIGAND IS BOLD

Increases His Demands on the Moorish Officials.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—In a cablegram today to the State Department Consul-General Gummere, at Tangier, indicated that the bandit Fraissouli, owing to the subserviency of the Moorish officials, had exaggerated his demands to a point where they have become ridiculous. It is quite certain that this government will not comply with any of the demands that relate to itself and cannot consistently require the Sultan to do as Fraissouli asks.

It is admitted that if the bandit chief means to carry out his threats, the captives, Pedicaris and Varley, are in great peril.

Even their lives, however, are not regarded as a sufficient stake to warrant this government in establishing the dangerous precedent that would follow the granting of the demands of Fraissouli, for with the strong temptation thus offered to the lawless tribesmen of Morocco, no foreigners there would be safe against kidnapping.

All that can now be done is to await the outcome of the present negotiations hoping that Fraissouli will abate his demands and make sure that he learns through the Moorish government that his own life will be demanded by this government if he executes his captives.

SADO IS NOW ON THE SHORE.

SEOUL, June 17, 7:30 p. m.—The Japanese government has commenced the wrecking of the steamer Sungari, which was destroyed at Chemulpo by the Russians at the beginning of hostilities. The Mitsu Bishi Company has secured the contract for the work. An American named Koen is in charge of the operations. The Sungari was gutted by fire and some of her lighter works were warped by the heat but otherwise she did not sustain much damage. It is hoped that she can be raised in two months.

It is expected that the work of wrecking the Russian cruiser Variag, which has been proceeding slowly, will be turned over to this same company. The Variag was lost at the same time as the Sungari.

Nothing but the brass work of the gunboat Korietz, the third vessel destroyed by the Russians at Chemulpo, can be saved.

ESTIMATE DAMAGE IN THE THOUSANDS.

SEATTLE, June 17.—The damage to the steamship Ohio which caught fire at Moran's shipyards shortly after midnight, is estimated at between $20,000 and $25,000.

The flames were confined by flooding the ship with water, to a single compartment in the after part of the ship. Steerage berths and woodwork were eaten away, but so far as examination this morning shows, none of the steel frames or plates of the vessel were warped. The fire originated in this part of the steerage but investigation has as yet failed to reveal the cause.

SALOON KEEPER WOUNDS A MAN.

BAKERSFIELD, June 17.—The Sheriff's office has received word that Dave Ingram, a saloonkeeper at Isabella, near Kernville, shot and wounded a man at that place Wednesday. No particulars are known except that Ingram defied arrest and fled, the Sheriff being asked to keep a lookout for him.

EXCAVATIONS FOR NEW THEATER.

SAN DIEGO, June 17.—Excavation was begun today for the new Pickwick Theater in this city. The playhouse will be modern in every respect and of mission architecture. It will adjoin the Methodist Church on Fourth street and will be owned by Louis J. Wilde.

BRAKEMEN IS KILLE BY TRAIB.

SAN JOSE, June 17.—W. J. Thompson of San Francisco, a brakeman on the Southern Pacific line to Santa Cruz was run into and instantly killed today by the Bunker Hill excursion train at Los Gatos.

CITY MARSHAL IS MURDERED.

PITKIN, Colo., June 17.—William E. Harmon, city marshal of Pitkin and deputy sheriff of Gunnison county, has been shot and instantly killed by Tim Sullivan, whom he was called to arrest for threatening his wife. Sullivan escaped, but officers are on his track.

FATHER HESLIN IN COURT.

The preliminary examination of Rev. Father Heslin is in progress in the Police Court this afternoon. Attorneys Chapman & McElroy represent the defendant. They have filed an objection to the complaint, claiming that it is insufficient. This matter is being argued.

EIGHT YEARS FOR A ROBBER.

JUDGE HALL SENDS A CROOK TO THE PENITENTIARY.

The second of a trio of young burglars arrested by the police for the robbery of houses in Alameda and Oakland was sent to Folsom today, Harry Baldwin, a professional crook, being sentenced by Judge Hall to eight years in the penitentiary. Baldwin has already been sentenced twice before, and in speaking of him this morning, Judge Hall said:

"By this man's own testimony he acknowledges to having belonged to a band of professional thieves. He denied in this particular case of having received the stolen goods, but admitted he would have taken the goods had they been stolen from Los Angeles or somewhere far enough away so that he would not fear detection. Ten years is the limit I can impose for a sentence of burglary in the second degree, and I feel very much as though I should impose all of it. The judgment of this court is, however, that the prisoner be sent to Folsom for the period of eight years."

Baldwin's partner, Harry Childs, who was sentenced for the same offense last week by Judge Ogden, was sent to Folsom for the same length of time.

The remaining one of the three is Ed. Morton. He turned State's evidence.

MUST PRODUCE MOYER.

DENVER, June 17.—Governor Peabody and Adjutant-General Bell were today served with the writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Thayer at St. Louis for the production of President Charles H. Moyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, in the United States Circuit Court on July 5. The writ was served by United States Marshal D. C. Bailey.

There is a stipulation in the writ which waives the actual appearance of Moyer if it be found inconvenient to produce him and provides that the arguments in the case may proceed without Moyer being present. As Moyer is not now in military custody, Attorney Richardson, who represents the Federation, may make a test case of one of the miners in the Bull Pen at Cripple Creek.

Attorney-General Miller said that he would welcome such a move and expressed the belief that the court would approve the change.

ASHES FOR HIS FIRST LOVE.

LOS ANGELES, June 17.—A small silver box, filled with human ashes, is the peculiar legacy bequeathed to the woman of his choice by Robert Conklin, of Denver, whose death occurred a few weeks ago. The recipient is Miss Christine Prince of this city, to whom Conklin was steadfastly devoted although twice or thrice she had declined his hand in marriage.

Conklin's love for Miss Prince dated from her early girlhood, when he and her father were mining partners in Colorado. Not long ago Miss Prince was notified of Conklin's death. Yesterday she received a letter and a parcel, postmarked Denver. The letter was from Conklin's attorney, it explained that the accompanying package was a box containing a portion of the ashes of the dead lover, bequeathed to her by his last will.

FRANCE WON THE BENNETT CUP.

SAALBERG, June 17.—France recaptured the James Gorden Bennet cup today, her champion automobile driver, Theery, having defeated the German, Jenatzy, holder of the trophy. Theery's total time was 5 hours, 50 minutes and 3 seconds, and Jenatzy's was 6 hours, 1 minute and 21 seconds. Jenatzy arrived at the winning post first, but his actual running time was 11 minutes and 18 seconds longer than that of the Frenchman.

DELEGATES ARE IN OMAHA.

OMAHA, June 17.—The California delegation to the Republican National Convention spent thirty minutes in Omaha today. At the Union Station the delegates were met by a number of prominent local Republicans.

BARK HOLLISWOOD IS OVERDUE.

MADE DIZZY BY TROUBLE.

ROBERT COOK TREADS PRIMROSE PATH AND HAS HARD LUCK STORY.

After having journeyed over the primrose path at the pace which kills for the last three months, Robert Cook, a man of many troubles and an installment solicitor in the employ of a local furniture company, was handed a severe lecture and stiff sentence for drunkenness this morning by Judge Quinn who was sitting for Police Judge Smith.

The sentence was $50 or twenty-five days' imprisonment.

It seems that Cook at certain stages of his alcoholic exhilerations is possessed of strange vagaries relative to his brother-in-law, William J. Lawless. On one occasion Cook had Lawless arrested for disturbing the peace. Before the day was over Cook was thrown in jail on a charge of drunkenness, whereas the charge of disturbing the peace was dismissed against Lawless.

Yesterday the solicitor arrived at the proper stage of inebriation and came to the conclusion that his brother-in-law had robbed him of $500 worth of installment contracts. He immediately caused the arrest of Lawless on a charge of grand larceny, which will be dismissed and he himself was arrested on the usual charge of drunkenness.

Cook has still further troubles. His wife is suing him for a divorce. It transpires that she on the advice of her attorney took the $500 worth of contracts for which Lawless was imprisoned.

When Cook came to himself in the Police Court dock this morning he begged the court for permission to tell of his many troubles.

"Cook," said the Court, "if you could leave whiskey alone you would not have any troubles to tell. I think the greatest kindness that can be done you is to put you where you cannot but help sober up. For that reason I will sentence you to pay a $50 fine or serve twenty-five days in jail."

WORKING ON THE NEW HOTEL.

While several merchants have voluntarily notified the members of the new hotel committee of their intention to take stock in the project, it is the intention of Chairman King, of the committee, that all will be afforded an opportunity to become stockholders.

In an interview this forenoon, Mr. King stated that at the next meeting of the executive committee he would appoint a committee, or possibly arrange with some of the merchants, to see every other business man in his block, with a view to making the stock subscriptions a popular one. He suggests that until called upon by the committee that the business men give the matter careful consideration and consider the benefits to accrue from the establishment of a large hotel so near the center of business. The advantage to Oakland to have a hotel capable of sheltering several hundred tourists at one time, is one that Mr. King thinks will not only largely increase the business in every line, but will also be the means of securing immense advertising for this city. It all probability the committee will next week start in on a systematic canvass of the business houses and at that time he wants the merchants and manufacturers to have well fixed in their minds the amount of stock they wish to take in the new hotel. He feels confident that as a business venture, it will be a large dividend-paying proposition from the start. In fact, several San Francisco business men so feel and have notified Chairman King that they wish to subscribe for some of the stock. Mr. King, however, thinks it should all be taken in Oakland, and that it will be as soon as the committee can arrange for the canvass.

BANDITS GOT MONEY

Secured $65,000 By the Northern Pacific Robbery.

BUTTE, Mont., June 17.—A Butte man named Annaweldt, who was a passenger on the North Coast Limited that was held up near Bear Mouth last night, throws new light on the robbery. He declares that while two men did the actual work they had confederates in the woods down the track.

After the safe had been blown up and the booty secured, the two robbers rushed the engineer and fireman down the track away from the engine. Mr. Annaweldt followed unnoticed. When the robbers had gone 150 yards they stopped and yelled: "It's us with the fireman and engineer—don't shoot." Voices from the woods yelled, "all right, come on." Then Mr. Annaweldt heard the tramp of hoofs, as if a party of men were mounting horses.

The robbers commanded the engineer and fireman to stay where they were and entered the woods. Later Mr. Annaweldt heard them ride away. He says from the sound there must have been seven or eight men. It is the belief here that the robbery is the work of the famous "Dutch Henry" gang which is the remnant of the band of desperadoes once headed by Kid Curry. This crowd was active in Teton county last winter but has not been heard from for some weeks and was thought to have crossed the Canadian line. "Dutch Henry" is an old pal of Curry's and the man to lead an expedition of the Bear Mouth sort.

It is thought Kid Curry left the State last summer when, after his attempt to hold up a Great Northern train, near Havre, he was so hotly pursued.

INJUNCTION IS DISSOLVED.

TOPEKA, Kansas, June 17.—In the District Court today Judge Hazen dissolved the temporary injunction against the Santa Fe striking machinists, secured by the railroad company May 9th. The court held there was no cause for further continuance of the injunction as the strikers appeared orderly and with no evil intentions against the company's property.

CAPTAIN FOUND GUILTY.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Captain John Bermingham, supervising inspector, has reviewed the order of the local Board of Inspectors revoking the license of James B. McIntyre, master of the steamer South Portland, which went down off Cape Blanco on October 19, 1903 and has reduced his term of suspension from three to two years.

McIntyre therefore will be deprived of his license for two years ending November 3, 1905. Captain Bermingham approves the finding of Inspectors Bolles and Bulger and holds that the striking on the reef and the resulting loss of life was directly due to lack of care on McIntyre's part.

His action in leaving the ship before all the passengers and crew had taken to the boats is severely criticized.

REPORTER CAUGHT BY THE RUSSIANS.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 17.—A cablegram to the Indianapolis News from Stanley Washburn special war correspondent of the Chicago News at Chefoo, says that Hector Fuller, staff war correspondent of the Indianapolis News, has been captured by four Russian soldiers and taken to Port Arthur. He was blindfolded and placed in prison.

The State Department at Washington was notified last Wednesday that Mr. Fuller, who started from Chefoo in an open boat with two Chinese oarsmen for Port Arthur had landed in the vicinity of the latter city about June 12.

"MUSIC SLUGS" SAME AS NICKELS.

Playing a "music check" into a nickel-in-the-slot machine for money is gambling according to a decision rendered by Judge Hall today in which he upheld the ruling of Judge Mortimer Smith in a case against George Edwards, who conducts a phonograph parlor on Seventh street.

The machine itself paid no money but it was attempted to show that the man purchased so many checks and he had a right to play them in a musical piano or various phonographs or moving picture machines which gave him value received for the money. If, however, he wished to take a chance to guess the color that would turn up on a certain machine and he guessed it right he could double his money, the proprietor paying him.

The opportunities a man had to play the other machines had nothing to do with the point at issue which he held was—whether a man had a chance to win or lose. Wherever this element entered he held it was gambling, and upheld the decision of the lower court in this respect.

BANKING BY MAIL

In many Eastern Cities is growing to large proportions with a tendency to increasing popularity.

The depositor encloses a check or postal order and pass-book in an envelope and sends them to the Bank through the mail. The pass-book is returned the same way. It saves the time of a busy man, and is perfectly safe.

This system prevails not only between distant cities, but between such near points as Oakland and Berkeley and San Francisco and even between different sections of the same city.

Senator Bard's Weather Bill

Senator Bard lives in a region of the State where drought is periodical and where the pious plead with the Lord in dry seasons to come and sprinkle the crops. Being both devout and thrifty, it has occurred to him to have legislation enacted that will indicate to his constituents when to pray and when to plow. So he introduced a bill at the last session of Congress appropriating $150,000 to pay for a go-as-you-please investigation into meteorological phenomena. This bill now reposes at the bottom of the file in the darkest corner of the Senatorial cellar, but it is still the occasion of some mirth. Light-minded people continue to poke fun at it and make ribald comment on its extraordinary provisions. Even in his own bailiwick the meteorological ideas of the junior Senator from California are classed with his pet theory that beans are a superior brain food and that the manufacture of sugar is a sinful occupation. Which shows how much a good man may be misunderstood even by his neighbors. For instance, the Los Angeles Express makes the following flippant comment on Senator Bard's favorite measure to abolish the prayer cure for drought:

"While Southern California is trying to overcome her natural modesty which prevents her from hooping Senator Bard too assiduously to become her representative for another six years in the Upper House of Congress, word comes to the Express from Brooklyn, N. Y., concerning that famous meteorological bill credited to the Senator and concerning which reference was made in these columns several weeks ago.

"It will be recalled that Mr. Bard's incentive-to-science measure was introduced so late in the recent session that it failed to be seriously considered—if it ever could be—and now its real author, Mr. Townsend of Brooklyn, states that he proposes to have a similar bill introduced in the House next session, the Senate bill, meanwhile, resting securely in charge of the Committee on Agriculture.

"Chief Moore of the United States Weather Bureau, strangely enough, regards the bill with disfavor—a freak measure he calls the plan to divide $150,000 of treasury funds among those who are to discover the physical basis of meteorology, and so increase the accuracy of weather predictions.

"Of course, this is professional jealousy on the part of Mr. Moore. If every snap guesser in the country is to put in his oar the Weather Bureau might as well take in its storm signals, for the new school of meteorologists to be founded by Congress will be able to predict physical conditions of the weather six months in advance.

"Californians had with joy the proposed plan for aiding the ranchers. Think of being able to know May 15th, for instance, that the next rainfall will occur November 24th, the precise date when two inches of moisture is to be precipitated! Isn't that boon enough? Entranced with this idea, the country should rise to a man and demand the return of Senator Bard to his moutons, so to speak, in order that he may rush his meteorological bill through before his second term expires."

This is both unkind and ungraceful. Senator Bard may be mistaken in his cherished belief that the weather can be regulated by an act of Congress, but he evidently means well. His bill is a guarantee of good faith. It is, besides, primed with gentle humor. It also shows that the junior Senator has done something since he got into the Senate. His efforts should not be derided, for he is doubtless doing the best he can. What more can be asked?

One Lone Kicker Appears

The wiseacre of the Sacramento Union is doubtful about the President tendering Congressman Metcalf a place in the Cabinet. He is also of the opinion that Mr. Metcalf would not be the first choice of California for a Cabinet position. It is extraordinary how much a man thinks he knows when he knows very little. The news from Washington leaves no room for question as to the tender of a Cabinet position to Mr. Metcalf. Moreover, every man in California in touch with Federal politics knows that the appointment has been tendered. And furthermore no other Californian is or has been discussed as a Cabinet possibility. The recognition of Mr. Metcalf's fitness for the position so graciously tendered him is universal—if we except the Sacramento Union, which can invariably see through a grindstone if there is a hole in it. Why our Sacramento contemporary should be skeptical of a fact that is beyond question passes comprehension. Why it should carp at a selection that is both wise and popular is another story. Probably the doubt is father to the wish, and the carping merely a snarl of disappointment. It is not impossible that the selection of Mr. Metcalf for a place in the Cabinet has put some Oregon man's nose out of joint, for the Sacramento Union has a trick of looking at Californians and California affairs from an Oregon standpoint. Its views are webfooted, so to speak. It is to Mr. Metcalf's credit that the tender came to him unsolicited. It is a tribute to the President's acumen that his choice so accords with popular sentiment in this State.

An example of how loose perversions of fact creep into the papers is furnished by this paragraph from a Sacramento paper:

"An Oakland justice has decided that 'flirting' comes under the general head of disturbing the peace. Coming as the decision does at the beginning of the vacation season, that justice may be said to have prepared a whole row of nails for his political coffin."

It ought to be unnecessary to state that no Oakland Justice of the Peace has made any such ruling. In a recent case one of our local magistrates did hold it to be a disturbance of the peace for "mashers" to force their attentions on schoolgirls in the streets. The ruling was in accordance with common sense and common decency. To say that it applied to the gentle pastime colloquially described as "flirting" is to convey a false impression. The magistrates of Oakland are not simpletons.

The "Lilywhite" Republicans of Louisiana have discovered that there are times when the tail cannot wag the dog. They were doubtless surprised when the National Committee recognized the delegates who represent the voting masses of the Republicans of the Pelican State, but why should they be? The claim of the "Lilywhites" was based upon color alone. The other faction had the votes, but the "Lilywhites" had the lighter complexion. It is votes, however, that count in elections.

Choate for Attorney-General

The Philadelphia North American publishes a story to the effect that after the Presidential election Ambassador Joseph H. Choate will be recalled from the court of St. James to take a place in the Cabinet as Attorney-General. It will occasion some surprise if Mr. Choate consents to make the change. No man in the country is better fitted to fill the position of Attorney-General than Mr. Choate, but it will be hard to find a man more admirably fitted than he to fill the post of Ambassador to England, which is ranked as the highest diplomatic post in the gift of the President. Mr. Choate has been a great Ambassador. He has distinguished himself in this capacity as the successor to a long line of brilliant statesmen who have represented the American Republic at the British court. There can be no expectation of improving upon him. On the other hand, the Attorney-General's portfolio would be no additional honor to Mr. Choate. The emoluments are less and the labors more arduous. Accepting it, however, might bring him closer to the Senate, which is understood to be Mr. Choate's ambition. New York has had no really great Senator since Conkling and Choate would make a truly great one. But he is a great man in any capacity and in any company.

Mr. Bryan's opposition to silent candidates is natural. Silence is a reflection on Mr. Bryan's talkativeness, and Mr. Bryan resents rebuke, even if it be only implied. According to an old adage, "Speech is silver, silence golden." Mr. Bryan is for silver and therefore talks incessantly. Judge Parker's reticence is indicative of his currency views. Thus in method and principle he is antagonistic to the Nebraska orator, who insists upon telling not only what he knows but a good deal that he merely imagines he knows.

We find this in the San Jose Mercury: "A great granddaughter of John Randolph is being held in New York on the supposition that she was implicated in the murder of another woman's husband. If John could have known how some of his descendants were going to turn out he would doubtless have become an early advocate of race suicide." Inasmuch as John Randolph was never married and never had an children so far as is known, being classed as a woman hater, the alleged great granddaughter is somewhat apocryphal. Very likely the woman alluded to is Nan Randolph, the chorus girl indicted for the murder of Caesar Young, the California bookmaker. Her name is not Randolph, and she is no connection whatever of the Randolphs of Virginia. She took the name of Randolph, just as she took anything else that came handy for her.

Pass a New Bicycle Ordinance

Police Judge Samuels has declared our ridiculous bicycle ordinance to be void as being in conflict with the charter and the general law. He might have added that it was enacted in mocking response to a public demand for an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to ride a wheel on the sidewalk. The ordinance was artfully drawn to give immunity for the very offense the people wanted made punishable. Judge Samuels, in making his ruling, said:

"It is my opinion that the City Council has clearly exceeded its authority in granting permission to bicyclists to ride on the sidewalk. The Council did what it is not authorized to do. The city charter defines a sidewalk as that portion of the street set aside for the exclusive use of pedestrians. A bicycle is not a pedestrian. It is a vehicle, and as such under the law belongs on the street. I am a wheelman myself, but do not ride on the sidewalk. I do not think that others should. We need a new law on the matter."

The Council should promptly pass an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to ride a wheel on the sidewalks, fixing adequate penalties for its violation. Oakland has the evil distinction of being the only city of consequence in the Union that refuses to protect pedestrians in the use of the sidewalks. As matters stand wheelmen can ride on the sidewalk with impunity. To do so is an invasion of a consecrated right, but no punishment is provided for the offense.

General Bell says "We are not sending any criminals out of Colorado." Who is he sending out then?

Since Senator Cockrell has been run over by a bicycle he has a faint idea of how he will feel in case he is nominated for President against Roosevelt.

Mr. Bryan's excuse for attacking his fellow Democrats is that they are not Democrats. Those whom he assails account for his assaults by saying he is not a Democrat. Will some medium call up Thomas Jefferson and inquire which is right?

The city authorities of Chicago propose to take a census of the goats in that municipality. As the local politicians have voted them for years in the primaries, there appears no reason why they should not be placed on the register.

THANKS.

Thanks to you, sun and moon and star,
And you, blue level with no cloud—
Thanks to you, splendors from afar,

Thanks to you, wind sent to and fro,
To you, light, pouring from the dawn;
Thanks for the breath and glory-flow

Thanks to you, pain and want and care,
And you, joys, cunning to deceive,
And you, balked phantoms of despair;
I battle on, and I believe.

Thanks to you, ministers benign,

And when he leaves this world of slides,
And with grim death serenely glides,
May this be heard, and naught besides:

Many People From All Parts of the States Are Now Being Treated at This Institution.

GREAT CROWDS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE LIBERAL AND KIND OFFER

OF ONE WEEK'S FREE TREATMENT.

The great number of patients who have taken advantage of the above liberal and kind offer during the last twenty days has made it impossible to wait upon them or do justice to them; therefore, we have decided to extend the time for the free treatment twenty days longer. All persons afflicted with any disease can come to the Sanitarium during the next twenty days and receive one week's treatment with medicine free.

Whatever may be your disease, whether young or old, men, women or children, come to the State Medical Institute and receive one week's treatment free.

If you are sick, if your family doctor and his medicines cannot cure you, come at once and investigate the successful treatment given at the State Medical Institute. No matter what your trouble may be, if you are not getting well, come to us at once.

We would especially invite all persons who have been suffering with diseases of long standing which have resisted former treatment, for we know well by experience that a large number of such cases can be treated successfully and cured by giving the proper medicines in the proper way.

After you visit this institution and see the large collection of pure, fresh drugs and the manner in which they are dispensed, and the electric and scientific apparatus and all the means that are necessary for the cure of disease, you will then be satisfied that the State Medical Institute or Sanitarium is well worthy of your patronage.

The Manager of the State Medical Institute, having spent the last twenty years in the treatment of special diseases, a good part of which time has been in the large hospitals of Europe, New York and Philadelphia, we especially claim to be well prepared for the successful treatment of diseases of the eye, the ear, the nose, the throat, and the lungs, and we believe that we are better prepared for the treatment of catarrh and lung diseases than any other medical institution in the West.

By a large experience with the formidable diseases of the heart, catarrh, asthma, rheumatism and the various kinds of indigestion, we feel that we can encourage every one suffering with these diseases to come to this institution with the assurance of being cured.

Where patients for any reason cannot visit the Institute, one of the doctors from the Sanitarium will see them at their homes as often as necessary.

The doctors of the State Medical Institute treat and cure all diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat and lungs, heart, kidneys, bladder, brain, catarrh, asthma, rheumatism, bronchitis, headache, insomnia, deafness, chills and malaria, skin diseases, neuralgia, diabetes, dyspepsia, eczema, hemorrhoids and rectal troubles, and all forms of sores, blood and wasting diseases.

A BACHELOR.

I asked a girl if she loved me,
Sweetly she whispered "Yes."
I wish she was not so certain,
It was more fun to guess.

I asked a girl if she loved me,
Firmly she told me: "No!"
I quite resented her answer,
She emphasized it so.

I asked a girl if she loved me,
She said, "I cannot tell."
I really think this was stupid,
For she knew very well.

No wonder I'm still unmarried,
When I my troth would plight.
The right girl always answered wrong,
The wrong girl answered right.

GRADUATES GIVEN DIPLOMAS.

THIS YEAR'S HIGH SCHOOL CLASS TAKES LEAVE OF INSTRUCTORS.

The graduation class of the Oakland High School was given its benediction by teachers and friends last night. Parchments were presented each of them testifying to the good work done and to serve as a buoy on the ocean upon which they have been launched. The exercises were held in the common school assembly hall which was crowded with interested spectators.

Seated upon the rostrum, the young ladies dressed in spotless white, were the following young persons comprising this year's swarm: Miss Maude Hazel Armstrong, Miss Grace Bardsher, Miss Adele Esther Barnes, Miss Alvina Blanc, Miss Amelia Gertrude Brayell, Miss Celia Reasoner Burroughs, Miss Elsie Isabel Campbell, Miss Naomi Crouch, Miss Este Phoebe Dunbar, Miss Sara Evelyn Dunn, Miss Anna Edwards, Miss Alesia Pauline Gil, Miss Alta Gilette, Miss Stephanie Franklin Guard, Miss Maude Myrtle Jones, Miss Grace Lilian Kiekren, Miss Georgie Marguerite Maildon, Miss Marie Pauline Mathews, Miss Evelyn Clare Mayon, Miss Florence Muriel McCloskey, Miss Rene Geraldine McGraw, Miss Dorothy Mead, Miss Vera Amelia Moody, Miss Dora Georgietta Morehouse, Miss Ivy Belle Ralph, Miss Marian Leigh Seyboldt, Miss Stephanie, Miss Catherine Shannon, Miss Mabel Irene Sherbzurne, Miss Mary Cole Stroud, Miss Hannah Southwick Taft, Miss Mattie Warren Zender, Ralph Hatherly Butler, George William Eachus, Man Quong Pong, Sydney Baldwin Gray, Neal Harris, Ernest Smith, James Boyd Harrold, Thmordore Harold Hook, Allen Richmond Howard, Henry Mackie Isaacs, Robert Vrooman Jordan, Frank Lewis Kelly, Vernon Charles Sheehan, Raymond Fort Snowden, Edwin Franklin Umphred, Taro Utsaki, Kopiro Yoshisawa and Wilbur Leslie Allen.

The exercises began promptly at 8 o'clock. Principal J. H. Pond presided and City Superintendent McClymonds looked in for a time to see that all was working according to schedule.

The Oakland High School orchestra played a march in a creditable manner, Miss Mina Clark leading.

Rev. Owen E. Hotle of Eighth avenue Methodist Church, pronounced an invocation.

Miss Mabel L. Sherbourne next performed an instrumental solo, "Polish Dance" and as a second number gave "The Nightingale," by Leiszt.

Then came an introduction by Principal Pond who occupied about five minutes in remarks, in the course of which he gave the graduates some good advice. He specially counseled them to observe "promptness" through life as a cardinal virtue. To not put off till tomorrow things which can better be done today. In a word his advice was directly opposite to the "Manana" of the easy-going Spanish people and more in accord with the bustling spirit of up-to-date Americans.

The feature of the evening were vocal selections by the Girls' Glee Club which followed Principal Pond. The girls sang in well-trained unison, their sweet voices blending perfectly. The applause they were given was hearty and spontaneous.

The Rev. H. J. Vosburgh, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city was then introduced as the principal speaker of the evening. Principal Pond, introducing Mr. Vosburg, stated that he was one of the good friends of Oakland High School. Mr. Vosburgh's address was on the topic: "The Problems of Personality," and said in part:

"Personality is a fact and the greatest fact we know. Personality in God and man are the substantive realities of the universe. Human personality is the aboriginal fact in human experience. It is the basis of perception, the starting point of thought, the source of social movements. By personality we mean that man is rational, free, conscious and enduring self. In personality, intelligence, will and feeling are joined in the unity of a self-directing consciousness. Man is involved in the universe and in society, but he is conscious of this involvement, and in this consciousness is the unique and splendid distinction of personality.

"The recognition of personality has been a slow, historic evolution. The prophets of Israel were the greatest ethical teachers of antiquity, but the earliest of them regarded man as a member of the social organism. It was at a relatively late date that individual worth was clearly seen. In the literature of Greece and Rome only occasional lights are seen, as in Sophocles, into the abiding significance of personality. Christianity confessedly emphasizes some allege over-emphasizes the individual. Yet for a thousand years of Christian history, in what we call for want of a better name the dark ages, the "individual withered while the race was more and more." In the three great circles of life represented by the church, the State, and the school the prominence of authority was complete. The modern era has seen in every direction a new appreciation of the individual. This has been a wide movement in which every great factor in modern life has been concerned.

"Whether recognized or not personality has been the controlling power in history. The nations of antiquity exhibited a correct insight into the force and meaning of personality in ascribing their origin, through popular mythology, to great heroes. China was old and vast when Greece was young and small yet little Greece has contributed greatly to the progress of the world while the direct influence of China is barely perceptible. The greatest nations have been those that have nurtured the greatest persons. We live therefore in an era when high personality is possible and it is the greatest need of the hour. What herefore are the special problems that come to us as individuals in connection with this large subect?

"The second problem is the maintenance of personality. Personality is exposed to constant attack from without and to the danger of decay from within. Our early fathers builded their homes with the implements of warfare at their side. While engaged in the constructive work of a new civilization, they were prepared also to withstand attack.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of high character, as it is of human liberty. Only in character we must recall that the greatest foes are within. Brave Gordon fell at Khartomen because treachery within the city opened the gates. Great possibilities come to nothing through an irresolute will, a low ambition, or a sordid appetite.

"The third problem of personality is consecration. When a man has become strong what will he do with his strength? There are manifest inequalities in life. In view of them different attitudes are assumed. Here is the pessimist who says: 'The world of inequality is mans mistake. There is but one thing to do, and that is to break it all up and begin anew.' Here is the egotist, who says: 'I have my strength and I have a right to all the power and wealth and intellectual resources I can acquire. Let the weak man do as I have done or remain contented with his weakness.' Here is the pseudo socialist, who says: 'Let there be equality. Let money be divided. Let us discourage distinction. Let high gifts be the badge of infamy rather than of honor.' The thoughtful man while recognizing the elements of truth in these points of view will assert that personality is a trust, that some men become strong that they may bear the burdens of the weak. Shakespeare's words are ultimate: 'Heaven with us as we with torches do, not light them for ourselves; spirits are not finely touched but to fine issues.' In the honor men everywhere bestow upon heroism and unselfish greatness, the common conscience and common judgment of mankind bear testiony not only to the reality but to the worth and legitimacy of the unselfish life. Unperverted instincts condemn selfishness. The true life is one in which all rare gifts are held as a sacred trust for the general good. These considerations apply with especial force to the educated man. Riches of the mind are more valuable than silver and gold. The young men and women of this High School class can make a larger contribution to the life of Oakland than our more ambitious civic organizations."

At the close of the address President Wilcox of the Board of School Trustees presented the class with their diplomas.

CIRCUS SEATS FALL.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Nearly 100 people have sunk in a struggling, yelling mass through splintered boards in a collapse of a reserved section of seats during the performance of a circus here. It is known that one man, six women and two children were seriously injured, and it is supposed that scores more were hurt whose names were not reported to the police.

The panic among the 2000 people in the tent was intensified by the plunging of two horses that broke from the ring in which they were performing and ran into the crowd. During the excitement the treasurer disappeared with over $600 of the show's money.

It is supposed the accident was due to the removal of the back props outside the tent by boys. The side props were found to have broken off and some of them were rotten.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

SCATTERED FOR THE SUMMER.

We are scattered for the summer with a vengeance, and the Jackson street district, Lakeside, Peralta Heights, even Linda Vista, are decidedly deserted. Shades are drawn, families come home no more, except now and then to get more clothes or to open the house for a day or two, when the summer lounging place is not too far away. Yet, in expectation of St. Louis, it is marvelous how many people are making short trips, either of the week's end or for a week or two.

Los Gatos was never more popular than this year. The E. J. Dodges, of Alameda are building a bungalow there. The bungalow has ten bed rooms, but as they are a large family even that number will not permit of very large house parties.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Cool have given up their house in town which was half of the double house occupied by Mrs. Robert Stevenson, and originally designed for her son, Lloyd Osborne, and have moved for the summer to their ranch just out of Los Gatos, "Dotswood," situated in a most charming rise of the hills just above the immense Hume prune ranch. The Cools have their automobiles with them and are enjoying the summer to the full. Dr. Cool makes frequent trips to and from town, and is living at the Bohemian club.

From Saturday to Monday of last week Dr. and Mrs. Cool entertained the house party which had been making glad the previous week's end at Mr. Hotaling's Marin County ranch. The Cools' guests were Miss Blanche Bates, who is spending her vacation here, Mrs. Forbes, her chaperon, Mr. Hotaling, Mr. Field and Mr. O'Brien. This delightful party had a most congenial time. June twelfth is Dr. Cool's birthday and generally there is a large house party at "Dotswood" over that date, but this year there was no formal celebration, as the host was obliged to leave that afternoon for Los Angeles, where the state dental commissioners were in annual session.

Miss Bates, who has been in California for more than a month, and who evidently prefers San Francisco for rest and recreation to any other place, since she comes here almost every year, is on the eve of departure for St. Louis, where she will play a long and fatiguing engagement during the heat and height of the summer, but also during the height of the crowds at the St. Louis fair. She has taken a house for the summer and will be as comfortable as circumstances will permit. She will entertain quite a crowd of Californians who expect to attend the fair, thus saving them the trouble of crowded hotels. Miss Bates will not play in San Francisco, though it was announced that she would do so, Mrs. Leslie Carter having been sent by David Belasco in her place.

WEDDINGS OF THE FUTURE.

—Several weddings which are of interest are being much talked of. Miss Edith Larkey's on June 21st, will be the first and should be a pretty one. Miss Larkey has many girl and women friends and has been quite extensively entertained. This is the fifth wedding in the Larkey family, the two sons and the youngest and eldest of the four daughters being already married. The youngest daughter, Mrs. Aiken, is to be matron of honor for her sister. She was Miss Ora Larkey before her romantic marriage one year ago with a young medical student, not then out of college. The eldest daughter, Ada, is Mrs. Tregloan, who married a cousin of the Bates family.

A PRETTY BERKELEY WEDDING.

Not a great deal has been said of the very pretty wedding of pretty Miss Marjorie Irwin, which took place a fortnight ago in Berkeley. Blue was the somewhat unusual color scheme, but it was most becoming to the pretty bridesmaids. The bride herself looked extremely well, for she is a pretty girl. She is brunette in coloring, not at all like her good-looking blonde father, and, I believe, is an only child. The Unitarian church in Berkeley furnished a most attractive setting, for it is much more like a private house than a church, with a handsome large fireplace. It resembles the Swedenborgian church in San Francisco, only that it is much more commodious.

The engagement of one of Miss Irwin's bridesmaids, though not formally announced, was whispered about at her friend's bridal. This was of a former Oaklander, Miss Alma Mitchell, and another former Oaklander who has very recently moved across the bay—Mr. Walter Wood, son of E. K. Wood, the wealthy lumberman. No date has, I think, been announced for the wedding, as both of the parties to it are very young. Mr. Wood is with his father in business and Miss Mitchell is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell. She is an exceedingly pretty and attractive girl.

MARGARET CAMERON LEWIS TO VISIT OAKLAND.

It becomes more and more certain that Mrs. Harrison Lewis (Margaret Cameron) will visit Oakland sometime this summer. Mr. Lewis, it seems, has business in Mexico, which brings him westward, and Mrs. Lewis will accompany him and will spend some time here with her old friends, who will all be delighted to greet her within a year of her marriage. Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Lewis mother, who went East with her and has been with her since her marriage, will accompany the Lewises part way, and will spend all the heated term in California. Part of Mrs. Cameron's and Mrs. Lewis' time will be spent with Col. and Mrs. John P. Irish in their log cabin at Applegate in the Sierra Nevadas. Mrs. Lewis has recently had several short stories accepted for publication by Harper's and McClure's, but nothing of hers has very recently appeared. The magazines are most deliberate about these things. Mrs. Lewis, however, has not been idle since her marriage and has, in fact, been hard at work most of the time at her delightful New York home, which overlooks Central Park.

AN UNUSUAL BOOK.

One of the most unusual books ever published has recently come from the pen of Ellis Meredith, a well-known newspaper woman of Denver, Colorado. It is called "Heart of my Heart," and is the record of a woman's life for the months preceding the birth of her child. It reads like a real experience and is certainly most lovingly and daintily done, and yet with a great deal of appealing strength. The book has attracted a great deal of attention in the East, and I see that The Bookman quotes it as among the five "best sellers" in Denver and the Middle West. It is handsomely brought out by McClure, Phillips & Co., who are taking so much of the work of Western writers, and is certainly a pioneer in a novel field. It is pathetic, too, in just the way that pathos should affect one, mildly and gently, and one feels the tears start like warm summer rain.

ANNIE LAURIE IN DENVER.

Annie Laurie, once so well known as the "star" writer of the San Francisco Examiner, and later as a special writer for the New York Journal and other Hearst papers, under the name of Winifred Black, is now married and lives in Denver. She is connected with the Polly Pry Publishing Company, which is the one which has just been looking up and publishing the most unsavory record of "Mother" Jones, promotor of strikes, who formerly lived in Denver.

THE GENERAL FEDERATION.

I was rather surprised at the comparatively small number of women who went on from San Francisco for the General Federation of Women's Clubs which recently closed its sessions in St. Louis. Perhaps we were all too busy quarreling in our clubs at home to feel the interest we felt two years ago in the Los Angeles Biennial. Of course the State in which the Biennial is held always sends the largest number of women to the meeting, but I remember hundreds of women declaring two years ago that nothing should keep them away from future Biennials, they enjoyed it all so much. However, many things do intervene. This year there was no burning question before the Biennial, like the color question of last year, though the same illiberality which the women showed on the admission of colored women cropped up again in the desire to rule out some clubs of Mormon women. The matter was, however, judiciously sidetracked just as the color question was in Los Angeles, and before the delegates knew it, it was all over. The Biennial was even more unwieldly this year because of numbers, than ever before. Mrs. Pennypacker, of Texas, who screamed herself into prominence two years ago, has squealed herself into office now. That woman must have designs on the Presidency, and all because she has a penetrating voice.

The gowns and millinery were as lovely as ever, and Mrs. Dennison, who was elected president in Los Angeles, for some reason refused to accept a second term. Perhaps she knew that Mrs. Decker, of Denver, Colo., her most powerful rival of last year, who probably could have had the presidency in Los Angeles, had she been willing to work for it, was too strong for her this time. Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, of Denver, Colorado, is the wife of one of Colorado's most prominent and wealthy men, and is prominent in her own right as well. She is one of the most intellectual women in the entire Federation and as president for several years of Colorado's State Federation, is most ably fit to preside. She has good common sense, too, as well as tact and a fine presence, and I believe the Federation will stand for abler and finer things under her leadership than ever before. The equal suffragists are naturally delighted, as Mrs. Decker comes from a state where women have full suffrage, and has always been a suffragist herself. Indeed, she made a very strong speech for suffrage at this very Biennial before her election took place. Her subject was "The Ballot for the Working Woman," and she showed how it would benefit the woman who works to be a political entity instead of a nonentity. The wiseacres told Mrs. Decker that this suffrage speech would jeopardize her chances for election, as the Federation has always been extra-conservative and extra-silly on the suffrage question.

"Will it?" said Mrs. Decker. "Well, I'm going to make the speech anyhow."

She did make it, and was triumphantly elected, showing that even the conservatism of women moves — at least as fast as a glacier — an inch or two or three a year.

As was the case two years ago, Jane Addams, of Hull-House, Chicago, was the most popular speaker, and drew the largest crowds.

AMERICAN WOMEN IN BERLIN.

Mrs. John F. Swift, of San Francisco is in Berlin attending the International Council of Women which is presided over by Lady Aberdeen. Mrs. Swift is the president of the American Council of Women. The German women gave the name of Susan B. Anthony an ovation, but that does not mean so much, as the council contains many suffrage women and many suffrage clubs. The Americans are having a specially fine time in Berlin, where they have been given many private entertainments and are to be banqueted by the municipal council—a farewell banquet, however—perhaps because the men are glad the women are going and will no longer be there to stir things up. It is amazing that the Emperor, who objects so to strong-minded females, would permit his well-trained, much-subordinated spouse even to receive these women, but he did, and she entertained a delegation, but not the entire number—that would cost too much. But here, presently, I shall be treading on the heels of lese majesty, and then you never can tell what may happen.

NANCE O'NEILL A SUCCESS.

And some achieve greatness! Of course, out here in California we are always boastful of what we can do in the way of literature, art, and the drama. If any one writes a short story and it is published in the magazines, straightway that person has achieved greatness. And this when they have not done anything at all worth while.

But there are two people, and from Oakland, too, who have achieved greatness.

One of them is George Sterling, of Piedmont, whose poetry is challenging the attention of the nation.

George Sterling is a nephew of Al. Havens, and he has been working in a quiet way out there in the Piedmont hills.

And the critics of the East are sounding his praises, as a poet. George Sterling has arrived.

One of the great names today in the dramatic world is Nance O'Neill. She is the American who is to rank beside Bernhardt in the future. And there are those who can remember the little girl of Snell Seminary days, who used to go about the halls, saying Shakespeare till everybody begged her to stop.

And then she would turn upon them all, and say with flashing eyes, "You'll be glad to pay to hear me yet!"

And so they are—for Boston has discovered Nance O'Neill—and in six weeks the theatre in which she is playing made a profit of forty thousand dollars. And that is the Nance O'Neill who hails from Oakland. Boston has gone wild over her—and "The Critic," one of the most conservative journals in the nation, prints a fine tribute to her, and among other things says:

"The supreme dramatic event of this season in Boston has been itself dramatic. In unexpectedness, richness of development, and climax it has been 'as good as a play.'

"Miss Nance O'Neill came to Boston last January for a two weeks' engagement at the Columbia. She has been playing here ever since. The town is said to be 'Nance O'Neill mad,' and to have exiled her orchestra to durance perpetual beneath the stage.

"Miss O'Neill at first played Hedda and Magda for less than a pittance to a handful of people. But the stir of deep emotion and high artistic pleasure she excited stormed the box-office and bowled over all handicaps.

"Profits arose, it is reported, from $32 or so, when the town was as yet unaware of the greatness within its gates, to $1500 at the first performance of 'Camille,' when the general public was awakened to a lively sense of what it now takes to be the most potential personality on the English-speaking stage. The profits are stated to have been $40,000 in the first six weeks. Theatrical men of prominence took a hand promptly. Miss O'Neill was moved down-town before the now famous fortnight of discovery was out. Since then, under contract with Mr. John B. Schoeffel, she has played successively—a unique occurrence surely in a single city and season—at three of the most prominent theatres—the Tremont, Colonial, and Hollis street—and enacted no less than twelve different parts. These parts have been various, old and new, subtle and simple, but none trivial. Those least congenial to Miss O'Neill's nobly tragic note have asserted some dominating quality in the impersonation. Rarest trait of all, they have each been conceived, rendered, and made to look essentially different."

NOT ALL ROSE COLORED.

It is not all a rose colored picture—this one of going away for the summer. It has its other side. And among the sketches you will find there is one reflecting the usual "porch gossip." You see it is this way. You have to take your choice. You must join the gossipy group—be one of them—do your share of the "knocking," or you must be without the pale. If you keep away from the aforesaid group, it will conclude you think yourself superior, in which case woe betide you. It will be the special business of every member of the group to take it out of you. You are considered very unsocial, very unfriendly. It wouldn't occur to some people in a hundred years that you are simply tired out, and have come to rest, and you don't want to sit on any porch to do fancy work and talk gossip—when there are trees and hills.

But the gossipy group make it uncomfortable for you, just the same. How some people can sit all day on a veranda, rocking to and fro, talking small nothings, must ever remain a mystery to the human mind! Then there is the great subject of dress, which stares every woman who goes away directly in the face. Perhaps you are very tired from the many dates of a strenuous winter, and you really are not up to the effort of getting yourself into different gowns three times a day. The spick and span shirt waist, and the short skirt appeals to you. But here again you must face the gossipy lady on the porch.

She has been saving up all the year that she may burst radiantly in the latest cry in clothes, upon an interested audience. And you, in your modest raiment, are distinctly inferior.

There ought to be written a new prayer that we may be delivered from the man who measures life by a money standard, and from the woman who measures it by clothes.

BAD CHILD AT SUMMER RESORT.

And then there is the bad little child at the summer resort, and the bad little American child is the worst specimen in the whole world. She is usually a little girl—for the bad little boy is in overalls and the big outdoor world appeals to him. The inheritance of his ancestors moves him to exploration and discovery.

But the bad little girl is always in evidence, and her power for disturbing your equanimity is really marvelous. You could most cheerfully discipline her at any hour of the day. If she knows you are strolling leisurely toward a hammock, she will simply fly to it, and be there before you, leisurely swinging away. She will drive you from your favorite haunts, and she will ask you questions before people enough to drive you to distraction.

She is a very real trial—the bad little American girl at a summer resort.

HOSTESS HAS HER OWN TROUBLES.

All of us are more or less, "week end" guests this summer. You go to your friend's home Friday night or Saturday night, and you return Monday morning. And if your hostess understands entertaining, you will have had a delightful rest. There are so many little country homes scattered about the country now, and these homes all through the summer, are shared with friends. Only the dear hostess has troubles of her own. We have not yet established the hard and fast rules that govern house parties elsewhere, you are told definitely on what train to come, how long you are to stay, and on what train you are expected to return. Any change in the program must be made by the hostess—it is up to her all through the summer "to welcome the coming—to speed the parting guest."

It is infinitely annoying to have a guest arrive on the wrong train, or to have her stay over when others are coming to take her place.

And there is much expected of a guest at a house party. She hasn't come altogether to enjoy herself. That is not up to anybody at any time. The consciousness that "there are others" is immensely helpful.

The guest who knows how to make herself at home, to be part of the household, to help entertain others, is the welcome guest, the one who is asked to come again.

To be asked to come again—that is the test.

And never, under any circumstances, must the guest forget to write "the bread and butter letter"—the little missive which announces her safe arrival home, and expresses in graceful fashion her appreciation of the kindness of her recent hostess.

MRS. HEARST IN LONDON.

With the passing of the summer days come many news notes of interest concerning one's friends.

Mrs. Hearst and the Countess Deroualles have been in London. They came over to be guests at the wedding of Lieut. Jephson, who was an intrepid member of the Stanley explorers, and Miss Anna Head.

The Hearst and Head families have been for many years very intimate friends, and it must have given Mrs. Hearst a great deal of pleasure to have been one of the wedding guests.

And it was all such a romantic story The late Mr. Head bitterly opposed the wedding, and so the engagement was broken off, and for years Lieut. Jephson and Miss Head did not see each other. But before he passed away, Mr. Head realized how cruel his opposition had been, and a belated consent was given. Miss Head went abroad with her mother, the engagement was announced, and now the wedding details have come.

The Heads are very wealthy so the wedding was a grand affair. A special train took the guests to Ascot, and from California there were present Mrs. Hearst and the Pecks.

Lieut. and Mrs. Jephson have a charming country home on the Thames and they will probably make their home abroad.

PECKS IN LONDON.

The Pecks are now permanently established in London, and California will know them no more. They have always enjoyed life abroad, and Orrin Peck and his sister, Janet Peck, spent seven years in Germany.

Mrs. Peck and Miss Janet Peck have a very pretty home in London.

Orrin Peck has been very fortunate in securing the studio occupied by the late Whistler, and that in itself ought to be an inspiration, for the genius of Whistler is the one theme now in the world of art.

Across the way is the studio of Abbey, probably the greatest portrait painter in the world.

The picture of Mrs. Hearst recently finished by Orrin Peck is the finest thing he has done, and eminently satisfactory to Mrs. Hearst's friends, and that is a hard test.

CHARLES BUTTERS ABROAD.

The Charles Butters are abroad, and they are picking up here and there articles of value for their home at Roselawn. The fad of picking up old things really has not so much to recommend it. If the old things have been in your family many years, and have come down to you hallowed by many memories and associations, they are all right, of course, But if they have belonged to others, and you don't know anything at all about them, they are just "any old thing," that's all.

Mrs. J. G. Edwards, Alvette Edwards and Jean Downey have been recently in London. They are going through Scotland before crossing over to Paris.

The John L. Howards have been recently in Germany. Mrs. Howard and Miss Jean Howard are getting a great deal out of their trip abroad, especially along musical lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Grande Tibbetts are not coming to the coast this summer. They have decided to spend the season abroad. They were in Southern Europe all the winter, and they are now in Norway enjoying the most picturesque yachting trips on the grand old fjords, so characteristic of the rugged Norway coast.

MANY GO TO YOSEMITE.

The Yosemite Valley keeps claiming its quota of visitors. Mr. Tom Magee is at the head of a coaching trip, which will include the valley as well as interesting places en route. He is one of the finest whips in the state, and no one ever has any fear when it is Tom Magee who has charge of the four-in-hand.

In the merry party are the Tom Magees, the Frank Carolans, the Joe Tobins. Some of the party are making the trip on horseback, among them Miss Celia Tobin, who is certainly the best horsewoman in the State. She is simply daring to the last degree, and takes a ditch or a fence with the most perfect composure.

The Jorgensons are entertaining greatly in the Yosemite Valley. Mrs. Chris Jorgenson was Miss Ghirardelli, of this city. Mr. Jorgenson's pictures of Yosemite are getting to have a national vogue. The Jorgensons have the most charming cottage in Yosemite valley. One room is devoted to Dutch effects, and the old blue tiling, and blue delft, show charming and picturesque effects.

At a club meeting last season in San Francisco, Mrs. Jorgenson told a most interesting story of President Roosevelt's visit to the valley.

Everyone knows the great preparations which were made for him there, by Jack Wilson and others—pyrotechnics, a chef from the city, and all that sort of thing. But the President would have none of it, and fled to the wilderness, and they couldn't find him.

Late one afternoon Mrs. Jorgenson was sitting on the porch of the modest little cottage, when there emerged from the trees near by, a huntsman. He was tired, and stopped a few minutes in friendly fashion, exchanging the greetings of the day.

And suddenly an inspiration came to Mrs. Jorgenson.

"You are the President of the United States," she said.

And so he was. Needless to say there wasn't anything good enough for him in the cottage, and while the chef was planning a big dinner, the President was quietly enjoying the hospitality of the Jorgenson cottage.

Mrs. J. A. Folger, Mrs. George Cook, Miss Nellie Cook, and Miss Susie Snook make up a party which will leave on Monday for the mountains near Yosemite. They expect to be away a month.

Mr. George Goss is a member of a party which has been camping in the Yosemite Valley. Mrs. Goss has been spending the days of his absence at the Gage home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stolp, Miss Burnham, Miss Sims, Mrs. J. R. Farrell, Miss Farrell, all returned last week from Yosemite.

MISS ETHEL HORNICK.

Miss Ethel Hornick, the well known Oakland girl who has had such a successful stage career will be married to Dr. William Wallace Walker in Sioux City, Iowa, on June 28. The wedding will take place at the beautiful home of Miss Hornick's uncle in Sioux City. Mrs. Hornick left this city a few days ago to be present at the elaborate wedding.

Dr. Walker is a resident of New York and is a prominent and wealthy clubman of that city. He includes among his friends every artist and musician of prominence. After the wedding, Dr. and Mrs. Walker will enjoy a honeymoon trip through Holland and France and on their return will make their home in New York. The bride-to-be is one of the most beautiful women on the stage.

ABOUT PEOPLE WE KNOW.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Coogan and family left on Friday afternoon for Macrays', where they expect to spend some weeks of the summer. Miss May Coogan will join them in a few days.

Among the many guests at Macrays' which is called also "The Old Homestead," are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snook and children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snook, Miss Mildred Snook, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Tupper, Miss Helen Tupper.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walsh will join the Oakland contingent at Rowardennan next week. Mrs. Walsh is sending the children to Applegate, where they will be very happy, enjoying all the charm of mountain out-door life.

Mrs. Frederick Morse and Mrs. Homer Craig have returned to town after a pleasant visit to the Hotel Rowardennan.

Doctor Vida Redington and Miss Lena Redington had planned to leave on Sunday for an extended Eastern and European trip.

Illness in the family has obliged them to put off the trip for some days, and now, the date of their departure is not decided upon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Morehouse left this week for an extended Eastern trip. They are going to St. Louis, and to visit places of interest in the East.

They will go to Canada and take a trip down the St. Lawrence river before returning to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sharon are going East in a few days. They will go to the Atlantic coast to visit their daughter, and will return by way of St. Louis, where Mr. Sharon will be a delegate to the Democratic convention.

DOWN IN THE SOUTH.

Among the favorite places of interest this summer is Southern California.

Captain and Mrs. Minor Goodall have gone south, and will spend some time at Catalina Island.

Mrs. Sumner Bugbee has opened her country home at Santa Monica, and all through the summer it is crowded with guests. She has been entertaining for a month Mrs. Sam Breck and Master Sumner Breck.

Major and Mrs. John B. Mhoon and their little daughter are making their permanent home at Pasadena, where they have a very pretty residence on Euclid avenue. The mild climate of Pasadena agrees with Major Mhoon and his health steadily improves.

It is not likely that the Mhoons will return to Oakland, but they keep up their interest here, for all their relatives and many of their dear friends are here. They often entertain Oakland guests at their pleasant home in Pasadena.

Mrs. Henry Butters and her daughters leave on Sunday for Santa Barbara. They have taken a very unpretentious cottage, and are to spend two months there very quietly, as Mrs. Butters is in mourning. Mr. Butters having engaged in his new business, will remain here for the greater part of the summer.

MISS SANBORN RETURNS.

Miss Laura Sanborn and Miss Gertrude Gould have returned from a most interesting visit to the redwoods of Mendocino County. They were the guests of old friends of the Sanborns.

Both are accomplished horsewomen, and they greatly enjoyed the long rides through the superb mountain trails.

BACK FROM THE EAST.

The many Oakland people who have been East all through the winter and spring are returning to town. Senator George C. Perkins and Miss Pansy Perkins were the first to arrive.

Then came Congressman and Mrs. Victor Metcalf, and they have been kept busy answering congratulations ever since they came home. For it is pretty definitely understood that Mr. Metcalf will have a place in the President's Cabinet.

And what a fine thing that will be for their Oakland friends who happen to be in Washington. Mrs. Metcalf has been exceedingly nice to them in the past, putting herself out in a great many ways. She will be a very pretty and very popular Cabinet lady, and she deserves all the success that can come her way.

Returning Oaklanders have many stories to tell of the cold treatment accorded them in the East by people who were supposed to be their good friends. They may have been the dearest friends here in Oakland, but they find the friendship very cool indeed, when it is transferred to New York or Washington.

You may send your card, and, perhaps (with every chance against it) you'll be asked to dinner. And that is all your old friends will feel called upon to do for you. And sometimes, they will take no notice of you at all. Then they come back to town, and they expect you to rejoice in royal Western fashion over their homecoming. The Prodigal Son returneth to the fold of friendship!

But it has never been that way with the Metcalfs. Once their friend, always their friend—it is no wonder that a fate has enlarged their sphere of usefulness.

If the Metcalfs go to Washington, it would not be any wonder if Mrs. Nicholson and Miss Viva Nicholson permanently closed their home here. The latter was a great favorite in Washington society, when she visited her sister, Mrs. Metcalf, two seasons ago.

Mr. Richworth Nicholson has been ordered to duty on the Philadelphia at Bremerton. He leaves about the first of the month, and his sisters are entertaining for him. Miss Nicholson gives a picnic at Lake Chabot, it will be a charming al fresco affair, and Mrs. Metcalf will entertain at dinner in honor of Mr. Nicholson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Barker are in New York and are planning an early return to this coast.

Mr. Fred Dieckmann is making a short stay in New York, and is at the Waldorf, and at the latter historic hotel are also Mr. and Mrs. Will Magee.

General and Mrs. Oscar F. Long will arrive at Highlands next Monday, coming from the East by way of Seattle. They write of frightful Eastern weather, hot waves alternating with heavy rain storms.

General and Mrs. Long expect to spend a very restful summer with the Requas at Highlands.

Arline Johnson and Peggy Stowe have come home from New York, and Miss Elsie Kimble has left Denver, en route for home.

Mrs. William Clift and Miss Jean Clift have as their guests Mr. Rogers and his sisters of Scotland. They have planned many phases of entertainment, and they are now at Del Monte with their guests. They will return to town early in the week.

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS BARKER.

It is queer how you are expected to be surprised at the announcement of an engagement. Of course, nobody ever is surprised. You can't help seeing what lies plain before you, if you have any faculties of observation at all.

But you pretend you are surprised, and you offer your congratulations with much meekness and without a hint that you have known things all along.

It is the way of the world, one of the little subterfuges which really does no harm, but is an immense comfort to the bride-elect.

And all of this is of course apropos of the engagement announcement of Miss Mary Barker and Mr. Wallace Alexander. The engagement was to have been announced later, when the elder members of the family returned—for Mr. and Mrs. Barker are East, Mrs. Alexander is in Hawaii, and Mr. Alexander and Miss Grace Alexander are somewhere in the wilds of South Africa.

But the engagement crept out, and so congratulations have been the order of the hour.

Miss Mary Barker is one of the best known girls in the social world over here. She is asked everywhere of importance, and like her mother, she is popular and a bright and pleasing conversationalist. She is one of the girls who organized the "Thursday Nights" that were so successful, and among that set of girls were Mrs. Dieckmann, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Thomas Pheby, Mrs. Stephenson, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Miss Crellin, Mrs. Edmund Baker, Miss Grace Holt, Mrs. Doubleday, Miss Sperry. Of course all these many families will wish to entertain Miss Mary Barker, for the Barker home in the past has been the scene of many a hospitable gathering. Mary Barker always does her share in entertaining friends.

But she really doesn't care a bit for society—it is an inevitable part of life here, and so one has to take it with a good many other things. But it doesn't represent much of value to Miss Mary Barker. She cares most for travel, for books, for her music, and for the philanthropies very dear to her heart. So she probably will not stand for very much social entertainment in honor of her engagement.

Mr. Wallace Alexander has had all the care now for many months, of large business interests, in which he has been most successful. He also, is interested in a large way in philanthropic work, and the very successful Aloha Club, on Peralta Street, is due to his generous effort.

The wedding date of Miss Barker and Mr. Alexander has been set for the autumn.

ANOTHER WEDDING DATE.

Another autumn wedding date is that of Miss May Young and Doctor McNab of Los Angeles. The latter is a physician starting in practice in Southern California. One hears that he is likely to succeed, because he has the characteristics which make for success.

The wedding has been set for September, but the many details are yet to be arranged. Mrs. Young has been ill for so many months, that her daughters did not have the heart to make many plans. She is much better now, and every thing is favorable for the wedding to take place in September. It will be a home wedding at Rosecrest, with just the most intimate friends of the bride as guests.

Of course the maid of honor will be Miss Bertha Young, and among the bridesmaids will of course be Anita Oliver and Marietta Havens, who had such a lovely visit in Honolulu, as Miss May Young's guests. Miss Havens will be home the first week in July, and she and her mother will help the Youngs to plan the many wedding details.

Mrs. Havens is as good as gold to her young girl friends, and never fails to give the kindly word of encouragement and praise, which comes with such helpfulness from an older to a much younger woman.

Really the most pitiful woman I know is the woman who has daughters of her own, and yet has nothing but mean little jealous knocks for the daughters of her friends.

PRETTY GOWNS THIS YEAR.

Such pretty, picturesque gowns as one's friends are wearing this year. Really, this summer, it's a woman's own fault if she is not truly interesting. They are beginning to modify the 1830 styles, so that they are not quite so baggy, and are far more becoming. Each woman looks very individual—not like everybody else, as she does generally when everybody accepts a new fad or style. Among the distinctive gowns of the summer is the gray effect worn by Mrs. Tom Magee. The sleeves are finished with an exquisite fall of rare lace.

Miss Florence Hush has a charming effect in shepherd's plaid, made in full 1830 fashion, and another very becoming one of the popular shepherd plaid gowns is being worn this summer by Mrs. E. J. Cotton.

Mrs. J. R. Burnham has one of the handsomest gowns of the year, a reception gown of brown silk, the silk shading to yellow-gold tones.

Mrs. Luning is wearing a Parisian effect in dark blue, made with short plaited skirt, and a deep collar of rare, hand made lace.

Miss Bessie Palmer and Miss Gertrude Allen have each very pretty 1830 gowns of summer silk, and the handsomest tailor gown of the summer is worn by Miss Grace Sanborn.

Mrs. George H. Wheaton made a lovely picture this week, in a charming gown in light blue effects. It was most becoming to her.

Mrs. Requa is among those who have adopted the sensible short walking costume. She is wearing a very handsome gown of black, the costume set off with a bonnet in dainty tones of light violet. Her costume is specially appropriate, that may be said of all the gowns, they carry a certain dignity, very fitting, and very becoming.

Mrs. Willard Williamson wears a golden-brown gown.

But I won't go on—almost every one you meet presents an interesting study in gowns—you might say that our social history today presents some very striking illustrations.

HERRERA LOOKING FOR SCALPS.

WANTS TO MEET HANLON AND NELSON—SEARCH FOR COAST MATCH.

Flushed with his recent victory over Benny Yanger, Aurelio Herrera, the clever Mexican boxer arrived in San Francisco last night with his manager, Joseph M. Wood. Herrera is on the war path and wants particularly to get on a match with Eddie Hanlon or Battling Nelson. Herrera says that he is willing to meet Nelson at 128 at 3 o'clock or 130 pounds ringside on the day of the fight. He makes these statements regarding Nelson but he says that he will fight Hanlon at any old weight and as far as he is concerned Hanlon can make his own terms for the battle.

This looks as if Herrera holds Hanlon in a lighter manner than he does Battling Nelson. Herrera is on the coast for business and is looking for a match with some of the cleverest. He has shown his entire superiority over Benny Yanger whom he defeated without half trying the other night and is certainly entitled to a match with some of the big, little fellows.

A match between Herrera and Eddie Hanlon would without a doubt draw a big house. The same can be said of a contest with Battling Nelson. Both these men are known to be clever and Herrera has gradually fought himself up to a position now that will entitle him to a match with the best in his class.

TO DECIDE DAY OF FIGHT.

COFFROTH JOURNEYS TO HARBIN TO SEE THE ACTUAL CONDITION OF JEFF'S KNEE.

OCEANSIDE, San Francisco June 18—Manager Coffroth has hastened to Harbin Springs in response to a summons of Champion Jeffries. Before taking the train he stated he would see the big fellow and would then decide upon the future.

So far as Coffroth is concerned, the mill will take place if it is possible to bring it off. He realizes that it is extremely unwise to work the public up to the idea that it was to see a grand contest and then to have it result in a fizzle.

Before starting, the club manager stated that he had received a letter from Delaney inviting him to come to Harbin at once. "He did not state the nature of the business he wished to transact, so I am as deep in the mud as the public is in the mire. I apprehend, though that Jeffries wishes a continuance. He has now been lying in bed a week and can hardly recover from the effects of the confinement in order to be in good form inside of two weeks."

Jack Munroe is in the mean time working away and trusting to luck. For the first time, this morning he expressed the opinion that there was doubt about the battle being decided at the end of the month. "I do not know what will happen," he said, "but I am going to keep in condition until something definite is determined. I presume that if Jeffries does not fight he will surrender the title to me. I will then defend it against all-comers. As soon as he recovers I will give him a chance to recover the belt."

Harry Pollock, manager of Munroe, was not inclined to do much talking. He said he would await news from Harbin before he expressed an opinion.

Munroe today went through his usual exercises in the gymnasium. He boxed ten rounds, punched the bag and demonstrated the truth of the claim which has often been made, that he is a better fighter than sparrer by remarking that he would show how he would act in the ring in his bout with Joe Long, the cleverest man among his sparring partners. He went at him like a cyclone and in a single round had him asking for time. Long was game but one single wallop to the body satisfied him.

HILDEBRAND CHANGES STABLE.

Jockey Hildebrand has been released by Joe Yeager and he will hereafter ride for the Whitney and Duryea stable. The price paid for Hildebrand is not announced but the salary offered the clever rider is $7000 by the purchasers.

WEBBER LAKE CROWDS.

For years Webber Lake has had the reputation of being one of the finest mountain resorts in California, and it is now equipped and in better condition than ever before. The Jordan Hotel Company is sparing neither pains nor money to make it the ideal resting place for families.

It is located twenty-six miles from Truckee, in the heart of the Sierra Nevada mountains, 6500 feet above sea level. Webber Lake is a mile long and about the same width, surrounded by forests of towering pines making it one of the most beautiful small lakes in the West.

Webber Lake Hotel overlooks this fine expanse of water and numerous cottages have been erected for the convenience of guests. There are plenty of boats at their disposal, also horses for riding and driving. Nine miles of brook trout fishing afford the best trolling and fly-fishing in the State, and the lake has been stocked with the choicest varieties of trout.

Taking the evening train from Oakland you will arrive at Truckee early the next morning, when you transfer to a mountain stage, reaching Webber Lake in time for lunch. Many guests are already at this popular resort, and F. H. Jordan of the Hotel Crellin is personally attending to their comfort and pleasure.

RAIN STOPPED GAME.

TACOMA HAS BEST OF SEALS UP TO THE SIXTH INNING.

Tacoma and San Francisco had a little game of rough-house yesterday and Umpire O'Connell simply held up his reputation for dignity and good judgment. Hildebrand and Krell got too busy in telling O'Connell how he ought to umpire. O'Connell pulled the watch on the two warring aggressors and in less time than it takes to tell it the gentlemen were fined five dollars each and asked to retire from the field.

The trouble started when Doyle was called safe at second after Hildebrand had slammed the ball to that cushion from the field. Reitz, who was holding down the cushion, failed to tag the runner and then the storm broke.

Both Yerkes and Thomas were in good form and played good ball. But six innings were played, as rain forced the calling of the game at this stage. The game ended with Tacoma 2 and San Francisco 1.

The score:

RUNS AND HITS BY INNINGS.

	1	2	3	4	5	6

TOMAN LEAVES AN EAR ON GROUND

LOS ANGELES LEAVES PART OF SHORTSTOP IN GAME WITH SEATTLE.

There was blood in the Siwash-Angel game when Toman, the clever little shortstop for the Angels, left a part of his body on the field. Frisk passed a hot one to Toman and as the shortstop bent to gather the sphere off the bound it took an extra jump and tore out a part of his ear.

It was a game of batting for both sides and the Angels hit Williams for a total of thirteen base hits, while the Siwashes connected with W. Hall's offerings for the sum of eleven. A heavy wind was blowing during the first part of the game and made the direction of the curves somewhat uncertain. The game ended with Los Angeles 7 and Seattle 3.

The score:

RUNS AND HITS BY INNINGS.

TAKE GAMBLER'S MONEY.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Assistant State Attorney Lindley has received two large satchels and five tin boxes at the criminal court building. They were filled with money, amounting, it is said, to nearly $10,000.

City Custodian Gregier and two policemen guarded the treasure until it had been placed in a vault in the office of the criminal court clerk. The court had impounded the money until the cases in which it figures as evidence have been disposed of. It was seized by the police in raids on handbooks and gambling houses.

San Francisco	76	34	42	.448
Portland	73	25	48	.342

That mercurial aggregation of ball players know sometimes as the Commuters, Lohmanites, Cripples or Oakland, showed a reversal of form yesterday and scored six runs against the Portland team's one. Buchanan was in the box for the Peteltes and there with chimes allowing but six hits and pitching an errorless game. Iberg and Drew were hammered all over the lot and the Commuters gathered thirteen hits off the pair. Portland made the lonesome in the first inning. Oakland made a pair in this section, a single in the third and triplets in the seventh. The local boys played all around the Browns. Portland had four men left on bases and the Lohmanites eleven. The Dugdalers had a total of four errors two of which were made by Francis. Portland's second baseman. The score:

THE NEWS LETTER.

The curious error made by newspaper men regarding the Bandit Raisouli and Mr. Ion Perdicaris is explained in the San Francisco News Letter this week.

All Masons in California, particularly and the world at large in general, will be interested in an article entitled "The House is Your'n."

There is the usual amount of sarcastic matter regarding economic questions, while a leader is made on the strike in Colorado.

The Board of Health comes in for a roasting in verse, while the members of the California Club will find an article to their liking.

The different departments are bright and chatty, and take it all in all, this week's News Letter is an unusually good one.

WILL REST AT SEASIDE.

Chief Deputy Auditor Myron A. Whidden leaves tomorrow morning for a two weeks' vacation which he will spend in visiting the seaside resorts of Santa Cruz, Monterey, Capitola and other places of interest on the shores of Southern California.

It was held by Judge Speer that the act affected a Chinese whether he came direct from China or from the territory of another country. As a result of the decision the prisoners will be deported.

GOOD BOUTS FOR FRIDAY.

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB HAS LOT OF CLEVER ONES FOR BOXING SHOW.

There will be a hot fight when Lew Powell and Jack Hughes put on the gloves before the San Francisco Club next Friday night at the championship contest at Woodward's Pavilion. The Hawthorne Club delegation is preparing to back its man with their last dollar, while Greggains and his friends are confident that Hughes will bring home the big end of the purse.

"Months ago Hughes informed me that it was his ambition to beat Powell. Hughes has been practicing constantly since then and has now arrived at a point when he thinks he can make good," said Greggains this morning. "I gave them an engagement and I am confident they will put up the warmest controversy ever seen in a local arena."

There is no question of the ability of Powell. Two years ago when Terry McGovern made his first trip to California to take on Young Corbett, Powell was secured as a sparring partner. He then carried the Easterner along at so merry a clip that Terry tried to persuade him to turn professional. McGovern went so far as to tell Powell that he had the makings in him of a professional champion.

Hughes is made of the right kind of stuff and for a champion. In addition to possessing a hard punch, he is the personification of gameness and will carry a battle along to a desperate finish. He promises to make Powell hustle when they clash.

Another mill which will be long remembered will be the one between Joe Fedesta and Dick Hyland. The Italian boy will try to kill Hyland off with the pace he sets. Most of the ring followers are of the opinion that the son of Ireland has an advantage on such a score. Fedesta has promised the fishermen he will win and they are ready to bet their smacks on the result. The pair are hard at work training for the mill.

If Hughes is returned a winner, he will probably turn professional and seek a match with some of the top notchers in the upper class.

Mike Synfy has sent out the tip to his friends that he cannot lose in the contest with Young McClure. He has no advantage over his opponent, however, as he is whispering about that he is a sure winner.

FRANKIE NEIL IS WINNER.

EASILY DEFEATS HARRY FORBES IN THIRD ROUND—NOW BANTAM CHAMPION.

Frankie Neil and Harry Forbes had a fight last night at Chicago before the Waverly Athletic Club and the result of the contest without doubt, decides the fact that Neil is too much for Forbes. Frankie beat him in the third round and the bantamweight question is settled between these two. Neil administered a complete knock-out in the third and Forbes was unconscious for several minutes. He had to be carried to his corner by his seconds.

Forbes appeared to have the advantage in the first round. In the second Forbes planted several stiff body blows to the pit, but they did not seem to annoy Neil in the slightest degree. Some swift exchanges by the lads and the constant rushing of Neil to land a knock-out brought the round to a close. In the third round Forbes landed a straight left to Neil's face which straightened him up. Forbes then followed with a right cross to the jaw. He repeated the same tactics twice and Neil did not resent it. It looked as if Forbes was to win at this stage of the game. When Forbes backed away Neil let loose a fierce left swing to the tip of the jaw and Harry took the mat for the count of nine. When he got up he was weak and Neil landed another, which put Forbes to the mat again.

At the second biting of the dust Forbes' seconds threw a towel into the ring to admit defeat on the part of their man, but neither the referee nor the contestants noticed it. Forbes got to his feet and the fight went on more furiously than ever. Forbes landed a right to Neil's jaw, which sent him across the ring. Frankie recovered and rushed. As Forbes came to meet him he hooked his right to Forbes' jaw. The blow was a vicious one and the force lifted Forbes clean off his feet. When he fell he struck the floor on the top of his head. Forbes was completely out and remained out for several minutes.

Neil has demonstrated that he is the better man and that he is entitled to meet someone who is nearer in his class.

Frankie Neil is now bantamweight champion.

OAKLAND INVESTORS WELL PAID.

Those Interested Are Well Pleased With Year's Earning.

Elsewhere in this issue will be seen the dividend notice of the San Francisco and Suburban Home Building Society, which allows the stockholders and those holding participating certificates to realize ten per cent on their investment.

The work and plans of operation of this reputable company are too well known to the investing class of Oakland to need further detailed explanation, but a few side-lights are deserving the company and the scores of local investors. Just where to place money to earn the most is the perplexing problem to persons having from $1000 to $10,000 to invest. To place the same on deposit at local saving banks is safe, but allows but a low rate of interest; to buy mining stocks is to take chance, but investment in a mutual home building society, that is judiciously managed and backed by conscientious, responsible men, eliminates the element of chance, and pays a much higher rate of interest, which in this company, as will be shown by the reference to the dividend notice. The S. P. and Suburban Home Building Society transacts a general loaning and building business, and affords an invaluable opportunity for the safe investment of savings.

This company now has in process of construction seventeen handsome homes in Alameda county.

The Plummer Tract, in Berkeley, which has long been considered the most sightly parcel of residence property in Beautiful Berkeley, has been transformed into one of the handsomest residential districts in Alameda county. In this tract alone are over fifteen homes, costing not less than $4000 each, and of the latest designs in the Shattuck Tract which is equally as well situated, they are building nine very commodious houses.

The architectural work of these handsome residences is under the personal supervision of Mr. Joseph A. Leonard, the well-known Home Builder of Alameda, whose well designed and constructed houses have graced that city for many years.

The character of houses built by this company is a credit to any city, and quite different from those built by some building organization.

One of the most desirable residence portions of Oakland, one having a Lake Merritt frontage, will soon be adorned with homes built by this organization, the first one of which will be commenced next month.

Every shrewd investor knows that a mortgage, or newly improved income-paying property, wisely placed and judiciously handled, payable in monthly installments, is the choicest and safest securities. This company has taken extra precaution not to speculate in vacant land except where contiguous to property they have already improved. This is a radical change from the methods too often pursued which too frequently ends disastrously to the building associations and hurts investoors. The fact that the San Francisco and Suburban Home Building Society has been able for the past three years to pay 10 per cent or more in dividends is a matter worthy the earnest consideration of every man or woman having a few hundred or thousand dollars lying idle, or having less earning power. Another specially attractive feature of this company's business is their excellent form of investment certificates. These certificates carry a guaranteed dividend, and also participate in the regular dividends of the company. These certificates are backed up by a large reserve fund.

It is but justice to the Oakland people having money invested in this company, and the able directors so well known, specially Senator E. K. Taylor of Alameda, that this comment is made.

Don't start on your journey without putting a bottle of Jesse Moore "AA" in your grip.

PUGS IN DOUBT AS TO FIGHT.

DELAY IN THE BIG MILL MAKES THE MANAGERS ANXIOUS.

Instead of making bets on the winner of the Jeffries-Munroe fight the sports are having just as much fun by betting on the chances that the fight will or will not take place. The fight was heralded way back in May, the fighters have thoroughly been advertised, the sporting fraternity has been looking forward to this contest with great gusto, and within the last few days comes the disappointing announcement that Jeffries has been compelled to take to his bed for a space of six days at the least and the date set, June 30th is but a few days away. It surely seems strange that Jeffries' knee should go back on him so near the original date set for the fight which was laid down on the schedule for June 11th. While no howl has as yet been raised that Jeffries is taking there is a whole lot of talk among the sports that something other than a "bad knee" is the matter with the popular champion.

It has ever been whispered that Jeffries is not in condition and has not been since he has been at Harbin Springs, and that the story of the knee is but a stall to delay the fight until he can get into proper shape. There seems to be no other foundation for this statement than that the champion's opponents in the betting class are trying to belittle him in the eyes of the sporting public and thus gain better odds for the fight.

As a matter of fact, it is accurately known that Jeffries has been suffering from his disabled knee for some time previous to the announcement that the fight would be postponed. Should Jeffries decide that he is able to go into the ring on the last day of this month it is pretty generally conceded that he would be in no shape to meet Munroe, who is in the best of condition, and his chances would be small of putting up the battle that he is known to be capable of showing.

The longer the delay of a definite announcement that Jeffries would appear or not appear operates as a check to the receipts as well as to the credit of the battle. Realizing this point, Manager Coffroth of the Yosemite Club left San Francisco yesterday at 4 o'clock to see with his own eyes the condition of Jeffries and the chances of holding the big contest as advertised in the postponement announcement. Definite word will be received this noon as to the day when the fight is to be held and whether Jeffries will appear or not. Coffroth has been spending money preparatory to the landing of the event and now he has decided to investigate for himself in the camp of the enemy.

Sports who are interested in the fight will be on tender hooks until they receive a final statement from Coffroth, as many have come from the East and Middle West to witness the fight and who did not receive word of the postponement from June 17th until June 30th until they arrived.

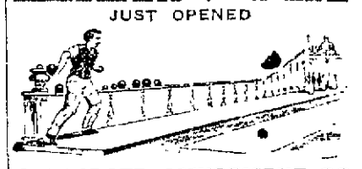

It certainly does seem improbable that Jeffries can get into condition after a rest in bed of six days right in the middle of the last few touches of training. As far as Dr. Deveuing's report goes, it shows that there must be something seriously the matter with Jeffries or it would be most useless to circulate a false report at this stage of the game.

The final word will be received today and if Coffroth thinks that Jeff will be unable to enter the ring on the date set he will so notify the prominent sporting authorities and the big championship fight will have to go over until next fall.

There seems to be little doubt expressed among the sports that Jeffries will not be champion in truth until he meets and defeats the big miner, as he seems to be the only logical candidate for the championship honors at the present time.

SAN FRANCISCO June 1 —Judge John R Garber s add ess in t e water rate case before Judge Gilbert w s an interesting one He spoke on l half of the Water Company as follows

Mr Garber If your honor please Counsel who just closed started out with a statement of what w s the decided and settled law governing c ses of t is kind I do not propos to nflict upon your Honor after all the dis ussions ou have heard and all the decis ns you have participated in any extended discussion of the legal principles her involved I shall take them fo granted But wi out attempting to go back into a revie v of the decisions which have esulted in build ing up the law as it tands I think it may be well to take a few mo ents to advert to a few of the leading principles upon which those dec sions ha e been based because upon those prin iples or in those principles ma be found some light in the appli ation of the later decided cases is they are applied to the varying circumstances of p rticular cases

In the first pla e n the case of Munn vs Illinois the Supreme C urt of the United States said that there was an absolute power in the l gislative depart ment of the government and in the gov ernment of the States to fix at just es the rates and charges upon prop rty de voted to public use And they use the extreme expressio n in that case as your Honor recollects that the judi ry can in no wis and under no circumstances interfere with the exe ise of that leg islative function that the ten th f anchise was at the ballot ox and not be fore the courts In other words ut all the prope ty in the whole Uni ed St s which could be said to be affe ted to public use and a moments ref ction will convince anyone that it would embrace almost all the valuable property in the whole country was constitutionally and lawfully and stood without the scope of protection from any i vasion of the Constitution of the United St es It was at the mercy of the represe tatives of the people elected by the bill and through the ballot box could ass up peal be made no matter how flagr nt the confiscation which might result in the exercise of that b llot

REPUDIATION

Of course that has been repudiated How has it been repudiated and upon what principle Why was t ht after that enunciation and the reaction in its extreme application how was it and upon what principle was it that the courts of this land have decided that that ex treme position must be c rtailed and re trained Upon one principle alone which is at the f und tion of all the law s it now exists upon the subject viz that when the public s s for instance to a water company bound by the very law of its being in the state where it exists to furnish o all who de mand it the water which it has sell when by the legislature or it is om pelled to furnish that water it puz fied and fixed rate and rule that the property is necessarily taken for public use There can be no escape from that proposition It is taken for publ use been se property is noth ng but the right to the use of the thing which prop erty is claimed If you say to a far mer You may raise your crop you may own your farm but you shall charge only so much for every bush l of wheat or article of produce that you produce upon it that property is taken with n the sense and reason and every enunciation of law upon that subject

Where did the Supreme Court f the United States in its first modifica n of the doctrine get the prince ple upon which that modification was founded It got it right in that very provis on of the Con stitution of the United St tes that prop erty should not be taken without due pro ess of law which by the Four th Amendment was held o make th Fourteenth Amendment in which it was provided that property should n be taken for public use without just om pensation binding upon he Stat s as well as upon he Federal Government Th t was the gr t rule When you did this when you regulate these rates you take the property for public use an you must make just compe sation for that taking The limitation from the ex rcise of the right of eminent domain is p rfect and complete From that what n ces arily follows

THE DECISION

When you Honor is speaking in this case to say whether this rate of this rate is a violation of this princ ple you simply have to say Will it take on the principle that I was taking property without just compensatio Has the value of the property be n properly and fairly estimated and a fair and just compensation award for that t king That being so we find in very de cision even down to the present time that the element is found that principles e unchanged The Court must first find what is the value of the property devoted to the use in question What is the v lue of the property You must have a fair and reasonable com pensation and you must mind and em mind nothing else because the whole p inciple rests on the query have they t ken from you without just compen tion and ave they awarded the full value of the p perty

In ascertaining that v lue how are you going to do it You a e not bound by the cost of production you are not bound by the cost of reproduction The elements in the ultimate finalits which as a last result in all these decisio s we come o this Sitting here as a ch ncellor in equity standing between be owners of the property and those who have sought to control its use you must determine upon principles of enlighten ed and broad libera justi e and r ght what is a fair and reasonable compen sation for the thing which has been ta n Before we go any further with t at while the courts may have said and have said—not decided perhaps but sa d— that there is no iron clad u bending ig id rule that in determining what is its just and fair and reasonable compen sation you must give this or that or the other particul rate of int rest on the value which you may have found yet they have always said that all he cir cumstances considered everything which is proper to be taken into consideration having been taken into consid ration you must come in your judgment upon principles of broad equity and r ght to a conclusion of what is a fair and rea sonable compensation

I want ask you Honor if there can be a possible dissent in the mind of any reasonable and just man desiring to hear these gentlemen proclaim here so loudly throughout they have desired to do nothing but broad equitable justice to those upon whose affairs they have been called to administer to the pro osition that Chief Justice Beatty enunciated in the San Diego case that the parti s were called to at least the current rate of interest as compensation fixed upon the value What possible answer c n be made by any just human being to that propos tion Can you conceive of an swer to such a proposition as tha

The State has laid its hand up n pri vate properts and has taken it for public use in the exercise of its tat emc pre rogative—

DAVIS QUESTION

Mr Davis— Pardon me for interrupt ing you Judge but w s that opinion of the Chief Justice concur d in

Mr Garber— I hat was a dis enting o inion but di senting opinion c not it was opposed to nothing that was decided Justices and it stands as I was saying upon an unper ishable and immutable postulate f the most obvious right and justice in quity How can any fair sty that it is not reasonable and proper compensation for me for my property which has been taken from me for public uses when I am giv en less than the rate of the ordinar cur rent rate of interest in the community where that property is situated Think of it for one moment Look at the ver case as an illust ation of it Here a men who have u them money their minds their enterp ise heir end avor heir energies and their hopes into an en terprise of supplying a city in great need of indispensable an element as th wa ter which is necessary to the de p ment of then r homes They have ex pand ou their m ney They have taken all the risk and the trouble and the care They have created the property found the sources of supply brought it to the city and thus have contributed to the welfare nd growth of that city

THE AFFIDAVITS

Can your Honor imagine today sit ting as you sit there in allowing the conditions existing here in California of a mere hy ridous enterprise or one where the current rate of 7 per cent fix ed by the olicy of the law as the proper and normal rate of interest in the ab sence of contract where rate of inter t equal to h t is more loudly c lled for?

Counsel ha brought here as part of Mr White s whi he says that if you go into a savings b nk of San Francisco today and deposit your money you will get between 3 and 4 per cent interest on it Do me ask you Honor what sort of a comparison there is between such an investm nt as that which s intended for and m de by the timid and those who seek absolute safety with the hazard ous risk and venturesome experience of a man who puts his money and his abil ity and his energy into such an enter prise as furnishing a city with the wa ter which it needs If I put my money into a savings bank that savings bank is examined by the Bank Commissioners is conducted by men of approved and known integrity is prohibited by law from taking any risks in loaning its money except in the most absolute se curity I have security equivalent to a United States bond secured by the re sources of the greatest nation upon the face of the globe absolute and certain security I m put to no trouble go to the bank and draw my interest The bonds and the coupons I can absolutely and perfectly sell Will you compare that with an enterprise like that which old man Chabot 50 or 60 years ago start ed in the city of Oakland the r I mited when he sought ground for a source of water so few and fa between and had to find when he toiled and worked to build in his great system— when he took his chances of condemnation took his chan s of regulation took all of he hines incident to such a hazardous risk Are ou going to em pare that with a savings bank inv st ment or a United States bond Where is any element of risk in volved? I say it cannot be thought of for one moment

I do submit to your Honor that when you consider th chances of the absolute and entire destruction of all you put in its accomplished in this very case when by hostile petition the stock was driv en down almost to nothing when it might have been wiped entirely out of existence when the same thing might occur at any moment of time you are not do exercising the rule as laid down date mining what is a fair and reasonable compensation but one lots less than the legal rate declared by the policy of the law seven per cent is or can be a reasonable compensation for such a risk ing as is involved in the passage of an ordinance of this kind Not only the risk which I have spoken of but the very impending nearly recurring const nt risk of an election of a governing b rd empowered to fix the values that shall be received for the use of your own property that you have developed by your own energy and your own capital the recurring danger of some wave of popu lar prejudice or feeling that may ou down to a most nothing or to such a rate as according to counsel here no court can interfere with or protect you against unless they put it below 3 per cent a year

FINANCIAL IDIOT

I ask your Honor would any man in his senses any man who was not a fin ancial idiot ever think of entering upon such an enterprise unless there was in the law some better guarantee than that which they allow now that the court may interfere if I perchance falls below 8 per cent although the argument of counsel if that even if it is no per cent even if by a gust of passion on the part of the people a governing board is elect ed that will destroy your investment and put your bonned indebtedness out of the way will take away all your profit f ore year or two years or three years f that be so he says that according o the query of Judge Brewer which was not concurred in by any other member of the court as I read the decision you a e remediless in a court of law even if they take away from you all you have

There are vast property interests all over this land dependent upon this very thing that the counsel miscalled the guaranty of the law He says that pe ple go into these enterprises with their eyes open they know they had a guar anty as he calls it of the law and there fore they are protected A guaranty of what? According to his own concept on of the law according to his own state ment of the law a guaranty of noth ing a guaranty that any board elected at any time may take away every single piece of property you have fostered and made capable of producing an incom What is that a guaranty of? There are some things that are guaranteed For instance if I buy a United States bond or a railroad bond they guarantee me so much interest I am satisfied with a low rate of interest because it is secure and certain But there is no guaranty in an investment of the kind we are consid ering It is simply you may make what you can make if you can make it pro vided that a some election in some gust of popular passion the representatives of the people thus elected shall see fit o allow you to make something How are you going to fix the rates unless as I said before looking at the hazardous na ture of the enterprise looking at the thing as it is and considering the de cisions of the highest courts of the land that have said there must be a just nd reasonable compensation and in the ab sence of some peculiar circumstances none of which exist in this case the just and reasonable compensation must be at the very lowest rate of interest al lowed by the policy of the law

RISKY ENTERPRISE

If I were sitting as a Judge I would be compelled to say that in a risky en terprise like his 10 per cent at the low est would not be more than reasona ble compensation for the risk and you be undertaken by the promoter of an en terprise like this Your Honor must say what is just and reasonable compensa tion I have assumed that the must be at least the legal rate of interest It must be something substantial

POWER IN COURTS

The reason why the power is lodged in the courts to guaranty—to borrow the language of counsel—this reasonable rate of interest is to prevent the con stant and nearly recurring dislocation and destruction of all those ven en terprises Political economy tells us history tells us reason tells us that that which is the greatest to the civ lization of any people is the security o prop rty and the permanency of investments made How can you have that security except by the wise policy of the judge ially invested in the judiciary to pro tect the investor against the sudden gust of passion on the part of the electors whose representations are entrusted with the vast and perilous power? That being so I shall not go further into much of anything about the other principle so much elaborated here in another case as I understand and as I know to this ef s to the principle upon which your Honor is to sit in deciding upon an application for interlocutory or a preliminary in junction as distinguished from the which will guide you when you come to finally decide the case upon its merits

I seem to me that the decisions which have been cited here are based upon obvious equity and sense and that is you look to the relative conveniences and inconveniences of the parties It will not do that property shall be destroy ed before the judgment can be had be fore the merits can be full and fairly investigated not upon mere ex parte af idavits pro and con perhaps as in this case on the spur and hurry of the moment and without opportunity for full pre sentation The Court will say If I see here is a conflict of evidence—I shall conflict of evidence it may be—upon the question of valu I will simply stay the hands of the rties and I reserve h status quo until the matter can be finally decided by the Courts That appears to me a hardship upon the defendants It need not involve any great delay The Court is always sitting and is always ready to dispense justice In a case like this the Court will be eager and r ady to speed the trial as against any pos sible objection on the part of the com plainant who has come into Court de manding injunctive relief asking pro ed preliminary relief They can have their trial The matter can be de cided and decided in the only way in which justice can be done and the wise policy of the law carried out and l iter ests protected that is upon a full hear ing and judicial investigation under the machinery of the law provided for the thorough investigation of questions of this kind

RATE PAYERS

Counsel says that the Court cannot protect the defendants or the rate pay ers I submit that that is not so I sub mit that the powers of a court of equ ty and its flexible procedure are per fectly amble to provide the full st me most perfect and complete protection in a case of this kind as has been often exemplified in cases like this Your Honor can frame your interlocutory de cree in such a way that there can be no possibility of any doubt of loss or injury to the defendants or to the rate payers The money can be required to be put wherever this court sees fit to have it put and the court can devise the machinery and a commission if neces sary to appoint one to see that the rights of all are speedily enforced and the money returned if the final decision should be against the complainant whereas as was shown so amply in the other arguments here and in the othe case with us we are simply remedi less if the injunctive relief is not granted

It is said that there is a presumption in favor of the defendants that the rate is presumed to be a just rate and upon us rests the heavy burden of proof to displace the presumption and to show to the satisfaction of the court that the rate is unjust Why is that so? Upon what does it rest? If upon anything that the law has delegated this particular tribunal as a body to fix and deter mine these rates and that the officers have determined it and the presumption of law is they did their duty and deter mined it according to law and correctly That presumption is no stronger than the presumption that the three preceding rates were fixed in the same manner and were equally just If you are going to presume that because these officials in fixing this rate fixed a correct rate what are you going to do with the presumption flowing from the fact that the preceding boards fixed a different and a higher rate unless which does not appear here there is a semblance of a pretense that there has been a change of circumstan ces warranting the change in the rate

THE RATES

If the fixing of the rate by the Coun cil is prima facie correct was not the fixing of the other Councils prima facie also correct And if as we have shown here here is not the semblance of a pretext was the rates should have been lower this time than they were before does no the presumption absolutely fail at the very least for all the purposes of a preliminary order preserving the sta tus quo until a final decision can be ren dered?

But this is not all or nearly all that appears in this case A higher presump tion still a much more potent presump tion is derived from the fact that in this particular case no only did we have the rates fixed before the higher rate under circumstances warranting no higher rate and upon a proceeding instituted in a court of the State having jurisdiction over such matters and after a trial of seven months duration wherein the whole thing was thoroughly sifted and discussed by able counsel with full op portunity to present all the facts and decided by a judge of the Superior Court the matter was conclusively de termined and fixed so far as all the pur poses of this motion are concerned as I contend

Why is it th t in ordinary cases when a judgment of court of competent ju risdiction which has fully heard and de termined the m tter is produced that is the end of the controversy and the judg ment is accepte l as a finality Why is that? What is the reason of it? It is because especia ly in questions of value and in view of the difficulties presented in a case of thi kind it is to the inter est of the partie as well as of the State that there shall e an end to the contro versy and to the litigation that the mat ter shall be det rmined somewhere and somehow in the roper way which is the judicial way

AL HEARD

In this cas all the parties were heard the city of Oakland was heard the rate payers we e heard by the parties capable o representing them the complainant wa there the pleadings were made the witnesses were called the question was thoroughly investigated and the decision of the Court was ren absolutely everything dered establishin for which we co tend in this case Un loss they could how which they have not attempted to show here that from the time when Judge Hart fixed the val uation of this pr perty at $7 000 000 up on the testimon before him and the further investiga ion which was made at least some pl usible reason for say ing there is som reason why it should be different now rom what it was then whereas we know and your Honor must know that if there is to be any differ ence in view of he common history of the times the value of this prope y like the values of all other properties must have increased is her than depreciated

NOT REVERSED

Why then sh that judgment ren dered when we come here simply to pre serve the status quo until we can ap pear and be heard again before this court I say why should not the court give con trolling effect to that decision thus ren dered and neve yet reversed At the very most the m st that I say a court will do in view of the recognized prin ciples of comity i a case of that kind would be to stay its hand nd preserve the status until th proper tribunal could have an opportu ty to decide whether that judgment should be reversed or not Moreover in this case your Honor has the record of tha judgment before you sufficiently for th purposes I im now speaking of If there was any o e sin gle point of error any one single reason to suggest the probability or thought that the Supreme our would or should reverse the decision Judge Hart it was for defendants herein to point it out and show it to your Honor But there is nothing in that record to lend the slightest semblance to the belief that that judgment ever can or should or will be disturbed by the ppellate court No point of law was ruled against them The evidence all onflicting was decid ed by Judge Hart How can this court sitting on a motion of this kind with that judgment before it otherwise than conclude that for he time being it will presume that that judgment has verity and should not be disturbed by the up pellate court?

With he previous adjudicat es of the legislative boc es with the subse quent adjudication f the judicial depart ment of the State staring u confronted with the testimony we are produced on this motion as to valu s I should be determined that the value would be tak n as Judge Hart fixed it in his judg ment and as our experts have testified here in their affida its No new evidence is here before your Honor which was not before Judge Hart Every point that was made here was made ther He had the advantage of hearing cross examin ations of having all the collateral cir cumstances before him of not being con fined to the more ex parte affidavits drawn up perhaps by the attorneys and submitted to the witnesses He had all these advantage Why then should not his determinati n be taken here for the time being at least as against the showing which is made here?

SHOWING MADE

What is the showing made before your Honor? Nothing on earth but th t this present Common Council when it came to fix the rate in the face of that judicial determination did what? Pres ment o this very same record which was found the testimon of these same witnesses and they adopted at that testimony and th y overruled Judge Hart and decided th t the witness whose valuations he did no accept they would accept and rejected the witnesses whom he after cross examination and investi gation and argumen and decided were the ones which carried conviction to his judicial mind That is all the investiga tion they made All they produce here i a statement culled from the bill of ex ceptions or from th transcript of tes timony in the case setting forth to your Honor merely the c nclusions that they deduced from reading the testimony of these witnesses Counsel has argued here that the nu merical majority of the witnesses was on his side in that case Wh t has that to do with it? That means nothing Ex pert after expert on their side mad cer tain statements based on certain the ries which Judge Hart heard and weighed and decided upon our of the other side gave their reasons for their opinions and Judge Hart decided in their favor And this Council listened or obeying for the time being the decision of the judicial depar ment of the government underlook themselve o sit as an ap pellate tribunal and reverse the judg ment of Judge Hart and render a rate different from what he declared should be the rate Should that be so? When the courts of the country have decided a fixed point and decided a certain va uation shall these boards for ever and forever as time goes on disregard the decisions of the courts and throw the matter again into litigation? And shall the courts when th bo rds do disre gard these solemn a judications refuse the privilege of a te porary injunction to preserve the status quo until it shall be determined whether there is any new matter any new an su sequent filing which authorizes the to do so disregard the solemn and judicial de isions of the judi cial department of the State?

ENGINEERS

There is one thing perhaps which may be claimed to b in the nature of new testimony not b fore Judge Hart and that is the opinion of Mr Desmond Fitzgerald given to Mayor Olney and produced in evidence efore your Honor That is all I wish t say a few words as to the weight which can be accorded to that How was tha opinion obtained? Mayor Olney in his affidavit would have the court believe that this was done be cause of a great anx ty les those ex perts who testified b fore Judge Hart might have been p ejudiced and that he wanted some unprejudiced impartial man to come in here and d cide this just on as between he people and the company

JUDGE HART

Judge Hart was not an Oakland Judge He was taken from a different part of the State— rom Sacramen o county He s a man against whose im partiality and ability and judicial in tegrity no breath or whisper I believe has been made here in this case In or der to do away with h s decision Mayor Olney with a great show of fairness to the Company sends o Mr Desmond Fitzgerald and says to him We have not been able to get a fair determina tion everything has b en biased every thing has been w ong the whole thing is wrong now I want y u to come in here and give us something that both parties can fairly stand by and that will do in justice to no one—and how does he do it? He writes him a letter of instruc tions I want to read to your Honor just a few words from thos instructions He does not tell Mr F zgerald that the Judge of the Court has as he says in his affidavit made an absurd and ridiculous decision I believe tha is what he says in his affidavit He does not tell him that all the experts have been biased and all that He told him he wished him to go to work and determine the value of this plant that is the only thing Not what a piece of pipe cost that was put in the ground not what you could dissect this property into its original elements and what you could reproduce it for But it was an inquiry as to what this prop erty as a living organized thing produc ing large revenues in his judgment and experience a d distinguished engineer was worth and what was its value It seems to me that would have been the thing to say to Mr Desmond Fitzgerald having in view the purpose which Mr Olney proclaims here he had in view Don t go to picking out what you can re produce one thing for or another thing for ot what is the cost of this or th cost of that don t leave out all the water rights or all the rights of way don t leave out all th lands don t consider it as a whole or as it is as the court must consider it in l as Judge Hart did consid r it but take it and allow nothing in the world for anything but the mere structural featu e of the thing treated as so many pieces of iron and yards of dirt thrown up to make a reservoir

Mr Olney— Judge Garber will you kind y read the instructions that I gave to Mr Fitzgerald

Mr Garbe — That is what I am going to do

Mr Olney— I told him to include the water rights

Mr Garber— Did ou tel him to in clude the water rights?

Mr Olney— Yes I did

Mr G rbe — Then I am mistaken I beg your pardon

Mr Olney— I told him to include ev erything except the value of the land—

Mr Garber (interrupting)— I will see what you did tell him I will read what you told him The City of Oakland de sires your opinion upon he following matters F e ual cash value of the water distributi s stem of the Contra Costa Water Company in the City of Oakland That would seem fair on he face of it so far as the mere distribut ng system is concerned but all of that is taken away by a subsequent state ment here In making your estima e you are to consider that there is no exclu sive franchise or in fact an franchise in Califo ia Please take into consi eration also the inadequacy of the Con tra Costa system for supplying he City of O kland with water and that it is inadequate to th needs of the city a new distributive system must be made Even in such case the present system of the Contra Co ta Water Co pany must have some value for present pur poses and until new di tributive sys tem be laid there ma be portions of the present system that can be used to advantage f installing a new and ide qua e system Mr Fitzgerald is re pe said that he had taken into consi eration the fact of the fi dences of the distributive system he must remember that I was inadequate sy tem and it would have t be supplanted with a new one

Mr Olney— The instruction was as to the adequacy or inadequacy of it

Mr Garber— I have read it You told him to assume to estimate the value of it taking for granted its absolute in adequacy as that it must be replaced by a new system The instructions continue The value of the reservoirs within he city limits and the value of the pipe lines connecting the reservoirs with the main reservoirs of Lak Chabot and Lake Temescal and the pumping plant at Alvarado

Mr Olney— I do not o say that I in cluded the valu ion of the water rights

Mr Garber— Yes I saw that I beg good your pardon for that oversight and I will do so again But in making new rebuttal matter which is me mo tant What sort of an ma erio is his to give in arbite to get an im artial and reliable estimate of the value of property when he is told In estimating the value of the improvements the ale in such case is to estimate what it will cost to replace them with improvements equally good

Mr Olney — Please read the instruc tions in regard to water rights

Mr Garber— You told him it was very hard for him to estimate the v lue of water rights for the reason there was no ascertainable market value

ALVARADO PLANT

If your Honor please I desire to say a few words in reference to the Alvara do plant That is a very impo tant prop osition in connection with this discus sion That is the property that was bought from he old company by the new It is put in at our estimation at two and a half million dollars and by the testimony he c that is what it cost we have other testimony that that is was it is worth When Mayor Olney told Mr Fitzgerald to estimate that plant he gave him this instruction The value of the pumping plant at Alvarado The value of that plant ought to be fixed at the amount that it would cost to erect equally good machinery in the same place or immedia e neighborhood and appli ances with all the appurtenances con nected t herewith You need not esti mate the v lue of the land where the pumping plants re erected Is that a fair way for estimating plant of this kind? To go and pick it out without any regard to its connection to its availabl ity to its present va ue f t present pro ductiveness t being altogether one going concern and estimating it simply upon the cost of reproducing it I think that every decision that has been rendered has repudiated that doctrine It is equivalent to telling Mr Fitzgerald You have nothing to do with the values really as the courts understand them as an ul timate result of the consideration of cost and all other circumstances all I want you to do is to find out just what the cost of construction of this thing was That was not a fi way Such an es timate as that s not of the slightest value I certainly is not of value for the purpose of overturning the deliberate decision of Judge Hart rendered in ac cordance with and strict accordance with as his decision says the well set tled enunciations of courts in cases of this kind Fitzgerald estimates the Al varado pumping plant and wells at $117 000 If that is a plant that is capable of producing 6 000 000 of gallons a day of water—that is the testimony here for which two and one half million dollars was paid by the other company why should Fitzgerald put it down at $117 000? Five eighths of the capacity of the Lake Chabot property that their own ex perts and ll the experts e timated at $1 09 000 000 in value this man Fitzgerald under these instructions—this arbitr called in with all the flush of trumpets— brings it in at $117 000 I say that such a report so obtained was wrong It was not obtained under the sanction of an oath and there is no fact or reason or circumstance given by him to support his valuations so obtained under these erroneous instruct ons and without the sanction of an oath or without the pos sibility of cross examination and I say it is absolutely trivial and amounts to no hing and the weight to be given it is so light to be weighed here to destroy the force and effect of the ad udication and de te mination had by Judge Hart in a ju dicial proceeding befo e him should amount to nothing

ENTITLED TO ORDER

For these reasons I say taking the testimony as it is the most you could make ou of it in any event would be a co flict in the op inion of these people on this partia and necessarily incomplete represen ation that it has been possible to make before your Honor Even if that was all under the rules of law we are entitled to a preliminary order But that is not all we have reinforced our showing by the strongest possible tes timony and if there was ever a case in the world if here ever could rise a case in passing upon a motion for a prelim inary injunction on conflict of testimony as to the main mat rial issue where the status quo should be preserved it is in a case of this kind where we have rein forced the evidence on one side by such conclusive and weighty considerations as are shown in this case The parties have had their day in court and the issue has been decided Certainly this is a case where the court should issue the prelim inary order and stay the hands of the parties until the final order

I submit that we are entitled to a pre liminary order and if necessary we shall give such ample security as the court de mands to prevent any possibility of loss accruing and we are ready t any time to make good our ass rtion on the trial of this case on its merits

Takes No Money for His Services, Says His Mission Is to Heal Disease and Teach Mankind a Secret Law of Nature Which Has Been Overlooked By Doctors and Scientists for Centuries Past.

From the Buffalo Courier

Rochester —Prof Thomas F Adkin a wealthy resident of this city has truly created a sensation among the medical fraternity By some marvelous law of nature he has done practically everything but bring the dead to life and doctors and scientists who have witnessed his work are looking for him to do this next In fact they have been so taken back that they would not now be surprised at anything they admit that all their remedies and treatment are but toys and tinsel is compared with the wonderful discovery of this remarkable man People say he possesses divine power Many of those who have been cured by his mysterious power look on him as a god But Prof Adkin says No I have no divine powe There nothing supernatural bout me I have simply discovered a secret law of nature which has been overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries pa I believe that any mans life can be saved so long as he is not actually dead and the vital organs of the body have not been destroyed and I further believe that when I perfect my discovery a little more I shall be able to restore life to any one dying from drowning or other causes which do not destroy the vital organs provided decomposition has not set in I know these are strong statements but look at some of the people I have cured They were ill but d ctors said there was no hope yet in many cases and them of actual disease in less time than it takes to tell you about It There was Mrs J A Phipps of Irwick Lex who was the next thing to dead when I took hold of her case He is her letter read what she says I never saw her but I cured her just the same as if she had been in my office The reporter was handed several letters from patients among them that of Mrs Phillips The following extracts are taken word for word from some of the letters Mrs Phillips writes When I first began your treatment I had no faith in it at all but tried so many different kinds of medicines with no benefit I had been under the treatment of twelve different hospitals with no relief and then I employed two home doctors but they soon got so they did me no good and told me they could do nothing for me and that if I could find anything that could do me any good for me to get it for they had done everything they could I suffered from every disease that flesh is heir to I had been bedfast for five years unable to stand up longer than ten minutes at a time If ever a woman suffered I did I could not lie bu on one side I had two large bed sores that gave me a great deal of trouble and I suffered so much in other ways I had kidney trouble catarrh f the bladder and also gravel I us d to suffer at times until I had spasms I also suffered from falling of the womb, ulcers and chronic indigestion, and of course all of those diseases left my nerves in a terrible condition when I finally wrote to you You have done for me what no one else ever did But my friends all say that I have been raised from the dead I was nothing but skin and bones now I am feeling splendid I say to every one that if they would place their case in your hands you will do the same for them All they need to do is to give you a trial

Miss Hattie L Kelly Seal Cove Me writes Words an hardly express the gratitude I feel for what your treatment has done for me When I began taking it I had given up hopes of ever being well The doctors said that consumption had command hold of me Now after taking one months treatment I am home well and I know that in a few months time I will entirely regain my health and strength Prof Adkin has done more for me than all the doctors I have ever had in my life and I hope it will be the means of bringing others to you

I A Wright Lily Me I was afflicted with diseases for over 20 years and was treated by different physicians but got no relief I thought your treatment would help me and I am glad to say it has done me a great deal of good I am now able to be about my work and hope it will be the means of bringing others to you

Prof Adkin claims that the very worst cases in the county to him are but mere child s play and he challenges any physician or set of physicians to produce a case that he cannot cure He has a number of business men who are testifying to the wonderful power of his treatment and many of these are well known people

Prof Adkin is quite wealthy He does not charge for his services to the poor and has a number of beds in the hospital connected with his institute for the benefit of those who are unable to pay for treatment and cannot afford to leave home

He insists the use of Christian Science or faith healing or drugs He claims he can hold in check the highest degree of consumption and further he will submit to any test that can be put to prove it One thing is sure and that is he has some mysterious knowledge that he possesses which he claims he has taught people in the very last stages of usually fatal diseases Over twenty doctors have given up the case of his brother He is now receiving right with him and his wife are receiving daily letters of thanks for wonderful cures he performs Nearly every mail brings invalids to be healed by his power He has in enquiries mail from persons in nearly all parts of the globe The most mysterious thing about his whole work is his ability to heal at a distance but he says he has proof that he does heal those thousands of miles away the same as those who call personally This would seem to prove beyond doubt that thought will power or some mysterious intangible force can be sent through space the same as we are now able to telegraph without wires but how this force takes hold and quickly rids the body of an internal disease is totally inexplicable In some cases Prof Adkin sends a peculiar magnetized food product in concentrated form which he claims immediately revitalizes the whole system What his food product is how he makes it or charges it with magnetic fluid is his secret Doctors and scientists are vainly puzzling their brains trying to discover it Those who are sick and would like to be healed may communicate with Prof Adkin by addressing him as follows Thomas F Adkin Box 5956 Rochester N Y Rich and poor alike receive the same courtesy He has an extremely affable manner but is intensely earnest in everything he does Leading business men and bankers speak very highly of him and some say that he has done more for the upbuilding of the city than any other man in Rochester

SOLDIERS PLOT DEDICATED IN EVERGREEN CEMETERY

IMPRESSIVE EXERCISES ARE HELD BY OLD SOLDIERS.

Addresses Made By Senator George C. Perkins, Judge Ogden, W. L. Hill and F. S. Hastings.

Yesterday the anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill was celebrated in an appropriate manner by the formal dedication and consecration to the hallowed purpose of sepulchre for the soldier dead of a sun-kissed plot in Evergreen Cemetery.

Incidental to this ceremony was the inauguration of a stately flag pole which is anchored in the plot and rises thence to a height of 110 feet toward the vault of heaven, and the breaking out upon this staff, for the first time, of a large American flag, which took to the breeze with an airiness and beauty that created patriotic emotion in the breast of every onlooker.

VETERANS.

The occasion was graced by the presence of a number of veterans who had stood the brunt of battle, as also of patriotic women who, since the war, have been in affiliation with the devoted ladies' organizations which continue in peace the ministrations of aid and mercy which women so gallantly rendered during the war.

There were present too, not a few citizens, lovers of country, despite the fact that they had never experienced the shock of battle and a host of children, who are henceforth to send down the line of posterity the patriotic impulses reference to which found lodgement in their hearts.

There was present also in the person of T. A. Cooper, a man who had fought on the rebel side, and George K. Knowlton, a gallant fighter of the sea, who had to be taken to the scene in an invalid's chair.

PERFECT DAY.

The occasion was dominated by weather which aroused latent, even decaying enthusiasm in those upon whom years now rest heavily. There was a genial warmth in the atmosphere, and wherever the eye turned it rested upon smiling wreaths of gardens fair, gentle rolling acclivities terminating in the foothills which were rounded and softened under a purple haze, and, on the other hand, an entrancing view of rolling, restless main. It was a perfect day, both in nature and sentiment and will endure while memory lasts with all who figured in it.

RELIC OF BUNKER HILL.

In special keeping with the occasion was the presence of S. D. Nesmith, a member of the patriotic society of the Sons of the American Revolution, a descendent of a revolutionary sire, who had in his possession the old flint musket which his grandfather, James Nesmith, 127 years ago yesterday had trained upon the British forces at Bunker Hill when Prescott gave the memorable order to fire. The old weapon is still in an excellent state of preservation and was handled by spectators with feelings of reverent curiosity and sentiment. Mr. Nesmith is a resident of this city, his home being at 551 El Dorado street.

THE PLOT.

This plot, the contour of which suggests that of Little Round top at Gettysburg, is the gift of Evergreen Cemetery Association to Lyon Post, No. 8, G. A. R. It contains an area sufficient for 370 graves. The title to it rests in the post mentioned, though burial in it is not to be denied to any honorably discharged soldier, irrespective of his membership or lack of membership in any patriotic organization. It occupies the most prominent site in this beautiful resting place of the dead. It will catch the eye of every visitor to the place as also that of those who pass the roadway.

In the middle of the inclosure rises a beautiful flag staff, which is 110 feet in height. The lower mast was raised in Maine and the top mast in California. The stick is the gift of Col. F. S. Hastings, of San Leandro, a brave veteran, whose devotion to the flag has inspired a liberality which has given flag staffs to several communities and inspired a reveration for the country's ensign of the most patriotic order.

The flag which floats from this staff is the gift of Senator George C. Perkins and it was he who broke the starry banner out for the first time after it had ascended to the peak.

The visitors were borne to the scene to and from the cars on the San Leandro road by Joe Martin and his trinity of carryalls.

THE EXERCISES.

The exercises opened by the Assembly sounded on the bugle by Dr. C. G. R. Montoux.

Rev. Robert Whitaker, pastor of the Advent Baptist Church, then feelingly offered prayer as follows:

"Almighty and ever blessed God our Father, Thou whom Israel knew as Lord of Hosts, Thou Lord of all loyal, loving hearts, we pray Thy blessing upon the exercises of this hour. We thank Thee for our country and our country's flag, and for the brave men who fought and died for the liberties which we enjoy and that peace and prosperity might possess the land.

"We thank Thee for the memories of this day, and for the defeat which was turned to such glorious victory, and for the token which it is to us that even this seeming defeat of death shall be glorious victory also for all who trust in Thee.

"Bless Thou these comrades in arms, and all who are here, and bless our land. Give us wisdom, and strength, and sincere patriotism, and may our country both take and keep its place among the nations, and serve all the higher interests of men.

"And may Thy kingdom come, and Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven, in His name who loved us and gave Himself for us. Amen."

The Maccabee Band then played the "Star Spangled Banner," and during this feature the flag was displayed from the pole.

PRESIDENT OF THE DAY.

Judge Ogden, as presiding officer, then spoke as follows:

"I never attend a dedication of ground for a soldiers' burial plot that I do not recall to mind the words of the immortal Lincoln, delivered at the consecration of the Gettysburg battle-field:

"'Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon the continent a new nation conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. * * * We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.'

"Nearly four decades have passed since that memorable speech and, today, we meet in this land of the Sunset Sea to dedicate a plot of ground that shall hold those veterans now in the autumn of their lives who are looking forward to that asylum above where we shall cease from our labors and be at peace forever.

NEARING THE END.

"Soon, the last of those gallant fellows shall have passed from our sight, and then shall we recall the poet's words:

"'The land is holy where they fought,
And holy where they fell;
For by their blood that land was bought—
The land they loved so well.
Then glory to that valiant band,
The honored saviors of the land!'

"In their lives we cannot do them too great reverence; after their death, too great honor.

"It is fitting and proper that, for this occasion, as the orator of the day, we should have with us the man who has so well represented this commonwealth in the National halls of legislation, our beloved neighbor and townsman, United States Senator George C. Perkins." (Cheers.)

SENTIMENT IN MUSIC.

John W. Gwilt, of Sons of Veterans, then sang "Cover Them Over with Flowers" in a sweet and tender manner, and was warmly applauded.

WILLIAM LAIR HILL.

Hon. William Lair Hill, president of Evergreen Cemetery Association, was then introduced and spoke eloquently and feelingly as follows:

"Addressing you as the representative of Evergreen Cemetery Association, merely by reason of the accident of being its president, few words will be expected of me.

"The primary object and principal thought of the Cemetery Association, in selecting this spot for a cemetery, and in proceeding with its development, has been to make of these grounds a fitting place for the exercise of those tender sentiments with which the living cherish the memory of their dead. In the human mind, the last resting place of the remains of those who have gone before to that 'undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns,' is a sacred and hallowed spot; and it is the natural sequence that the grounds selected for the purpose should be adapted to such development as would bring the surroundings into closest harmony with the solemnly tender emotions that surge up when we stand beside the graves of those we loved in this life, and that in the development of those grounds this harmony should be maintained. Such has been the controlling idea in laying out this cemetery.

COMRADES IN DEATH.

"The little plot which is dedicated today as the final earthly home of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic is but a part of the plan of the entire cemetery, but it is fitting that, as these men are distinguished from all others by the service they rendered to their country, as they were comrades in the patriotic perils that saved this great land to that orderly liberty which is sacred only by territorial unity, they should lie together as comrades at the end of their earthly career.

NOTHING TOO GOOD FOR VETERANS.

"When the subject of a plot in these grounds for the Grand Army of the Republic came before the Board of Directors of the Association for consideration, Professor Crawford, then a member of the Board, speaking with that gentle earnestness that makes him beloved wherever he is known, said: 'Yes, yes; nothing is too good for these men;' and every member of the board echoed the sentiment. And, today, on behalf of the Board of Directors of Evergreen Cemetery Association, I repeat: 'nothing is too good for these men,' bearing upon their shoulders the burden of time and of events, and wearing upon their heads the white crown of long life and glorious deeds.

BIVOUAC OF THE DEAD.

"Soon after the close of the Civil War, and many times later, on having occasion to visit the National Capital, I made it a special point to go over to the soldiers' cemetery at Arlington; and, lately, I went through that great city of the patriot dead in Baltimore. These are but examples of the various soldiers' cemeteries maintained by the nation, but, in every cemetery throughout the country, north and south, east and west, sometimes in plots like this appropriated to themselves alone, sometimes in single graves, sometimes in unknown graves, rest the soldiers of the Grand Army—yes, the great majority of the Grand Army are resting thus; and those who remain are going soon, to join their comrades on the other side; but, whether with us or departed, the memory of their deeds and sacrifices is the most precious inheritance of the American people.

COMMUNING WITH THE DEAD.

"In this cemetery, the small, plain headstones each marking the last resting place of a dead soldier, stretched away back into distance, each bearing a number. I was in search of the grave of a soldier. I went into the lodge at the entrance. In it there was an old, bent soldier with the crown of good deeds on his head. He said that he could locate the grave if I gave him the name of the soldier. I gave him the name. He looked into a big book and said, 'I will show you the grave.' We walked along an aisle which led through these numbered stones and, at length, he stopped and said, 'There is the grave.' I gazed at the mound of my friend, and then turned around to my guide, but he had noiselessly disappeared. Soldier-like he wanted to allow me to be alone in communion with my soldier friend.

REVERENT HEART BEATS.

"The feet of loyal American citizens tread reverently the sod around the soldier's grave; the eye of every loyal American looks reverently at the monuments of our patriot dead. The heart of every true American beats reverently when memory recalls the unselfish devotion of these men now before me, and their comrades on the alter of liberty.

FLAG STIRS EMOTIONS.

"A few years ago I had occasion to sojourn a little while in foreign countris. There were no events that disturbed me while there. There was nothing that made me feel particularly the need of that protection of which the American flag is the emblem. I received civil and even courteous attention outside of my own land, but it was not home. And when the ship to our own beloved land entered the mouth of the Mississippi river and I saw on its banks the Stars and Stripes, the beautiful banner of my own county waving on high, the emotions which arose spontaneously in my breast were such as cannot be described in words.

"And then, the second thought: This is in the State of Louisiana, and but for the deeds of these valient men, I should not find the American flag here; I should not find it in my own native State.

REPUBLICAN INSTITUTIONS.

"Misguided and mistaken the people of half this great land had risen a few years earlier for the purpose of destroying the Union. They were brave Americans, and they had to be met by brave Americans, for only such could be equal to the occasion. The success of the effort to disrupt the Union would long ago have resulted in further disruption, until at last we should be before a continent of petty, discordant nations, engaged in border strife, and destined at last to send back to the old world the acknowledgment that they were right who said that republicanism institutions could not last. Such is what inevitably we should have been. Thanks to these men and to the God who overrules the affairs of men, such we are not.

DEDICATION.

"It is meet that each and all of us in our hearts dedicate his holy spot with profound reverence to the memory of the men who made possible the free America of today, the record of whose deeds inspired the generation that followed them to sweep the oppressor from the Islands of the Sea, extending the blessings of liberty and good order to millions of people beyond our own shores.

RESPECT FOR VETERANS.

"Almost a hundred millions of people regard these gray haired veterans who saved our country to us with a respect that is mingled with profound affection, and I believe venture little in saying that the child is here today who will live to hear their praises sung by two hundred millions of free and happy Americans."

TEARFUL MUSIC.

Miss Susie Gladding sang "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" with exquisite feeling. Later she sang an equally old, less known but none the less affecting piece, "The Faded Coat of Blue," in a manner which caused many to shed tears.

SENATOR PERKINS.

Senator George C. Perkins was introduced in a fervid manner by Judge Ogden, and was received with loud cheers. He spoke in the main as follows:

"I remember when I first visited Bunker Hill. It seemed as if I was experiencing the story of Moses and the burning bush. It seemed as if a voice came out of the stones of the monument, saying that the place whereon I stood was holy ground. And so it was, because here it was that after three charges the brave defenders were driven back only as far as Breed's hill, and yet they were men gathered from around, and we are heirs of the great legacy of liberty that has descended to us. These men came from the work shop. They came from the mine. They came from the teacher's room and judge's bench, and they fought shoulder to shoulder for the perpetuity of the nation and we, today, enjoy what they fought for.

"Later a sister republic was oppressed by a European country, and our soldiers gallantly responded to assist the Cubans to remove that oppression and to establish a free government. And the veterans of the Spanish War have the honor of giving aid to that country. 'You are in trouble,' they said, 'and we will be your protector,' and today every plantation in Cuba is singing paeans of praise and thanks for the gratitude of the new republic.

UNDER THE FLAG.

"We stand today under Old Glory floating from a flagstaff, which was grown on the pine-clad hills of Maine, with a topmast from California, the Sunset land of the West, and above it waves Old Glory without a star dimmed or a stripe soiled, which is all due to you soldiers and you men of the Grand Army.

SLEEPING IN PEACE.

"We constitute today, a united country. There is no north, no south. You have forgotten the conflict which took place between the two sections. As I said a few days ago, when I appeared before the Grand Army of the Republic, on Memorial Day, I went as a pall-bearer in the funeral of Senator from the South, who, during the war had been a confederate officer. In passing through the cemetery at Atlanta I caught a glimpse of the graves of some of our boys who had been buried there side by side with men who had worn the gray. The graves were affectionately twined with flowers and tendrils showing that when the end comes nature covers all alike, denoting that strife has ended in peace, and enabling us to modestly say, 'We have whipped you but now we are friends again.

"So we stand here to consecrate this spot on the hallowed resting place of the soldier dead. We have reason to congratulate ourselves. Each one of us must take home the principle of equal rights to all, because in our country people only are sovereigns, and to their sovereignty only do we pay homage.

"Where else is there such a country, such a people as this country and the people of the United States?

"You have heard the story of Ferdinand the Good, who is said to have won the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Wherever he went every person felt that he was his brother and his friend. He had been absent from home and when he was returning the people wrote his name in letters of fire on the hillside so that the people in the valley could see that he was returning home, and the people ran out to pay him homage as he passed. But no homage greater was ever paid to anybody than was paid to the veterans of the Civil War, from the pine-clad hills of Maine to California, and from Michigan to Texas, whose deeds are written in letters so large and bright that they scintillate in the heavens. Let each vow to himself that he will do his duty as a citizen, his duty to this city, county, state and nation, as the law and his good judgment shall direct.

SUN NEVER SETS.

"It is the boast of England that the sun never sets on her territory. So may it be with this country, because when the sun is sinking in the most westerly of the Aleution Islands, it is rising in the Philippines, and when it is sinking in the Philippines it is lighting up the pine tree State of Maine.

"In government such as ours, of the people, it means that every man is equal to every other man so long as he behaves and obeys the law. Let us do that which is right. Let us be governed by patience, good will and patriotism and our country will not be dimmed by any who come after us."

Senator Perkins closed by reading the following piece of poetry, entitled "The Old Sexton's Answer:"

"Tell me, gray-headed sexton," I said,
"Where in this field are the wicked folks laid?
I have wanderd the quiet old churchyard through,
And studied the epitaphs, old and new:
But on monument, obelisk, pillar or stone
I read of no evil that men have done."

The old sexton stood by a grave newly made,
With his chin on his hand, his hand on his spade;
I knew by the gleam of his eloquent eye
That his heart was instructing his lips to reply.

"Who is to judge, when the soul takes its flight?
Who is to judge 'twixt the wrong and the right?
Which of us mortals shall dare to say
That our neighbor was wicked, who died today?

"In our journey through life, the farther we speed
The better we learn that humanity's need
Is charity's spirit, that prompts us to find
Rather virtue than vice in the lives of our kind.

"Therefore, good deeds we record on these stones;
The evil men do, let it die with their bones.
I have labored as sexton this many a year
But I never have buried a bad man here."

COLONEL F. S. HASTINGS.

The Maccabee Band played "Hail Columbia," after which Colonel F. S. Hastings, the man whose liberality and whose devotion to the flag have become proverbial not alone in this section but throughout the country. He was greeted with cheers, and among other things said:

"In the first place, I want you not to forget Senator George C. Perkins. Remember that while this floats, that it was donated by the Senator himself, and that he has also been with us in every way that he can be of service to us.

"I want to say one word about that flag. That blue is the blue of heaven. The white is purity. The stars which shine in the flag today reflect the stars which are shining in heaven. I want every one of you, every boy and every girl to recollect what this nation has done for you, and hope that you will let your children know it and that it will go to their children, and that the colors of the flag are the colors of the ensign of your liberty, and that you must esteem it sacred. We have one country and one flag, and why do I say one country? It is because we have the greatest country on earth, a United States and a united people. If it wasn't the greatest on earth it wouldn't have the allegiance it now enjoys. You, children, are taught at school to be loyal to the flag, and I hope you will be better citizens than some of us who have come before you, because you are told in school what you are to do and what the nation and the flag have already done for you.

"I don't want you to forget your senator, who has climbed up to the top rung, and if he had not been talented and suited the people and been conscientious, he would not have gotten where he is."

FAITHFUL FRIENDS

Dr. C. G. R. Moutoux read the following simple verses dedicated to comradeship:

"As faithful comrade of the war—
A soldier's greatest pride,
And all have held that precious gift
When fighting side by side.

"And when distress of any kind
Or danger was in sight,
We gave to all a helping hand
In unalloyed delight!

"And when the victory was won
And veterans we returned,
We never forget our trusty friends
And all the dead were mourned.

"We help all comrades in distress
'Till death calls them at last,
We guard them in their resting place
And honor comrades past.

"And when at last we're called away
Companions lend their aid,
That we may be with honor
Beside our comrades laid.

"All peoples love the soldier brave
Whose fighting days are past,
And decorate their resting place
As tribute to the last."

"America" was sung, benediction was pronounced by Rev. R. Whitaker, "taps" was sounded by Dr. Moutoux and the exercises were declared closed.

HISTORY OF EVERGREEN.

About eighteen months ago the beautiful tract of land located just southeast of Mills Seminary, along the gentle sloping foothills, between Yoakum and Seminary avenues, just north of the San Leandro electric car line, was chosen by the Board of Directors for the Evergreen Cemetery.

No more picturesque and accessible tract of land could have been selected in Alameda county. The tract is formed by nature into gentle rolling hills, and broad slopes, which give a magnificent panorama of the bay to the south, broad ripening fields and orchards to the east, with a background of the verdure-clad hills to the north and west.

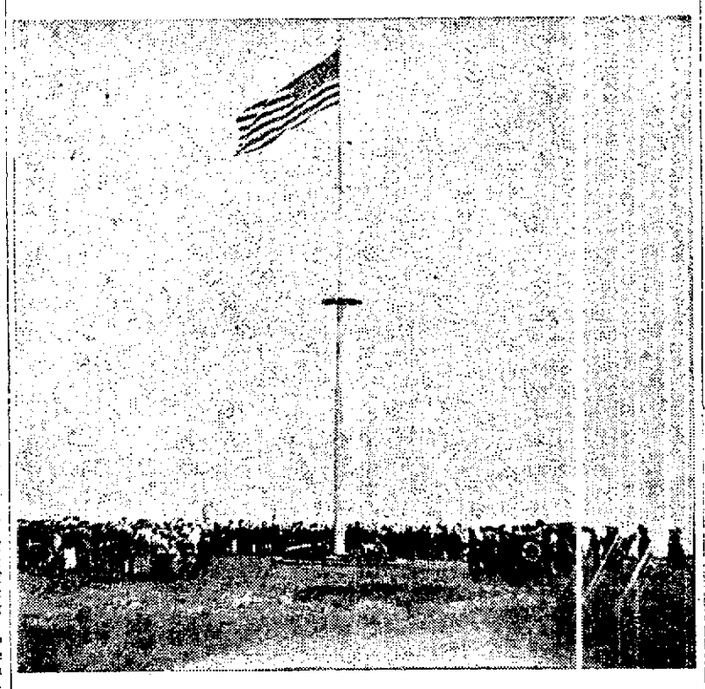

THE TRACT.

The tract comprises sixty-nine acres, the soil of which is loamy with light gravel bed, a most important fact in selecting grounds suitable for burial purposes. The grounds have been laid out by expert landscape artists, who have brought out in perfect detail the admirable natural advantages. Green swards, serpentine driveways, evergreen hedges and a profusion of flowers and foliage have transformed the grain fields to a scene of life and beauty. Numerous hot-beds have been installed for the Trouble Seems to Be in Store for John F. Quirk.

More than a week ago John F. Quirk, local manager of the San Francisco Union Paper and Pulp Company, disappeared from his home in this city and since then his accounts have been investigated by the officers of the company and are alleged to have been found to be $380 short. Quirk's whereabouts are said to be a mystery, but well-informed persons say that he is out of the State and is attempting to get beyond the jurisdiction of the local courts.

A warrant for the arrest of Quirk was sworn out today by George Spencer, manager of the company, after making an investigation of the missing man's books.

The first intimation that the officers of the company had that their Oakland manager was not quite right, was on Memorial Day, when Quirk is alleged to have played the part of a burglar in breaking open the inner door of the safe, which was in the local offices at 514 Eleventh street, and to have extracted $30 therefrom. Quirk had the combination to the safe, but he was not allowed to have access to the money drawer. The key of this particular drawer was left with the bookkeeper, who handled all the cash. After this alleged burglary, a quiet investigation was set on foot, with the result that it was discovered that in many cases that Quirk had given receipts for money and had appropriated the sums thus obtained to his own use without consulting his superior officers. Thus far the alleged embezzlement amounts to nearly $400.

Quik leaves a wife in this city. According to the police she professes not to be aware of the whereabouts of her husband.

BELOVED WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH.

Mrs. Sarah Bagshaw Jones, wife of W. S. Jones, the well known tailor, passed away Thursday, June 16 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs Jones has been a resident of Oakland for the past eighteen years and was well known and beloved by all who came in contact with her interesting personality. She was born in Flintshire, North Wales where she has many relatives. She leaves a widower W. S. Jones and three children, Arthur H., William B., and Annie A. Jones.

Mrs. Jones has been an invalid many years and the fortitude that she showed during the pain and long suffering was heroic to the last degree. She was ever ready to offer a word of encouragement to those who were better able to withstand the sufferings than was she. She was a woman much beloved by both young and old and her gentle disposition made her a favorite. It was her delight to assist those who were in trouble and although she was suffering from an incurable disease to the last, her lovable and sweet disposition was felt by all with whom she came in contact. Her whole life was devoted to others and her loss will be deeply felt.

The Christian life which Mrs. Jones lead and the help which she was constantly giving to those around her will make her loss the greater among the large circle of acquaintances and friends with whom she associated during her life.

Mrs. Jones lived in Chicago for eight years where she leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her sad departure.

The funeral services will be held from the family residence, 1220 Magnolia street tomorrow at 2:30. The friends and relatives of the deceased are requested to attend the funeral services. The interment will be private.

MOYER'S CASE.

TELLURIDE, Colo., June 18.—Sheriff Rutan today delivered Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, to the Deputy Sheriffs from Cripple Creek, who hold a warrant charging Moyer with having been implicated in the Vindicator mine explosion on November 1, 1903, by which two men were killed. Moyer had been held as a prisoner here nearly three months under Governor Peabody's orders without recourse to the courts. He was turned over to the Sheriff Wednesday evening after United States Judge Thayer, at St. Louis, had issued a writ of habeas corpus in his case. District Attorney Mullin has dismissed all charges against Moyer in this county.

PORTUGAL'S FAREWELL.

LISBON, Portugal, June 18.—Minister of Foreign Affairs Lima and Marine Minister Gorjao gave a farewell banquet last night in honor of the American fleet. The banquet was attended by Admiral Barker and his staff, the captains of the American vessels, American Minister Bryan and the Portuguese admirals and captains. The fleet will sail today for Gibraltar, en route for Athens.

SELBY IS A LOSER.

Cannot Get the Money Found in Farro's Home.

Money to the amount of $1300 was turned over to Joseph Farro this morning in Police Judge Samuel's court, this sum being the coin David F. Selby, the candy manufacturer, attempted to recover through search warrant proceedings.

On June 1 last, Selby on a trip to San Francisco lost a valise containing $1600 on either the local train or on the ferry steamer Piedmont. Several clews pointed to Farro and another deckhand named John Lee having something to do with the missing valise. Search warrant proceedings were instituted and $1300 was found in the home of Farro at 370 A street. The accused man said that the money was pension money in his keeping for two minor children.

In rendering his opinion Judge Samuels said:

"I am satisfied from the evidence that Selby lost on the steamer Piedmont the amount he claims. I am also satisfied that some one was guilty of grand larceny or embezzlement in taking the money. But I am not prepared to say who took the money. This case is being tried under section 1540 of the penal code. It does not devolve on the court to decide the question of any one's guilt.

"The property found in Farro's house has not been proved to be the same property which was taken from the boat. On this ground it is plain to the court that the money should be returned to Farro and it is so ordered."

Mr. Selby was not prepared to say whether he would take any more steps in the matter or not.

Farro states that it has cost him $500 to defend his rights to the money.

TWELVE YEARS.

Judge Hall Gives Chicken Thief a Heavy Sentence.

Frank Tietz, convicted of burglary in entering the hen roost of John Russel of East Oakland, was sentenced to twelve years at Folsom prison this morning by Judge Hall. Tietz has several prior convictions standing against him and was convicted of burglary in the first degree. Under the law, Judge Hall said he could not give him less than ten years. He asked Tietz how old he was and the prisoner answered that he was 30 and Judge Hall then said:

"I do not believe there is much hope of reformation for you. A man who has reached the age you have, with the lessons you should have learned from your past experience, and still continues in a course of crime is past reformation and if allowed to go would embark immediately in worse offenses. I therefore shall sentence you to imprisonment in Folsom prison for the period of twelve years."

TO FORM RIVAL COUNCIL.

CONFERENCE HELD TO ORGANIZE NEW BUILDING TRADES DEPARTMENT.

Last night a conference was held at Cooks and Waiters' Hall for the purpose of discussing the formation of a new Building Trades Department Council, which would be a sub-council to the Central Labor Council.

A committee from the latter organization has been for the past several days visiting the various unions in the building trades lines, requesting them to send delegates to the conference. Although about twenty persons were present last night only four of the unions visited were represented by delegates, and in order to, if possible, have a better showing, the Central Council will be requested to order unions affiliated with it to send delegates to the next conference to be held in two weeks. A partial organization was effected last night, however, of the new department council, Charles O'Neil being elected temporary chairman and D. C. Crawford secretary. In the event of a successful formation of the new organization there will practically be two Building Trades Councils in the field.

TO CONSIDER PURCHASE OF FACTORY.

Tonight a meeting of the delegates of the Carpenters' Unions will be held to further consider the matter of purchasing the West Berkeley Furniture Factory and turning it into a co-operative planing mill on the same lines as the Progressive Mill in San Francisco, owned and operated by unions. The success of the Co-operative Meat Company has to a great extent encouraged the carpenters in the project and it is very possible a deal may be effected.

MILLMEN'S UNION.

The Millmen's Union met last night and initiated three candidates.

Twenty-five additional shares were taken in the Progressive Planing Mill of San Francisco.

A donation was made to the butchers, also to the Western Federation of Miners.

A committee was appointed for the "good of the order," consisting of H. K. Sorinsen, O. Mazurette, W. Farwell, C. Walberg and J. G. Lewis. It will be the duty of this committee to arrange for entertainments and other matters of the kind.

SIGN AND CARRIAGE PAINTERS.

The Sign and Carriage Painters' Union met last night and initiated one new member. There was one reinstatement.

A committee was appointed to arrange for a "smoker" to be held next Friday evening, which will be the occasion of the nomination and election of officers for the ensuing term. The committee consisted of Messrs. Bliss, Preinville and Whiting.

SHINGLERS' UNION.

The Shinglers' Union met and initiated one candidate last evening. There was one application.

D. E. Bell was appointed business agent for a week.

Ten tickets were taken to the benefit to be given shortly at Pex Theater for the Laundry Drivers' Union.

NEWSBOYS' BENEFIT.

A benefit will be given for the Newsboys at the new Empire Theater (formerly the Star), on June 23.

CHANGE IN LONGSHOREMEN'S POLICY.

For some time the longshoremen have been at outs with the Building Trades Council in regard to the Lumber Clerks' Union, the Council claiming that the clerks were entitled to separate organization, while the longshoremen were of the opinion that their charter gave them jurisdiction over that branch of the business. N. P. Neilsen, who was the strongest advocate of the enforcing of the national charter's stipulations, was defeated for the office of patrolman at the meeting Thursday night of the Longshore Lumber Handlers' and Tallymen's Union. J. McPherson was his successful opponent and it is thought that this may mean a change of the policy of the union concerning the difficulty above mentioned.

Other officers were elected as follows: President, M. Hyland; vice-president, F. Smith; recording secretary, C. Walsh; financial secretary, C. Lamb; sergeant-at-arms, B. Cunningham; finance committee, T. Crandall, J. Hughes, L. Marin; delegation to Central Labor Council, J. McPherson and J. B. Sale.

Four candidates were initiated.

HAVE "LINE" ON ROBBERS.

ST. PAUL, June 18.—At the general offices of the Northern Pacific today it was said that the officials expected before long to capture the men who held up the Northern Pacific North Coast limited train near Bear Mouth, Mont., as the officers who are pursuing them had a "pretty good line" on the robbers.

NAVAL VETERAN DEAD.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Justice E. C. Hamburgher, for many years a magistrate on the North Side, died early today of heart disease. Justice Hamburgher was a naval officer in the war of the rebellion. He served on the sloop Constellation from 1856 to the close of the war, being retired as lieutenant.

FINNS ARE VERY QUIET

No Trouble is Anticipated By Russians in Matter of Assassination.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, June 18.—No disturbances have occurred in any part of Finland as the result of the assassination of Governor General Bobrikoff, nor do the authorities believe that there is danger of any demonstration of sympathy with the act of Schaumann. The conservative class of Finns deprecate the deed, not only because of its immediate effect upon them but because it is calculated to alienate the sympathy of the outside world, which is essential for their campaign. Members of the Senate who had insisted that the responsibility of guarding the Governor General inside the Senate chamber should rest on their shoulders publicly condemn the act and are apprehensive that it may lead to a curtailment of their powers. Several Finnish Senators have already gone to the Emperor to express their regret and endeavor to prevent the adoption of harsh measures, which they fear would further alienate the Russians and Finns. The Russian officials seem absolutely convinced that no popular movement will follow Schaumann's act and are reposing confidence in the better feelings of the people. They drive about Helsingfors without guards and attend to their usual duties apparently without fear of personal violence.

Although Schaumann left a letter saying he had no accomplices and that he acted entirely on his own initiative, the authorities firmly believe that a plot existed. Several friends of Schaumann have been placed under arrest, but no evidence has as yet been obtained. The father of the assassin, who was dismissed from the Senate at the time of the opposition to the introduction of the Russian language, has convinced the police that he knew nothing of his son's purpose. The assassin had been on bad terms with the police for a year, having been arrested in 1903 for public criticism of the conduct of the Cossacks in connection with the disposition of the rioters on the occasion of the conscription troubles. Schaumann's uncle commanded the disbanded Finnish dragoons.

LEGION OF HONOR.

Loubet Confers Grand Cross on Our Ambassador.

PARIS, June 18.—President Loubet has conferred upon the American Ambassador, General Horace Porter, the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor, which is the highest grade of that historic order. It is an honor rarely bestowed, even on chiefs of state and Ambassadors, and this is the first time it has ever been offered to a representative of America. As under the provision of the constitution the acceptance of any mark of distinction from a foreign country, even from a republic, requires the approval of Congress, final action in the matter will await the authorizations of that body.

Foreign Minister Delcasse called at the Ambassador's residence today and personally presented him with the superb insignia of the Grand Cross. This consists of a wide silk band, worn across the breast, having an enameled gold cross at the hip, with an elaborate silver star to be worn on the right breast. M. Delcasse accompanied the presentation by an earnest expression of the high personal esteem which M. Loubet and himself felt toward the American republic.

The Grand Cross is the highest of the five grades of the Legion of Honor. These consist, first, of the chevaliers; second, officer; third, commander; fourth, grand officer; fifth, grand cross. The latter is the grade worn by M. Loubet and has been conferred only a few times in recent years. That the American Ambassador should have been singled out for this notable honor is considered to be a personal tribute to him and another evidence of the cordial sentiments of the French government toward America.

DEDICATION AT EVERGREEN.

propagation of flowers and shrubs to ornament the burial plots and driveways. Ample water supply has been secured by two pumping plants, which bring a liberal supply from the bed rock.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The Board of Directors will soon begin the erection of a large stone receiving vault, and later will add a crematorium and columbarium, the plans for which are now being considered.

A chapel with all the modern appurtenances will also be added in the near future.

This cemetery is, like all modern cemeteries, being laid out on the lawn plan, thereby saving cost of coping the graves, and presenting a more pleasing appearance, also guaranteeing a perpetual verdure to the entire Cemetery.

OFFICERS.

Many of the representative men of Alameda county are represented upon its Board of Directors, which consists of the following: President, William Lair Hill; vice president, Hon. L. C. Morehouse; D. McCarthy, J. T. Rohm, Rev. I. J. Ross, Sheriff John Bishop, and Louis Schaffer. Vernon Wilson is secretary, and L. G. Burpee treasurer.

The selection of this location seems to have been especially fortunate, taking into consideration the fact that Alameda, Fruitvale, San Leandro, Elmhurst and in fact all of that portion of the county lying south of Thirtieth street, Oakland, has always been compelled to travel some distance to burial grounds. This rapidly growing portion of Alameda county insures the popularity of Evergreen Cemetery.

Another important feature to Evergreen Cemetery is its accessibility, which will be greatly increased by the opening of the new boulevard now being laid out by the Board of Supervisors, which just skirts the cemetery on the west.

People visiting the cemetery today were very agreeably surprised to see such pleasing environments and such a general plan in the grounds, and were unanimous in the verdict that this will soon be one of the handsomest cemeteries in the State.

DISCUSS PORTIA AND MONOPOLY.

POLYTECHNIC GRADUATES DELIVER ESSAYS ON CHARACTER AND OCTOPUSES.

Two interesting essays were delivered at the graduation exercises of the Polytechnic High School Thursday evening one presenting The Case of Portia in which Miss Hazel V Wells took Shakespeare's highest woman character and compared the opportunities of the women of today attaining to this ideal Winfield Scott Whitney addressed the assemblage upon the Monopolies of 1774 and 1904 and made comparison of the two monopolies of the earlier period with those of today

In her essay Miss Wells said in part In Shakespeare's literature Portia holds the highest place as a character of intellect tempered with the dignity the sweetness and the tenderness which in general should distinguish these her high endowments give her the right to the title

The instruction of Portia among the women of Shakespeare's time in union in her nature of high intellectual powers and decision of will with heart full of ardor and susceptibility to romantic feelings She has never known trouble or sorrow but prosperity has left her generous and quick in sympathy and wealth and her independent and self reliant thought the whole play He resourcefulness or ability to meet a situation is brought to light in the subtle plot which she forms for the release of her husbands friend Her intellect shows itself here also in the fact that she knows just where to turn for help at the moment and her deportment is the young and learned doctor though her education is not full play It is true that she was naturally intellectual but this endowment was increased and developed by education Let us apply the case of Portia to the women of today and see what the situation discloses

The majority of our women graduate common education in the grammar schools which are established all over the country and many go further their knowledge being the opportunity of attending the High School the University or the Normal All open to women

It is believed by many that it is necessary for women to lose or lay aside their characteristic graces when they enter the business world This is a grave mistake Of course it rest with the woman herself but the majority are living Portias possessing practical mental activity associated with womanly grace and poise

The question of housekeeping homely enough in itself is a burning question A good housekeeper with many is hard to find and above price—I mean a good one Here is a sonnet for the self reliant capable woman The true woman is the mistress of domestic economy she who understands the science of establishing in the home the thrift the comfort and the order which is necessary to make the place of abode a real home she who weaves into the background of the home the silver threads of sweet public making the lights and shadows the sorrows and joys to harmonize

Mr Whitney had this to say of monopolies

Monopoly in 1774 did not mean the same thing then that it does now then it meant a grant of crown or State to a person or application of exclusive right to carry on a certain business now it means the ability to control the output of a certain industry or industries and control the price desired either by putting in artificial scarcity by placing high duty on the goods allowing the same quantity to remain on the market

The monopolies of 1774 made the poor people of that time desperate The sovereigns gave the right of exclusive sale in the necessities of life in many cases which now was almost invariably abused The prices were raised higher until finally the different governments were forced by different kinds of evolution to repeal most of these edicts

Almost all the monopolies of today will be found under one of the following heads the trust will be legal monopoly capitalistic monopolies natural monopolies or labor monopolies

The legal monopoly is the most frequently observed An inventor gets a patent upon his discovery which gives him the exclusive right to make and sell that production for a number of years

The second class of monopolies best illustrated by the practices and means of the Standard Oil Company This company deals with its competitors in almost or quite as harsh a manner as did the monopolies of 1774 In 1904 competition merit death In 1904 it means human suffering

The natural monopoly is brought about by either buying up the land wherein a certain advantage or productives or by getting the people who own such land to agree not to sell only at a certain fixed price

The first named of these is the labor monopoly This deals with the needs and wills of human beings and its possibilities for good and evil are almost incalculable The workman as a whole too often trusts his fellowman He trusts him with everything and there is great danger that he may trust his leaders too much in the great labor difficulties It is well to be a push defensive combination whose purpose is to remedy wrongs as well as to forestall and prevent injustice I will not argue this opinion but will say that no matter what may have led to the organization of this monopoly it presents a grave problem which is worthy of every man's careful consideration The only remedy is by discovering its connections in the industrial world and treating it from that standpoint The treatment suggested will require intelligence foresight self control patriotism and all the powers and virtues with which our American people are endowed

MERRICK GETS RE-HEARING.

FORMER POLICEMAN BRINGS MEDICAL TESTIMONY TO BEAR.

Ex Patrolman Merrick appeared before the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners yesterday and asked for a rehearing of his case He was dismissed from the police force at the last meeting of the board on a charge of drunkenness while on duty

Merrick stated yesterday that he could prove that he was in the condition that Sergeant Lynch found him through the effects of medicine taken and not through his fondness for liquor

The commissioners went into executive session when the testimony of Dr E Weitman of East Oakland was taken He said that he had prescribed a dose of paregoric for the ex policeman to relieve a cold Merrick says that he took two drinks of brandy to stimulate him before he went on duty The combination of the paregoric and the brandy said Dr Weitman would produce a condition much resembling drunkenness especially in a person who was unaccustomed to the use of stimulating liquors Merrick was granted his request on this showing for a rehearing and will come up before the commissioners next week

SAN FRANCISCO IS NOW BEING RUN WIDE OPEN

The KNAVE

WHAT YOU CAN SEE IF YOU KNOW WHERE TO LOOK.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The sporting world is wondering whether the trouble with Jeffries' knee-cap is to bring the career of the world's champion to a full stop.

People on the inside don't hesitate to declare that Jeffries is in a bad way. They say his ailment has, in a measure, caused him to lose that superb and winning confidence that is always supposed to be part of the make-up of an undefeated gladiator.

The wise men hint that Jeffries is not at all anxious to try conclusions with the big miner from Butte.

On the other hand, Munroe is simply crazy to settle his difference with Jeffries in the ring. He has been told by a lot of good judges of fighting men that the champion can no longer get into championship form and anything is apt to happen to a man not in the finest condition when he gets into the roped arena with a person practically as big, strong and gritty as himself.

Jeffries is not at all "easy" in the way of the world's goods. He has about $25,000 all told. At the gait he lives that would last probably three years. Then would come the usual benefit after the manner of John L. Sullivan, Jack Dempsey, etc.

Jeffries has never been a popular world's champion. While he is a very affable and good-hearted fellow, he lacks that peculiar magnetism that gets the crowd. His managers have told me that he is the worst sort of a frost theatrically. Now, Jim Corbett who, in addition to earning the pugilistic championship, has always been and always will be the world's champion glad-hander, manages to have the people from one end of the country to the other interested in his every movement, so when he comes to town with a show he generally does a good business. But Jeffries woefully lacks that quality and in consequence he has been a very bad investment from a box office standpoint.

He is now suffering from a complication of troubles that seem to be a part of the lot of all pugilists. It wound up Corbett; it wound up John L. Sullivan and in all probability it will wind up Jeffries and Jack Munroe as it will wind up their successors.

If Jeffries fails to go into the ring on the night of June 30th, and it looks as though he will, the impression will go abroad that he is out of it so far as the championship is concerned, and on the side the Yosemite Club people will lose about $5000 of actual money spent for advertising besides the $18,000 profits figured on by the management.

San Francisco now has a one-cent block. It's Market street, between Stockton and Grant avenue, on the north side and between Third and Fourth streets on the south. The name comes from the animated picture and phonograph parlors located within the boundaries named and whose infernal machines may be started by the dropping of a penny—the little copper coin that California has always despised.

I am acquainted with Peter Bacigalupi, the proprietor of the penny amusement market on the north side of our main street. He has a cellar and three floors devoted to the latest success in the song line for one cent and to whirring boxes that show you James Britt in action upon payment of a "solitary red." He used to sell the same goods at a nickel per selection but had to mark the price down when others invaded his field. Bacigalupi says he has a mint and that if the people on the other side of the street had three floors and a basement they too would take in as much in twenty-four hours as he does.

"What are your daily receipts?" I asked, innocent like.

"That would be telling," he answered, and he added this remark:

"If I did tell you you would stop scribbling for a living and acquire a few penny-in-the-slot machines."

This aroused my curiosity and I counted noses. I found eighty persons dropping pennies. Bacigalupi told me it was a slack hour and that business fairly hummed during the evening. With my count and what the proprietor saw as a basis I estimated that the drop of pennies in one day would average $1440.

"Bet I take in $1000 a day," said Bacigalupi, "and you won't lose."

While I was acquiring this information one of Bacigalupi's patrons carried on this dialogue with him:

"Here, this engine's busted. I dropped a cent and all the darn thing sings is, 'When the Harvest Days are Over—When the Harvest Days are Over—When the Harvest Days are Over—When the Harvest Days are Over.' It's stuck on that line and won't go ahead with the rest of the song."

Bacigalupi peeped into the works and found an obstruction. Some woman's front hair had tumbled in and was impeding the progress of the wheels.

"Are you sure you dropped one cent here?" he asked as he untangled the blade of curls.

"Yes, sir," was the answer.

"All right then," said the proprietor, as the next words of "When the Harvest Days" came pealing forth, "we'll see that you get a run for your money."

San Francisco and her seven hills again has come to be known and to play the part of the American Paris. All one has to do to imagine himself in the gay capital is to see that the rubber in his neck is in good working order and to wait for the owl car at the corner of Ellis and Mason streets any time after the electric lights go out.

That Ellis and Mason streets corner commands a view of the Poodle Dog restaurant, the Mason-street Hamman baths, Pratt & Tierney's, the Techau Tavern, "Bogie" O'Donnell's automobile headquarters—but why go into details? There are things which cannot be explained and if you attempt to mention some of the "high life" resorts that are in this neighborhood this paper would have to go to press in red ink.

Four years ago, which means before Ruef was made the Czar of the tenderloin, the sirloin and, in fact, the entire beef so far as this municipality is concerned, San Francisco might have been taken for Philadelphia's demure little sister.

This was before Abe had an unwritten agreement with the purveyors of plain and fancy drinks—before the Police Commission cleared its throat and said that after all the "family entrance" wasn't such an awful thing and before the man on the beat was given to understand that a little leniency now and then is relished by the wisest men.

It is on account of this little leniency that they are calling this metropolis of the West the Jardin du Mabille of the land of Yankle Doodle. Standing at your corner you will hear the pop of the cork. When it's a good night you will think the Finns and the Japs have started an artillery duel. Skirts worn by women as pretty as any in the world will brush the dust from your boots. These have been to the show; they have had their post theater supper and in occidental fashion are riding home in the street car instead of in the carriage that their evening clothed escort can well afford to hire or to buy.

This element having deserted the sidewalks the "don't-care-a-rap-brigade" begins to find it slow at one place and is on its way to see what's doing up the line or down the street. The men roll along with a self-satisfied roll and the women glide with them with carelessness spelled in their every stride. Up the street whirls an automobile. The ladies in it are resting their wearied necks on the square shoulders of the accompanying gents. The machine chugs up to one of the gilded cafes and in less time than it takes to frappe the wine bang goes the cork and those who seize the glasses are taking a fresh start for a good time.

But as I have already remarked—why details?

Come over and see for yourselves.

The friends of John D. Spreckels are genuinely alarmed over his condition. From nearly 200 pounds he has dropped until he can now scarcely budge the scales at the 140-pound mark. Mr. Spreckels was once an athlete of considerable promise. He used to box with Bob Fitzsimmons when the freckled fighter was in his prime and was listed as a man thoroughly able to take care of himself in any assemblage without the aid of a gun.

And now he is paying for it all. The middle life of an athlete is generally a sad affair. Professional trainers declare that so much sap is consumed during the conditioning of a man in early life that he is usually bankrupt so far as virility is concerned long before he reaches the autumn stage. Of course there are exceptions to this, but it makes good as a rule.

Mr. Spreckels prided himself ten years ago on his athletic form and now he is paying the price.

Claus Spreckels and his wife are in Europe. There was a story going the rounds that they planned a continental reconciliation with their daughter, Mrs. Watson, with whom the family has been at outs since her romantic marriage eight or ten years ago; but John D. assures me there is no truth in the tale.

Here is a corporation with a soul. It's the United Railroads. There is nothing small about this corporation—not even its overcapitalization, as I heard a street advocate of public ownership shout from the curbstone the other night.

The United Railroads is sponsor for a monthly publication called Transit Tidings. Through this medium it says what it has to say to the public. Every month the Tidings appears in one of those tin boxes—after the manner of the tin boxes which used to contain Bible studies and from which the passengers crossing the bay got the paper with which they were in the habit of littering the decks. Every car of the United Railroads has its tin box and now the conductors have to use a broom every time they reach a terminal.

The June Tidings prints this paragraph:

"The merchants doing business adjacent to Market, Ellis and Stockton streets have in hand the construction of a safety station at the intersection of these streets. The United Railroads contributed $137 thereto to cover a deficit. The contract has been let and the station is to be completed June 20th. To the proposed athletic amphitheater the company contributed $500, to the municipal exhibit at the St. Louis Fair $250, toward constructing a private waiting station at Haight street and Masonic avenue $100.

"The Tidings is moved to publish these recent contributions for the very frank reason—we believe the public should know of them."

Mark the corporation's unexampled generosity and mark the reason given for making all this generosity public:

"The Tidings is moved to publish these recent contributions for the very frank reason—we believe the public should know of them."

Each item to which the company contributed means the making of thousands of dollars for the stockholders.

THE KNAVE.

VALUABLES ON DEAD BODIES.

LARGE AMOUNTS IN COIN AND PAPER FOUND ON THE SLOCUM VICTIMS.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Of the money, jewelry and other valuables taken from the dead in the Slocum disaster, aggregating nearly $200,000, much has been claimed from the coroner by relatives.

There is one package however, for which no claim has yet been established. It was found on the body of a woman at first supposed to be that of Eva Kruger, but has not yet been identified.

The property consists of eight bank books, showing deposits of nearly $25,000 in eight of the best known savings institutions of New York; two or three life insurance policies, among in all to about $10,000 or $15,000, deeds to property in New York and elsewhere and a considerable amount in bank notes.

The deeds, insurance policies and the bank books are all in the name of a person who, it would seem, is quite different from Eva Kruger, but the coroner is keeping the name secret for the present and is considerably puzzled because the woman has not been identified by relatives.

As a result of the conflict over the disposal of the wreck, the hull has been taken in charge by the district attorney's office in order to collect all the evidence obtainable.

Announcement was made that the authorities would brook no interference in the work.

A wrecking company has been given charge of the hull and probably will be directed to tow it from the present resting place to a point on South Brother Island, where it will be beached at high tide.

This will free bodies which some of the divers assert are imprisoned under one of the paddle boxes of the side wheel. It also will enable the department to make a thorough investigation of the machinery and the hull and to determine definitely if there are any more bodies in the hold. The vessel in its new position will be high and dry at low tide.

Captain Van Schaick, who is lying at Lebanon hospital with a broken foot and severe burns about the head, has given out an interview replying to the criticisms of his conduct. It having been alleged that he ran the boat two miles past at least eight places where it could have been beached after the fire was discovered.

He is quoted as follows:

"I was in my cabin when some one yelled 'fire' through the tube. I ran out, saw the flames sweeping over the boat, ran back waited five seconds and then gave the order to run ahead to North Brother Island and beach the boat sideways, believing this was our only chance.

"The critics don't know the territory. We were more than 2000 feet above the buoys on the Sunken Meadows and about 2000 feet from North Brother Island and were going at 15 miles an hour.

"A short distance ahead and to the westward was a large tug. I had no choice but to keep on for the island. If I had stopped and turned round and gone back to the Sunken Meadows, the chances were that the boat would have been burned to the waters edge and the passengers with it before we reached the Meadow.

"Even if it would not have been burned, the heat, striking the Meadows, would have backed off again, and everybody on board when they jumped off would have been drowned in deep water. And if I had run to the neck on the Bronx shore, I could not have made fast on account of the panic on board.

"I know the water was very deep there, and thought the people would have no chance to save their lives by jumping overboard. The tug, at any rate, would have prevented me from going in that direction without some delay."

Previous statements have been to the effect that the fire was discovered before the boat passed the Sunken Meadows.

JUDGE ROASTS HOTEL KEEPER.

Edward Recich, who conducts a hotel, was gently roasted by Police Judge Samuels this morning for attempting to make a collection agency out of the court in the case of John Bochich, who is alleged to be in debt to the inn keeper.

After the testimony was in Recich admitted that his guest had not attempted to run away, but had merely failed to call around and settle his bill on pay day.

"Hereafter, said the Court, "I do not want any warrant in a case like this to be issued until the facts have been presented to me. I will not stand for this Court being turned into a collection agency."

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The stock market has been broader and more active this week, but fluctuations have not carried prices far from last week's level. The proposition to authorize $100,000,000 of 7 per cent preferred Southern Pacific stock and to issue $40,000,000 to stockholders at par, has been the leading event of the week in financial affairs. An unsettled feeling has followed and opinion is much confused as to the merits of the plan and the results to be expected. Crop conditions were favorable and kept the undertone firm. Railroad traffic and iron trade conditions were not satisfactory and were a drug on the market. Great improvement in the investment demand was reported as a consequence of the redundancy of money.

DECISION ON STORED GAME.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Disposing of the contention that it is illegal to keep in cold storage out of season game that was killed in season, a decision has been handed down by the appellate division of the New York Supreme Court. An opinion by Judge O. Gorman, who dismissed two complaints of alleged game law violation, was upheld.

RUSSIA LOOKING FOR HELP.

WANTS FRANCE AND GERMANY TO WATCH THE CHINESE FRONTIER.

NEW YORK, June 18.—A Marseilles telegram says that General Klokotcheff prefect of Kertch, arrived there Thursday night on a mission from the Czar to the French Government and the German Emperor, cables the Paris correspondent of the Times. The general said he was the bearer of an autograph letter from the Czar to President Loubet and that after handing it to the President he would proceed to Germany.

General Klokotcheff said he did not come to ask the support of France in the pending conflict as Russia had absolute confidence in her own final success. "I have come, he said, "to ask your country in the name of the engagements which unite us, to watch closely the frontier of China in case of the general rising of which is to be apprehended and in order that you should be ready to second our efforts."

The general believes the Chinese will soon rise, and that consequently energetic measures must be taken by Russia, France and Germany.

After the publication of Anglo-Japanese treaty a French-Russian note was communicated to the press in which it was stated that in the event of French troubles in China, the two allied governments reserved to themselves the right to consider eventual means of securing the defense of their interests. There is, the correspondent adds, no other engagement between France and Russia in regard to the Far East.

DUMONT WILL TRY FOR THE BIG PRIZE.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Santo Dumont, who has arrived from France on his way to St. Louis to compete for the $100,000 prize which has been offered by the Exposition authorities, expressed strong hopes for the success of the contest. The date of his attempt to navigate the air depends, he says, upon how quickly the express companies can send along his air ship. Seven days will be required to put the machine together, after its arrival in St. Louis.

"I don't wish to be thought confident of taking the prize," he said, "but I have a good air ship—the best I have been able to devise so far. I am glad to learn that there are to be four other contestants.

"In this race one does not have to start with the other contestants. I hope to make the three flights necessary during the week of July 4th. I shall try to sail near the ground, say from 50 to 75 yards above the earth."

NEWARK NOTES.

NEWARK, June 18.—And now that the excitement anent the curious school election muddle is over, people are wondering what the District Attorney will do in the matter. Some say an election not conducted in accordance with the law made and provide for the same, cannot be made legal by any amount of sophistry. It is greatly desired by a large number of citizens that there shall be a male principal in charge of the public school, and Mr. Rathje is spoken of favorably for the position.

A large crop of loganberries is rewarding the enterprise of the growers and they are being marketed as rapidly as possible. Only men are employed to pick the fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Valkenburgh are rejoicing over the arriva of a baby boy.

THEY SUPPORT PEABODY.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., June 18.—Irving Howbert, vice-president; Frank G. Peck, secretary-treasurer, and Thos. F. Burns, constituting a majority of the directors of the Portland Gold Mining Company, have given out a statement disapproving of President Burns' action in bringing suit for damages against Governor Peabody for the closing down of the Portland property by the militia. They say he acted without the authority of the board of directors. Speaking for themselves and R. C. Shannon, of New York, a fourth director, they went on record as against President Burns' attitude in the Cripple Creek labor troubles.

COWARDLY ACT OF RUSSIANS.

FIRE SHRAPNEL AND RAKE THE DECKS OF CROWDED TRANSPORT.

TOKIO, June 18.—A total of 500 survivors of the Japanese transports Sado and Titachi destroyed by Russian warships have arrived at Southern ports. The Russians permitted 650 non-combatants to leave the Sado, but their whereabouts is unknown.

The Japanese officers and soldiers who were detached on board the Sado had prepared to commit suicide but changed their minds when the Russians suddenly departed. They was apparently no chance given the non-combatants on board the Hitachi to leave and the Russians raked the crowded decks of the crippled transport with shrapnel. The Japanese denounce this action as barbarity, indicating the clear intent of the Russians to kill defenseless men instead of a simple desire to destroy the ship.

STRIKE CALLED BUT MEN STILL WORK.

NEW YORK, June 18.—A strike ordered against the Otis Elevator Company all over the United States and Canada by the executive committee of the Elevator Constructors' International Union has not materialized as yet among the companies employes in this city.

CHANGE LINES.

Telegraph Avenue Cars May Run to North End.

BERKELEY, June 18.—A number of changes and improvements are to be made in the local electric car system, according to Lee Hampton, chairman of the electric car committee of the North Berkeley Improvement Club, who recently held a conference with the officials of the Oakland Transit Company.

Assistant General Superintendent Potter gave favorable consideration to Hampton's suggestion that the cars of the Telegraph avenue line be extended along Shattuck avenue to University avenue, along University avenue to Oxford street and along Oxford to Rose. This would do away with the North End loop.

The North Berkeley improvers are making a determined effort to have the company live up to an old promise to run the Telegraph avenue cars on a six minute service to the North End. To effect this they have had a committee hard at work for several months.

In cutting off the track on Spruce street, North Berkeley, the contention will be made that the territory there is already covered by the Euclid avenue line, which already has its terminus at Hilgard avenue.

Superintendent Potter informed Hampton that the contract had already been let for transforming the Grove street line, from Lorin station to Center street, from narrow to broad gauge. The tracks along Center street are to be abandoned and the line will be eventually continued along Grove street to Rose street.

PERFECTING THE STUDENT FIRE COMPANY.

Appropriation Made By Regents Will Be Expended for Apparatus at the University of California.

BERKELEY, June 18.—In order to thoroughly equip and maintain an efficient fire department of the University of California, the regents of the State University have appropriated the sum of $1500 with which to buy two new hose carts and sufficient hose to reach from the city hydrants to any of the University buildings.

During the summer school the fire department is to be under the command of Fire Chief Killion and the members of the department will be the regular force of policeman and workers on the University grounds. During the college year, however, a regular department, composed of students, will be maintained. These student firemen have formed a club called the Fyra Club and their fire house is on the eastern end of the campus near the Faculty Clubhouse. The men are furnished a cottage free by the University authorities in consideration of the fact that they be in readiness at any time to fight the fire demon and in this way they are enabled to lessen considerably the cost of their college education.

Among the student members of the fire department are E. Hitchcock, P. F. Sanford and J. Parker. It is proposed shortly to furnish uniforms for the firemen to be used by them when on duty.

NEW ATHLETIC FIELD WILL BE READY FOR FALL FOOTBALL GAMES.

BERKELEY, June 18.—A large force of graders have been placed at work on the Hillegas tract, property owned by the State University, south of the old college ground lines, levelling the field for the new athletic stadium.

Several thousand cubic yards of earth will be removed and banked for future stone bleachers. For the present wooden bleachers will be built that everything may be in readiness for the fall football games.

For the first time, and according to an athletic agreement made several years ago, the annual intercollegiate football game between California and Stanford will be played on the ned field next fall.

RUSHING HOUSES.

Berkeley Residences Are Going Up in Rapid Fashion.

BERKELEY, June 18.—The demand for houses in Berkeley still continues to worry the contractors in spite of the fact that the summer season is now on and people are going away for the country. On every street in the city a new house is being put up or is nearing completion. The Scenic Tract and the South End is building up very rapidly and the demand in these sections for houses cannot be filled. Small residence houses, costing between two and three thousand dollars are in great demand, especially by San Francisco people who wish to reside in this city.

SOUTH END ACTIVE.

Many new residences have been started in South Berkeley recently. At the northwest corner of Ashby and Grove a $5000 dwelling for C. Simonds, is being built by the San Francisco and Suburban Home Building Society.

Peterson & Pearson are erecting a very pretty residence at the corner of Virginia street and Euclid avenue. It is to cost $3600. Another North Berkeley residence is the one F. M. May is building on Cedar street near Louisa street for M. Louise Davis. The house is to cost completed $1450.

F. M. May is also building a house on Virginia street near Le Roy avenue for O. G. May at a cost of $1450.

A. T. Hay is building a two-story residence on Oregon street, between Telegraph avenue and Regent street for G. N. Nash. The house is to cost $3000 and it to be an artistic one. Two two-story dwellings are being built for R. A. Barry by Phil Monroe on Dana street between Dwight way and Blake street. They are to cost $4000. On the north side of Carlton, west of Fulton, a two-story dwelling is being erected by R. W. Robie at a cost of $1600.

GETS HEATON'S ESTATE.

Judge Green yesterday afternoon ordered the distribution of the estate of the late Warren D. Heaton to Jennie M. Heaton, who after years of litigation established through the courts that she was the daughter of the deceased capitalist. This action was made possible through the recent settlement effected with Charles W. Palm wherein he agreed to turn over to her all moneys and effects he held belonging to the estate of his uncle. There is little property effected by the order, the estate consisting of less than $3000.

LOEB REMAINS TO STUDY LIFE PROBLEMS.

Noted Scientist Will Spend the Summer in Berkeley Investigating Creatures of the Ocean.

BERKELEY, June 18.—In addition to his work as a faculty member in the summer session of the University of California, Professor Jacques Loeb, the world-renowned physiologist, whose experiments have astounded the medical and scientific world, will spend the next few weeks in investigations into the problem of life origin. He will work on various forms of marine life that will be collected at the San Diego biological station under the direction of Professor W. E. Ritter.

Professor Ritter is already at the station with a number of faculty members and graduate students. Last summer their investigations disclosed several new marine species heretofore unknown to science. Besides hunting for marine life, the investigators will study the ocean currents and the composition and temperature of the sea water.

A launch is to be used in the work and great long chains and ropes will be used in dragging the ocean bed for seaweed.

WILL MAKE CHANGES IN FIRE DEPARTMENT.

BERKELEY, June 18.—On the first day of the coming month a reorganization of the fire department outlined by Fire Chief James Kenney and approved by the Board of Trustees will go into effect. At that time two old fire houses will be abandoned and several new men will be added to the list of paid firemen. The money that will be saved by the abandonment of the house will be used to pay the former volunteers, who now receive an aggregate salary of $145 a month.

The apparatus that has been installed in the Alert and Lorin houses, the two that have been selected for abandonment, is to be put in nearby barns that the apparatus may be readily hauled by horses. At present considerable time is lost in bringing the horses to the firehouses.

In addition to the paid members of the department there are now 150 volunteers who regularly assist at fires. They are:

North Berkeley—John Lloyd, George Creed, John Hampton, I. A. Wescott.

Marston—George Parker, Archie Edgar, Arthur Hicks, J. J. Carney.

Alert—Richard Rowe, Richard Davies, Benjamin Calhoun and Carl Marteus.

Peralta—George Haggerty, John Haggerty, Daniel Adams, T. Williams.

Posen—Daniel Sloan, John Marsicano, Harry Dean.

Beacon—Samuel Fischer, A. Sisterna, Richard Brown, Charles Hadlen Jr.

AUTO EDICT.

Citizens Ask That the Speed of Machines Be Regulated.

BERKELEY, June 18.—Berkeley is one of the few towns on the coast possessing the unique distinction of having no ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles. But this condition of affairs is likely to be changed in the near future, for a number of property-owners on main thoroughfares are preparing to petition the Town Board of Trustees to draw up an ordinance setting a speed limit on the machines. It is also probable that motor bicycles will also be included in the category.

The objection is made to machines that come from outside towns and which are run through the city at top speed.

CULVERT IS CAUSING NO END OF TROUBLE.

BERKELEY, June 18.—The old wooden culvert that carries the waters of Strawberry Creek through the business section of the city from the point where the stream leaves the State University grounds to Allston Way, has begun to cave in at Allston Way and Shattuck avenue. It will probably have to be replaced with a stone viaduct.

A ONE MAN REUNION.

CHICAGO, June 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Paris, Illinois, says:

Daniel G. Burr, aged 84 years, a survivor of Company H, fourth regiment, recruited at Paris, Ill., June 4, 1846 for the war with Mexico, has held a reunion by himself in the fair grounds here. As he had done annually for 40 years, he called the roll of his company he had written with a quill pen and of which he had custody as orderly sergeant of the company. Several times in recent years he has held a reunion by himself, owing to the enforced absence of other survivors.

He spent the day in mediation, eating his picnic dinner alone and in the evening a friend drove to the grounds and drove him back to town.

McMENOMY FIRE.

The fire which destroyed the smoke house and its contents yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock resulted in a loss by fire of between $700 and $800 to the market. The fire, it is thought, started from a defective flue in the smoke house. The blaze was in almost dangerous quarter and but for the prompt response by the fire department a much more serious conflagration might have ensued. The smoke house is situated directly in the rear of the Klinkner Block and if the flames had not been put down so promptly this building would have without doubt have been enveloped in flames.

DEDICATION OF FLAG POLE.

GIFT OF COLONEL HASTINGS OF SAN LEANDRO TO G. A. R. PLOT.

SAN LEANDRO, June 18. The dedication of the flag pole presented to the Grand Army plot at Evergreen Cemetery by Colonel Hastings, of this place, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The occasion being "Bunker Hill Day," the ceremonies were rendered most appropriate. The city officials of San Leandro, Oakland and Alameda, and those of the county, together with the Grand Army posts of Oakland and Alameda were present. There were many other visitors, including Senator Perkins and other men of prominence. The Senator delivered an address as did others. The ceremonies also served to dedicate the G. A. R. plot.

Colonel Hastings is one of California's most patriotic citizens and many flag poles throughout the county are mut but eloquent testimonials to his generosity and the love he bears his country's emblem.

YOUNG GIRLS SHOW MUCH TALENT

Remarkable talent was displayed by the Misses Sadie and Stella Ury in their dramatic recitations rendered at the entertainment and ball given Thursday night by the Ladies of the Maccabees. Miss Stella Ury recited "When Salvator Won," with so much grace and histrionic power that her listeners were spell-bound. Miss Sadie Ury was equally successful with her rendition of "The Factory Chimney" which has won her several prizes and medals at recent contests.

The fancy drill given by the ladies of Oakland Hive, No. 14, was performed in Japanese costume, the brilliantly colored kimonas and umbrellas blending into a charming picture. The drill lasted forty minutes, during which there was never a break made nor a command needed from the officers. At the close of the drill the letters representing the name of the organization, L. O. T. M., were successively formed. The affair was a splendid success in every way.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB OF ELMHURST CONSIDERS VITAL MATTERS.

ELMHURST, June 18.—On Thursday evening the Elmhurst Improvement Club met and initiated M. D. Silva and A. Massey. The attendance was large and enthusiastic, entering with a vim into the discussion relative to the betterment of the town.

A resolution was entered requesting that a committee of three be appointed to draft a petition asking the Supervisors to call an election for the purpose of creating a sanitary district in Elmhurst. The committee was appointed, consisting of A. F. Linge, Rev. E. E. Clark and Dr. W. F. Lynch. Today the committee went over the district to establish boundary lines.

There is said to be no doubt as to the result of the movement for a sanitary district as it is a popular desire among the citizens of this place and no stone will be left unturned to realize that desire.

The committee on the five cent fare matter was granted further time.

The meeting was adjourned until Thursday, July 7.

WANTS TO STOP SHOOTING.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Contending that the annual shooting festival of the United Schuetzen Association at Union Hill Park, N. J., is a nuisance, Mrs. Sarah Smisson has applied to Vice-Chancellor Emeroy for an order restraining the association from holding the meeting. Mrs. Smisson's homestead adjoins the park and she asserted that bullets had frequently hit the buildings, endangering her life.

The Vice-Chancellor said he did not see his way clear to stop the contests entirely, but would advise an injunction restraining the members of the association from shooting at targets within 75 feet of the fence around the Smisson property.

FRUITVALE NEWS OF INTEREST.

MATTERS OF GENERAL MOMENT—PERSONAL AND SOCIAL GOSSIP.

FRUITVALE, June 18.—A. Larsbach and W. S. Dunlevy left yesterday for Sacramento to attend the convention of the California Promotion Committee held there today. The occasion is to be the assemblage of delegates from the various Boards of Trade throughout the State, and Messrs. Dunlevy and Larsbach will represent the Fruitvale Board.

INTEREST IN BANK.

Since the last meeting of the Board of Trade at which J. C. Harkinson, an Antioch banker, was present and intimated a posible intention of instituting a bank in Fruitvale, there has been much discussion regarding the matter. The members of the board are enthused over the project and promise to aid collectively and individually to the extent of their power the establishment of a banking institution here.

"Fruitvale is in line for an era of unprecedented prosperity," said a prominent citizen recently. "The time to set sail is when the wind is with you—and the time to boom a town is when things are looking up. We've got the finest location, climate and transportation facilities this side of the bay and there is no reason why Fruitvale shouldn't have a population of ten times its present amount. I, for one, shall boost for a bank and for every other movement that's in line with the advancement of Fruitvale."

CHARGED WITH BRIBERY.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Charged with bribing a Secret Service agent and confessing the charge to be true, Cosmo Ranalli, a deput in the office of George W. Morgan, superintendent of elections, has been lodged in jail.

Ranallis' arrest grew out of an investigation into the naturalization frauds among the Italian workers on the street cleaning department. The prisoner was formerly a foreman in that department and upon being approached told the Secret Service agents he had several clients willing to pay $100 for their positions and immunity from prosecution for procuring false naturalization papers. In the presence of witnesses he is said to have paid the detective $200 for two of these clients, the cases against whom were to be dropped. He was immediately arrested and pleaded guilty before Commissioner Childs.

KEY ROUTE'S NEW CARS.

TWENTY-TWO NEW COACHES DRAWN UP ON SIDING IN SANTA FE YARDS.

Yesterday the Santa Fe Company brought in to Emeryville twenty-two new cars to be used on the Key Route System. The cars are all well protected, being enwrapped in canvas to protect them in their journey. The cars are all new and of the latest and most improved design.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The agitation of the hotel question has in nowise been lessened and it is hoped by the residents of this town that the realization of the scheme may soon be brought about.

The canneries, it is stated, will be ready for operation by the first of next month. If fruit can be obtained in sufficient quantities there is a probability that the works will open and give employment to many who are at present out of work. The removal of the old cannery threw a good many out of employment, especially among the women and children who are in great need of work. Many who were employed in the old works had this as the sole source of income to support their families. The new canneries is most welcome, as it will provide work and revenue during the summer months.

Plans are already being talked about for the Fourth of July celebration. As usual, Emeryville will not be behind in holding forth in this day. No definite work has, as yet, been started, but enthusiasm will gradually increase as the day draws nearer. This year's celebration will, it is expected, far excel any of previous years.

The improvement to the streets where the oil has been spread by the Transit people is marked. This experiment may prove to be one that the town may continue.

RAILROADS FOR CHINA.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Sheng La Jen has agreed, says a Times dispatch from Shanghai, that the official ceremony of cutting the first sod for the Shanghai-Nanking Railway shall take place on June 30. The concessions for railroads between Shanghai, Su Chou, Chin Kang and Nanking were granted to British capitalists in 1897, but none of the lines has yet been started. It is understood that American capital is interested in the Nanking line to some extent.

The Players

The audiences this last week at Ye Liberty Playhouse have been ahead of any to date at the popular theater. That this is due to a large extent to the drawing powers of "Charley's Aunt" there can be no doubt, but from the passing remarks picked up among the patrons of Ye Liberty there is evidently a great feeling of thorough satisfaction in the excellent company which Manager Bishop has gotten together. People are evidently appreciating the fact that Oakland has a first class stock company presenting the best plays at popular prices and in a manner that would be a credit to New York City. Besides there is Ye Liberty Playhouse which in itself is a sufficient fact.

"Charley's Aunt" has kept the "Laughing Season" above the average. This fine comedy is without doubt the most pronounced favorite of its type and it is always thoroughly enjoyable. Laughter has been the rule, or rather silence has been the exception with the Ye Liberty audiences, and if any one has seen the performance this week and not laughed until they were tired, then the individual has not been heard from.

"Charley's Aunt" will be presented to-night and tomorrow for the final performances. The matinee was large this afternoon, the popular "specials" attracting much attention.

MY FRIEND FROM INDIA.

Beginning Monday evening, another record breaker in the way of farce comedy will be seen at Ye Liberty. This is the great favorite "My Friend from India," a farce that several years ago was being played all over the United States to audiences that filled every nook and cranny of the theaters. Thousands were turned away. Hundreds stood in line to get seats in advance. In Chicago the sale was so big at the end of the second week, that the season was extended indefinitely and a run of three months was necessary to satisfy people and even then it would have been longer but for advance dates in other cities which could not be broken. In New York it was the same way, the entire house being sold out for four and five weeks in advance.

It has been quite a number of years since "My Friend from India" made his appearance in Oakland and "his" return therefore be more than welcome. It will be a fitting continuation of the "Laughing Season."

The story of the play has to do with "Erastus Underholt," a porkpacker, who tries to break into New York society for the benefit of his family. The son of the old gentleman has succeeded in breaking into another set and one morning after a wild night, he finds himself at home in bed with "Augustus Keene Shaver," a barber. To explain his presence young "Underholt" invents a little story and thereby causes all the trouble. Shaver is passed off as a theosophist just returned from India and he so deceives the old gentleman that the latter takes him up and uses him as a means of furthering his social ambitions. This is the so-called plot, but it covers a lot and that lot is mostly of the most laughable kind.

"My Friend from India," will be presented with a strong cast. Frank Bacon will play the part of the much imposed barber and the other parts will be in good hands.

At next week's matinee the special will be something especially pleasing to all matinee patrons. A photograph of George Bloomguest will be given away. Mr. Bloomguest is one of the most popular members of the company.

THE EMPIRE.

The booking for the initial week of the Empire Theater is now all complete and when the curtain goes up on Monday, it will reveal a combination of vaudeville stars, an aggregation capable of producing an entertainment of a high order and which will appeal to anyone who is fond of good humor interspersed with music which has in it the element called feeling. The whole troupe is composed of headliners and their acts are top notchers. Three performances will be given each day, one in the afternoon at 3:15 and two in the evening at 7:45 and 9 o'clock. This program in detail is given in the following: Appleton and Perry, two singing and talking comedians just from the East and North, where they were a success.

Garry Harper, a lightning change artist who will make nine complete changes in full view of the audience.

The Evans trio are character artists of national reputation and Mrs. Emma Evans is conceded by many managers throughout the United States to be one of the greatest imitators of child characters on the vaudeville stage. Aside from this feature Mrs. Evans does not come as a stranger to Oakland. She at one time resided here and is a graduate of Mills Seminary, and was formerly a Miss Davis.

Miss Madeline D'Leene, the illustrated singer is a handsome woman with a beautiful voice and is sure to meet with public favor here as she has in Salt Lake City, from where she comes to the Empire.

In the Mazziottos will be found a feature which will delight everyone. They are musical artists and their instruments are both unique and new to the footlights.

Closing the list but for from least in point of importance will appear Perry Simms in monologue. There is no greater recommendation than public approval and applause and it is said of this act that any one who sees it approves of it.

The Empire motion pictures are entirely new. They contain several scenes which are novel and amusing, and which will bring tears of laughter to the eyes of the audience. On the whole the entertainment will be a high-class one throughout. The prices will be ten cents at all times. Thursday, June 23, will be devoted to a benefit for the Oakland newsboys.

THE BELL.

This week is a banner one at the Bell as far as the attendance is concerned. The audiences have never been larger, and the program never excelled, if equaled. There are three turns on this week that would do credit to any first-class vaudeville house in the land. They are: Miss Maude Rockwell, the splendid balladist. The four Roberts and the musical Harts, all of whom have apeared upon the highest priced vaudeville circuits in the United States. The management has secured these excellent artists at a very heavy expense, but notwithstanding this fact, the admission remains the same, ten cents at all times. At the matinees the children are admitted for five cents. The same bill would easily be acceptable for another week, but there will be no deviation to the rule, to have a complete change of bill every week. Consequently on Monday next there will be all new faces at this house, and the latest motion pictures, which arrive every seven days, embracing the latest noted events. For the coming week, the patrons of this house have promised another fine bill, so at all times those attending the Bell will invariably find a high-class entertainment. It might be mentioned that this house takes considerable pride in the splendid orchestra. Good music is most essential to properly display the talent's ability, and there is nothing lacking in this particular at the Bell. There will be two matinees tomorrow afternoon, and three performances in the evening, the usual custom on Sunday.

THE NOVELTY.

The greatest of all weeks is the forthcoming Monday, which begins the usual new weekly bill at the Novelty Theater. There will be attractions galore. Colonel Lubelski is responsible for the statement that he can truthfully state that the grandest array of talent that has ever appeared at his popular theater will make their initial bow on the day named. As at all times the program is an excellent one, the promise of proprietor Lubelski is certainly good news for his many patrons, who always have nothing but favorable comment for the show at his pretty little theater. The star attraction for next week—the feature act—will be The Ladies Philharmonic Quartette of Chicago, consisting of ladies' quartette, lady impersonator and lady violinist. These people have appeared at many of the leading theaters of the country, at houses that charge an admission of $1.00, and these high-priced artists can now be heard for the usual Novelty admission of only ten cents. This is surely enterprise on behalf of Colonel Lubelski's wise judgment. This Quartette is said to constitute very charming misses, who wear very handsome gowns and possess superb voices. The aggregation consist of Miss Fanny Ferguson, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Miss Gertrude Lee Walker, and Miss Ella Eddy. They are all graceful and natural and their act is well interspersed with refined comedy, which is unusual for artists of such merit. They will undoubtedly prove a drawing card, and it goes without saying that at the Novelty next week, if the theater was three times as large, it would be packed at each performance, which, however, is the usual custom. Among the other talent that will appear are: Miss Lois Merdenhall, a famous violinist, who has just made a tour of the world, and will begin an engagement on the Novelty circuit with her first appearance at the Oakland Novelty. Welsh and Lingon will be seen in a great spectacular European novelty musical act, conceded to be one of the most successful act of its kind on the boards today. Trask and Rodgers, black face comedians, singers and dancers, will bid for public favor; they are said to be an exceedingly clever duo of funmakers. The Historical Motion pictures of "Christopher Columbus" will be shown for the first time on this coast, and there will be new illustrated songs, and altogether the program would easily warrant the management in charging five times the usual admission, which is only one dime at all times with no reserve seats or extras. There are matinees every day.

MACDONOUGH NOTES.

The regular theatrical season of 1903-4 closed last night with the engagement of Miss Maud Adams. The regular season of 1904-5 will not open until the first of August, but there will be a midsummer season in July, when Mrs. Leslie Carter will appear in David Belasco's greatest play "Du Barry," on July 12, 13 and 14. The sale of seats will begin Friday, July 1, and the prices will be 50c 75c, $1, $1.50 and $2.

The coming season will be the greatest in the history of the Macdonough, for there will appear more notable attractions than ever before.

This season's mattings show floral designs as well as the geometrical designs that are so well known. A pale green ground having white flowers are among the pretty pieces shown and for a country house chamber is lovely.

The front piece is particularly realistic and gives a most artistic reproduction of the Coyote Creek in the High Sierras. This issue of "Out West" is the best that has been offered for a long time. Published by Out West Magazine Company, Los Angeles, California.

THE FOUR-TRACH NEWS.

This magazine has an unusually large selection of cuts covering nearly every field of interest. The illustrations are good. Aside from the cuts the material handled is disposed of in a most interesting way, and the publication deserves much credit. Published by George H. Daniels, 7 East Forty-second street, New York.

WESTERN FIELD.

The "Western Field Company" have issued a magazine for the month of June which is worthy of the attention of all who are interested in sports. An almost complete resume of late sports in the northwest and on the coast is included with other material of great interest. "Western Field" has without doubt presented the best issue of this popular magazine that they have ever done. Published by Western Field, 4 Sutter street, San Francisco.

SACRILOGICAL.

The magazine of the new sycoligy for those who think is out for the current month. The cycoligists from all over the country contribute to this number. For those who are interested can scientifically search this issue should be of much value. Joaquin Miller contributes the poem under the head "Columbus," which is as usual in his thoroughly capable style. Published at 4020 Drexel Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

MADAME.

The June issue of "Madame" presents a very good type and the cuts are fair. The magazine is devoted to the women of America, and is well gotten up. Published by The Ford Publishing Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

MUSICAL LEADER.

The "Leader" for June deals particularly with musical and concert material. The stuff is well written, and altogether covers a thorough field in the dramatic world. The outside cover cut is good. Published by Musical Leader, Chicago.

NEW CENTURY PATH.

The "Century Path" for June has as its distinguishing feature the most artistic cut which graces the front page. The contents furnish most excellent material from the pens of well known authors, which comprise resumes from most every part of the globe. While the print is good, a more artistic regulaton might be better for the issue. A criticism under the head "Christianity as a Faith," which deals with Mrs. Humphrey Ward writings, renders a bit from her iconoclastic nature, and on page 7 the article is most excellently dealt with. Published by Weekly New Century Corporation, Port Loma, California, U. S. A.

YOUTH'S COMPANION.

The present issue of the "Youth's Companion" shows its usual good stories of interest to boys. Grace Richmond has an outer page story as a leader, of much worth. Published by the Perry Mason Company, Columbus avenue, Boston, Mass.

LESLIE'S.

"Leslie's" June addition is repleat with up-to-date cuts and presents a most thorough position of the events of the month. The cover is particularly attractive. Published by the Judge Company, 225 Fourth avenue, New York.

LITERARY DIGEST.

This publication contains some of the most interesting things relative to both local and foreign topics. The articles are exceptionally well handled, are to the point and reliable. Jack London is criticised under the head "A Kipling in London," and the "Digest" gives him thorough support. A criticism of Guy Wetmore Carroll is dealt with in a very clever way, though as the criticism says, "In dealing with badness Mr. Carroll is not so clever. The "Digest" handles the German situation and foreign topics in a most intelligent manner. An article which is purported to come from the Pope in regard to music is highly interesting. Scientific subjects as well as those of art are thoroughly discussed, and as is in the regular line of the "Digest's" work the number is exceptionally brilliant. Published by Funk and Wagnall's Company, 44 to 46, East Twenty-third street, New York.

THE CRITIC.

The frontis piece in the June number of "The Critic" offers an illustration of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, and the leading article deals with the life of this celebrated woman. Herbert Spencer, the celebrated English writer, also has a full page and the reproduction is most excellent. As a whole, including the article under the head "Mark Twain from an Italian Point of View," covers a most literary field. Editorially the "Critic" is most thorough, and this month's issue is thoroughly acceptable. Published by G. P. Putnam Sons, New Rochelle, New York, for the "Critic" Company.

PACIFIC MONTHLY.

The "Pacific Monthly" for June offers a very poor series of cuts. While the subjects handled are noteworthy, yet the execution of the press is very poor. The press matter is good, and is written by well known writers, and surely deserves better reproductions than the "Pacific" gives. There does not seem to be much in this issue that deals with thoroughly up-to-date matter, though under the head of "Impressions" current articles are handled with judgment and intelligence. Published by the Pacific Monthly Publishing Company, Portland, Oregon.

POPULAR MAGAZINE.

The "Popular Magazine" for July furnishes a good series of stories, and upholds its usual standard for tales. The paper is very poor, though the print is fair. The magazine contains some good work and deserves the thorough support of readers of fiction. Published by Street & Smith, 238 William street, New York.

THE HOUSE BEAUTIFUL.

"The House Beautiful" for June deals with the interior and exterior fittings of the model house. Excellent suggestions are furnished through photographs for the fitting out of a model home. Aside from this, many valuable suggestions are offered, editorially and from contributors, which would be of much value to those who are contemplating the foundation of a home. The outside cover with a suggestion artistically is not clever, though the matter in the inside is of great worth. Published by the "House eBautiful." Herbert S. Stone, Publisher, 11 Eldredge Court, Chicago.

MUSICAL REVIEW.

The issue of this magazine for July is not up to the standard which this edition has previously furnished to those interested in musical work. The type is good, but the cuts are very inferior. The material handled covers a good field, but is not up to the standard. A much better issue could be presented to the public with a little more care. Published by "Musical Review," 429 Front street, San Francisco, Cal.

HARPER'S.

The excellence of "Harper's Weekly" for the June number could not be excelled. The cuts and material are of an entirely exceptional order, and cover every field. Contributions from literary men from both sides of the bay add greatly to the publication, and under the head of "Comments" the political and national situations are dealt with in a most intelligent manner. Published by Harper and Bros., New York.

COUNTRY GENTLEMAN.

The June second edition of the "Country Gentleman" deals most thoroughly with matters relative to the farm-yard and its incidental connections. The paper in question, while not devoting itself much to cuts, covers the field thoroughly for all those who are interested in the raising of animals as well as the care of the garden. Published by the Genesee Farmer and Cultivator, Albany, New York.

POLITICAL ANECDOTES.

Of an eminent English statesman who was a very dull speaker Lord Ashbourne once told this story: "He was making a very dull speech one evening, when I remarked to a member of the cabinet on the dreariness of the performance. 'He is an admirable man,' was the reply. 'I wish we had him.' 'What would you do with him?' 'Do with him? Send him to Ireland, of course. He would disperse any unlawful assembly in five minutes.'"

During the crofter disturbances in Skye a British gunboat was sent up to Portree, having on board, among other people, the sheriff of Inverness-shire, Mr. Ivory. A clergyman who sympathized with the crofters took for his text on the following Sunday the words from Kings 10:22: "Once in three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing ivory and apes and peacocks."

THE LATEST FASHION

ATTRACTIVE COSTUMES FOR WARM DAYS

IN THE 1830 MODE

[By Our Special Correspondent.]
MIRIAM SPIER.

Evidently expecting a hot summer after this cold winter, the most diaphanous of fabrics are now being utilized for summer gowns and the modern fashionable outfit in progress would be serviceable for the leading summer resorts.

For many years it seemed impossible to convince the inhabitants of New York city and the surrounding country that for at least three months the weather, as a rule, was so hot that the only sensible plan was to dress as did the Southerners. Men and women alike attire themselves in heavy garments, and thin wash materials for street wear were considered anything but smart. For the last two or three years a much more sensible state of affairs has existed, and thin unlined silks, veilings, nets and wash materials have been made up in quantities.

That this is to be the season for loose, fluffy clothes there can be no doubt. The trim tailor-made girl will have to stay in the background for 1904. According to the edict of Dame Fashion, tight-fitting garments are seldom seen. Long sloping shoulders, full skirts, big sleeves and loose effects predominate. The 1830 modes are becoming more and more popular as the season advances, and the summer girl must look as though she stepped out of some old painting rather than what one would expect of the up-to-date miss of the twentieth century.

From a sartorial standpoint this is undeniably the age of the coquette. One has only to glance around to see that all the dependitures of feminine attire are for her alone. A few years ago everything was tailor-made, the severest of the severe, the most rigid of the rigid. Now it is absolutely the reverse. Shoes, hats, dresses, wraps, fans, head dresses and muffs all join to lay their prettiest and most seductive modes at the feet of the coquette. As for anything even suggestive of seriousness, there is no time for it. The aim of the moment is to be as airy and fairy as the limits of one's figure will allow—in effect and in reality.

It is the thin woman's day. She has had to stand by for years and hear her plump, well-rounded sister extolled to the skies, while she, an angular, insignificant nobody, took massage, drank glycerine, swallowed libations of olive oil or followed tiresome exercises to develop portions of the anatomy which nature had left flat or flabby. But the plump sister now is the one who is working harder than the thin one ever did to alter her figure; for awhile there has generally been a truce in the styles and cuts for slender women; nowadays there is absolutely none for the stout one, since the entree of the sylph.

Dresses are made so bouffant around the hips that no one of much development in that particular can expect to look anything but balloon like. When the styles of 1830 are strictly adhered to the skirts are gathered full into the band, with no gaufferings, but these rows of gathers look neat and hold the fulness in position. Six weeks ago Parisiennes declared they would have none of the full skirts and loose boleros, but, like thieves in the night, the styles crept in, no one asking how, and women are well satisfied with the result. At fashionable resorts one sees nothing but bagging boleros full skirts and billowy sleeves. Ultra fashionable costumes hang so loosely and are so very negligee that one is almost disgusted, but these are extremes, and an extremist in fashion is never well dressed.

Numerous, indeed, are the beautiful materials so stunningly treated for the dressy occasions during the summer season. Silks of many descriptions, chiffon, net, elaborately embroidered linen and muslin, daintily flowered organdies and magnificent laces, rich in their elegance.

The combination of laces with the soft fabrics so prevalent now is responsible for as sumptuous appearances as Fashion has ever displayed. Shirrings, fine tuckings, needlework and webs of all orders make up the modish afternoon toilets. While the coarse laces are less used than formerly, finer threads with bold effects and wide meshes are quite as prevalent as ever. One of the fancies of the present is the union of such lace with old English eyelet embroidery, which is again at the height of popularity. In mull gowns and linen as well, the much-used Teneriffe wheels of last year again appear. But this time they are rather a part of the setting for the embroidery than of first importance themselves.

The imported costumes which have been brought over for the summer wear clearly demonstrate one thing—there is to be a furor of silks this summer. Endless seem the quantities of silk which realize with fragile passementeries, narrow velvets and delicate laces the beautiful toilets which only Paris can send.

A new silk, shown in self-figured weaves and brilliant colors softly shadowed, combines exquisitely with chiffons and nets, and shapes gowns of a delightful dressiness. In gunmetal grays—shot, with polka diamond or dots—effective gowns are seen in this silk for middle-aged women, whose bonnets for such toilets may show yellow crocuses. Yellow is a frequent contrast with spring and summer finery, while violet is seen with green and black, and white with all colors.

Another self-figured silk which is in faint mauves and grays is used by the French makers. One or two of the models seen were a much older texture, moire, in fact, though chameleon and opal colorings gave the ancient fabrics an air of novelty.

A new wrinkle with louisines is the introduction of broche figures in a contrasting shade, some of the backgrounds of these also showing a faint watering like moire.

Lastly, among the silk novelties is lace chiffon, a gauzelike fabric, with plaid patterns outlined in drawn thread—all in the weaving, of course.

Frocks of the sheer fabrics, such as mousseline, organdy and net, are particularly pleasing for dancing. Many of these gauzy materials are strewn with trailing blossoms in the palest shades, but they are suitable only for tall, slender figures.

Grenadines promise to become extremely popular, and are shown in beautiful colors and designs. These thin fabrics demand a silk or satine foundation.

A fine silk, as soft as chiffon and nearly as thin as India silk, but with more body, is called "messaline." It is procurable only in plain colors, and is especially appropriate for present modes. An exquisite shade of pale pink is the color selected in this beautiful new material to make a dinner gown for a young matron to whom the "1830" modes are especially becoming. Another new silk is sole semiliante. It has a crepe weave, soft and pliable, and is shown in a variety of fashionable shades and designs.

Youthful wearers are revelling in the afternoon and dance frocks of fine white batiste, much befrilled and flounced, that are typical of our great-grandmothers. The skirts are straight and full, and trimmed to the knee with innumerable tiny lace edged ruffles of the material. While the waist, with its slightly bloused front and semi-fitted back, is made with a low, round neck, edged with lace, and the sleeves, which reached only to the elbow, are formed entirely of the tiny lace-edged ruffles. A soft folded girdle of Liberty satin, that may have long ends falling at the back, is worn, and if preferred, this dressy touch may be in some delicate color. A separate shoulder cape made of the material and lace trimmed is sometimes included. Fine embroidery is frequently introduced with the lace in these modes, which will undoubtedly gain in favor as the summer advances.

At a reception given recently, a dainty toilette was seen in turquoise chiffon combined with a changeable turquoise messaline, to which sleeves of Point de Venise in ecru and a cravat of the same lend an air of distinction. The corsage of chiffon was bloused in the deep feather-boned girdle of messaline; a strapped cape effect over the shoulders gave the desired width. The upper sleeve of lace was in bell design, flaring widely at the elbow over the wrinkled sleeve of satin. The skirt was fashioned of the chiffon, shirred to the waistband, and alternate bands of messaline and chiffon bouillonnes finished the design. The flounce of messaline was faced with a turquoise velvet to afford a weight and stability at the foot.

Another especially attractive costume worn at a garden party was an elaborate design in Mechlin lace and silk mull, to which a little narrow Valenciennes gave relief. This creation was beautifully executed entirely by hand. The blouse of mull was covered with the lace bolero, and the loose sleeve was a bell pattern, covered with plisse ruffles of mull edged with Valenciennes. The skirt was built in tiers or sections, a lace yoke appearing at the hip, followed by vertical tucked mull, this in turn followed by a band of horizontal tucks, and the whole was finished by a deep volant of vertical tucks to afford fulness and two deep tucks above the hem. Panels of lace were posed over the tucking of the volant with good effect. The model is one which would lend itself well to reproduction in the oscillating stitch of the sewing machine, and is equally effective in less expensive materials.

A pale green messaline costume attracted great admiration recently at a prominent social function. This was made with the nun's tucks, each of these three tucks being headed by quarter inch pipings of the same lustrous silk. The skirt was very full, with a plain front, but the fulness began over the hips. The bodice showed the drooping shoulder effect, the upper part of the arm being cut in one with the body of the waist. The trimming concealed the joining of the sleeve, to this overlapping body.

The gown was entirely in monotone with the exception of the white sleeve ruffles of lierre lace. A very similar gown was in silver gray messaline, the skirt being made in two sections, the lower one quite full, and more on the order of a flounce, but also with the nun's tucks.

In the pale green costume the waist showed a surplice effect, produced by the stole trimming of the neck being carried down and crossing just above the belt. A deep cream lace chemisette filled in the neck and same lace was utilized for the sleeve ruffles.

With every dainty summer frock, for out-door occasions, it's absolutely essential for the fair wearer to complete her toilette with equally as dainty a parasol. Endless, indeed, seem the gorgeous displays at the fashionable resorts, each one displaying some individuality suggestive of the bearer.

Description of Above Models.

With a Tartan Border.

Champagne taffetas is tucked deeply to cover the main portion of the frame, and the edge is of a plaid tartan silk, showing dark green, scarlet and gold bars upon the white ground. The little fig tips are gilt, and the long handle is encircled with little brass hoops at intervals.

Reception Toilette of Chiffon and Messaline.

A turquoise shade in chiffon is combined with a changeable turquoise messaline, to which sleeves of point de Venise in ecru and a cravat of the same lend an air of distinction. The corsage of chiffon is bloused in the deep feather-boned girdle of messaline, a strapped cape effect over the shoulders giving width to the design. The upper sleeve of lace is in bell design, flaring widely at the elbow over the wrinkled sleeve of satin. The skirt is fashioned of the chiffon, shirred to the waistband, and alternate bands of messaline and chiffon bouillonnes finishing the design. The flounce of messaline is faced with a turquoise velvet, to afford a weight and stability at the foot.

In the 1830 Mode.

The extremely long shoulder line is emphasized in this 1830 design by means of the lace flouncing which is applied to the epaulette, a second piece arranged to simulate a bolero. The corsage is loose, the sleeve showing the elbow puff and deep cuff of lace. The skirt is shirred over cords around the hips, the same cording appearing again at the deep flounce which is applied beneath a vandyked applique of lace entre deux.

For a Garden Party.

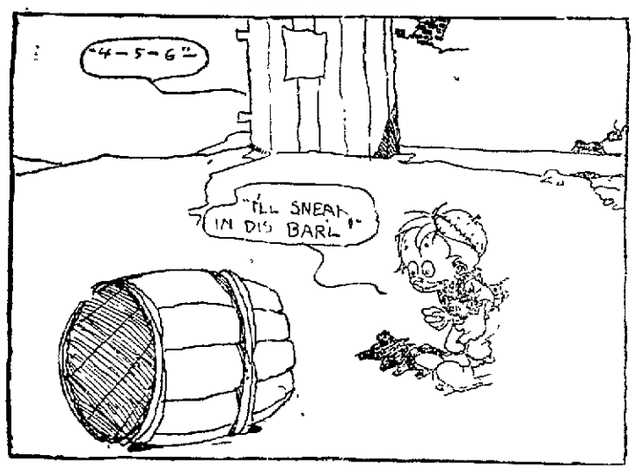

This elaborate design in Mechlin lace and silk mull, to which a little narrow valenciennes gives relief, is executed entirely by hand. The blouse of mull is covered with the lace bolero, and the loose sleeve is a bell pattern, covered with plisse ruffles of mull, edged with valenciennes. The skirt is built in tiers of sections, a lace yoke appearing at the hip, followed by vertical tucked mull; this in turn followed by a band of shirred horizontal tucks, and the whole finished with a deep volant, with vertical tucks, to afford fullness, and two deep tucks above the hem. Panels of lace are posed over the tucking of the volant with good effect. The model is one which lends itself well to reproduction in the oscillating stitch of the sewing machine, and is equally effective in less expensive materials.

In Persian Printed Organdie.

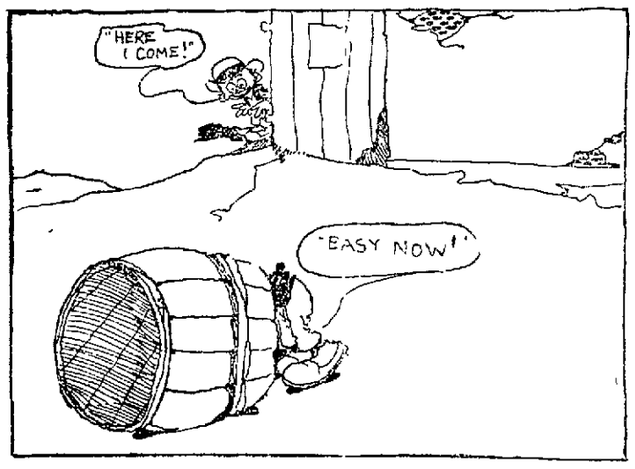

This quaintly simple design is developed in a printed organdie showing tints of lavender, violet and pale yellow. Fashioned over a slip of pale yellow pros de soie, which has all the cri or rustle of silk, the blouse has the 1830 shoulder defined in the fichulike arrangement of ruche and ruffle, dropping into a feather-boned girdle of organdie. The skirt is shirred to the band, and a lower flounce is simulated in the vandyked applique of ruffles; these in laces of pale yellow and green tinted to suit the Persian shades in the organdie. The gown is one of those exhibited at the International Society of Dressmakers' Spring Salon de Style.

NOTES FOR THE WOMEN

WHITE HOUSE CHINA

Mrs Roosevelt's plan of placing on permanent public exhibition at the presidential mansion the most interesting specimens of the historic White House china is an evidence of thoughtfulness, which has earned her the gratitude of great numbers of women in all parts of the country The interest of women in pretty china artistically decorated is inherent and instinctive and naturally for all lovers of handsome tableware the precious heirlooms at the White House hold a double attraction The plan of placing the White House china on exhibition originated with Mrs Harrison soon after she became first lady of the land but her plans had to be deferred and it remained for Mrs Roosevelt to carry out the project

Nearly all of the four-year queens who have presided as mistresses of the White House have been very fond of handsome china Martha Washington while she never made her home in the present Executive Mansion was passionately fond of fine china and a most accomplished collector indeed there is some reason to believe that the fact that subsequent presidents and their wives paid so much attention to the subject of White House china was due in part to the example set by the first of the first ladies of the land

GOSSIP IS HARMLESS.

Gossip after all is fairly harmless provided it is sensible and innocent The chief thing is that you receive it for what it is worth and not magnify your friend's prattle or give idle words a terrible significance All of us like to talk about our friends all of us do talk about them and we will to the end of time but that doesn't mean that we like them less or have the less confidence in them You must take into consideration the spirit of gossip not the letter I tell you in privacy that my Uncle Joseph is a crank's old gentleman very pernicky in his ways Are you then justified in going to Uncle Joseph and telling him that I said he was a crank? If you have a bit of sense you know very well that his crankiness is what particularly endears him to me and that he has thousand other virtues which outweigh that one fault Uncle Joseph on the other hand might tell you that I am a thoughtless fellow given to taking the world lightly Is it just to repeat to me that Uncle Joseph thinks me light minded and brainless You forget that Uncle Joseph would be the first to combat you if you said aught against me and that down in his heart he thinks I am one of the most promising lads of his acquaintance Gossip then is rarely evil in intention when it deals with friends We speak of faults but in our hearts are a thousand reservations and the memory of many virtues Knowing our own feelings we hesitate less to criticize The great thing we must learn is that gossip is to be heard in the same kindly spirit and that it is not to be repeated Whoever bears wrongly or whoever carries ill words willfully is in the devil's service Gossip you will if you're human but be above carrying it and be above misinterpreting things that has been said about yours If Laugh at the criticisms of your friends if they meet you sure smile indulgently and be nice to your critics for you can assure yourself that if they tell of your faults they also appreciate your virtues Gossip so received is robbed of its venom and the person who receives it cheerfully is doubly armed against the stings of fortune

THE DOMINANT TONE

Any desired color can be made dominant in a room by repeating it in masses and also by touching it in small bits To secure the effect of a block of color it may be used in the walls or in curtains and furniture coverings in rugs or table covers In order to make this color tell to the best effect it should be repeated in a bit of color somewhere on the mantel shelf in a soft cushion or lamp shade When the dominant color has been left upon we have but to realize the colors which will harmonize with this or contrast with it agreeably and introduce them less obtrusively A delightful effect is often gained by bringing in variations of the first color If for example the rug or carpet is in plain red the walls may have a paper with red roses flowered on a white ground the bed may be draped with dimity which has red roses clustering over it and the window-curtains have lambrequins of the same stuff This is the case in the first illustration, which shows a green and white scheme The paper is in stripe of two tones of green and the brussels rug is green and white The ceiling is tinted a clear green and the hangings are of white dimity

JAPANESE CHILDREN.

Although Japanese children are laughter-loving, fond of play, and free and independent in action yet they assume responsibilities just as soon as they emerge from babyhood It is a common sight in Japan to see fastened on the back of a very little boy or girl a tiny baby brother or sister that is perhaps but a few days old In the summer time the baby is held in place by means of a broad sash (obi) that ties him to his child nurse When out of doors in winter one thickly padded garment snugly secures them both from the cold making them appear like a two-headed being as Gentaro Yeto puts it, in a recent letter from Tokio

On the whole this seems a sensible way to carry a baby for the attendants arms and hands are left free One often sees these little nurses playing kites snowballing or playing battledore and shuttlecock and at the same time singing lullabies to the wee specimens of humanity on their backs As Japanese babies are noted for seldom crying they must be perfectly satisfied to be thus jounced about the greater part of their baby lives for children in Japan are very hardy and stay out of doors most of the day no matter how cold it may be and think no harm of having the wee brother or sister to care for constantly

BENEFITS OF TRAVEL.

Books are dry and arid compared with a stimulating contact with life and it is life that the traveler should see says an exchange We feel indeed that many of them do not It sometimes seems that the luxury of going somewhere is made to overbalance the joy of being in places There is often more gadding from place to place and your tourist a person who travels as a wager to see how many towns he can visit in the least possible time The wise man however will avoid such mistakes and will go to new countries or new sections of his own to observe manners and customs It is not paradoxical to say that that we travel in foreign lands that we may know ourselves and our own ways better To see great buildings and monuments to observe methods of work to see how the other nations sleep and eat and take their amusements—these are valuable for comparison By knowing what others do we may improve ourselves We may read from breakfast to bedtime but the information is second hand What one learns by experience he remembers And so we are glad that travel has been made easy and we urge people to see as much of the world as possible

But if modern travel is luxurious it is a great mistake to suppose that travel is only for the wealthy and that it is only profitable when taken on a velvet cushion A man may see the best part of life and of Nature at very small expense Going abroad nowadays costs little if one is not too vain to take modest accommodations on carriers and at inns while journeys on bicycles or afoot besides being cheap place one in touch with the people as nothing else can Not one does not have to go abroad to see the world Gilbert White was a wise recluse in a parish Thoreau scarce went out of England Some of the most stimulating travels are made next home If you cannot go to Europe at least see a great city or two in your own land If you cannot do this walk into the next county or take a boat down some stream There is so much worth seeing on the earth that every part of it however poor and however seemingly commonplace holds many treasures for the properly prepared mind

SKIRTS AND BODICES

The round skirt which was introduced last winter is used now for every kind of a thin gown The skirts are cut so long in front that they rest on the ground for an inch or so then there is a very gradual slant toward the back where the skirt is perhaps three or four inches longer than in front These round patterns are of course the only ones possible to use where there is much fullness

The bodices almost without exception blouse in the back and the front above high girdles The sleeves are decidedly smaller than those we have been wearing Where the large puff is used for the upper part of the sleeve it is cut with less length so that there is less opportunity for the sleeve to droop in the back In fact the sleeve fitting the arm closely to the elbow and finished above with deep ruffles or a small puff and a frill of lace is the sleeve oftenest seen Another sleeve which is used now is the regular mousquetaire shirred closely on the inner seam and fitting the arm tightly to the elbow

THE SUMMER OUTING

The mother who is going to the country mountains or lake for the summer does not care to take a lot of superfluous luggage and yet there may be no opportunity of obtaining the various little articles which she is likely to need during the season

There will be little or no need of elaborate costumes for adults or children but there must be an abundance of shirt-waists for both boys and girls which will launder easily short serviceable skirts for mother and the girl thick substantial walking shoes for tramping and restful slippers or oxfords for indoor wear

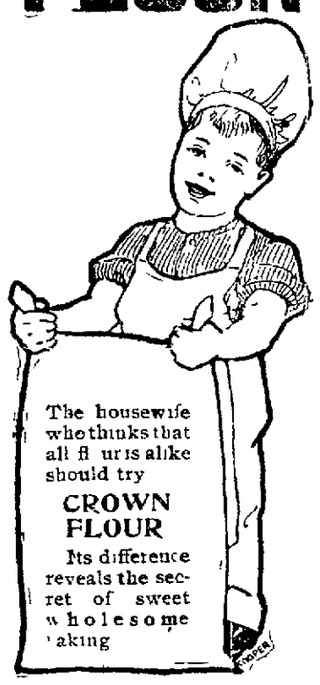

The boys will need sweaters and plenty of extra trousers for accidents will happen in the best regulated families

There must be plenty of warm wraps for evening wear whether boating or driving rain coats blankets or rugs to use on the veranda or in the boat and cushions of various sizes with washable covers to use in the hammock or on the porch

By no means neglect to take a large comfortable hammock There is much more independence in having one of your own than depending on your landlord

It is never safe to travel without an emergency roll of old linen cotton and flannel absorbent cotton adhesive plaster, safety-pins of assorted sizes and bottles of listerine witch hazel vaseline cold cream and spirits of nitre (the last named being to take out inflammation from mosquito bites)

SIERRA CLUB TO DEDICATE LE CONTE MEMORIAL LODGE.

LE CONTE MEMORIAL LODGE THAT WILL BE DEDICATED BY THE SIERRA CLUB

BERKELEY June 18—The Le Conte Memorial Lodge a picturesque building in the Yosemite Valley is to be dedicated by the Sierra Club on July 3 during the annual outing of the mountain climbing organization In keeping with the life of Professor Joseph Le Conte in whose honor the lodge was erected the exercises will be devoid of ostentation and will consist principally of addresses by friends of the late professor Dr G K Gilbert of the United States Geological Survey and Professor A C Lawson of the geological department of the University of California will be the speakers A poem written for the occasion will be read by Willoughby Rodman of Los Angeles and a bronze tablet indicating the purpose for which the building was erected will be unveiled

The lodge is a most picturesque structure The foundations walls and chimney were built of granite found in the valley The woodwork is rough hewn and as much of the wood as possible was placed to the exterior Broad granite steps lead to the heavy Dutch entrance door

A very unique table has been constructed for the reading room A heavy top 9 by 5 feet is supported by two sections of the unbarked trunks of yellow pine

The location of the lodge in the valley is most pleasing from a scenic standpoint It is immediately under the towering walls of Cloe's Point on a gentle slope that runs back to the base of the cliffs and has a background setting of a grove of beautiful trees From the entrance of the building the view of Half Dome of Le Conte Dome is obstructed

Shortly after the death of Professor Le Conte it became evident that a number of his friends would like to erect some structure in memory of the eminent scientist and conservationist A committee composed of Professor A C Lawson Professor William R Dudley Dr L R Heim Prof Adolph Mc Millan and William F Cole was appointed by the directors of the Sierra Club to accomplish this object

There is always need of pumice stone good soap and an abundance of towels where there are children in the party Nail trimming must be provided for A worry days—which should include a few good story books a box of water color paints and set of crayons

As there are likely to be picnics it will be wise to lay in a supply of Japanese napkins

A work box well stocked with needles thread tape buttons and mending tissue is always useful wherever one goes

MOTHER AND MAID

A Boston mother with the true Boston worship high had to engage a nurse maid to take the place of one who had married An advertisement calling for the services of another maid was inserted in the papers and the applicant interested in the person of a demure looking young woman to whom he on her of the four young ho efuls said I am very particular how I bring the linen used by my nurse maids I am especially particular regarding the use of soap I never allow my children to use any form of soap and I hope you would not mind if I corrected any grammatical errors I might discover in your conversation

Well I durno said the applicant after a few moments reflection I guess lady that I'd hardly go up to the scratch so I might as well get a move on me and look somewhere else for a sit So long lady —Woman's Home Companion

A COOD ONE

Now dance the two step beautifully Who taught it to you?

My two stepsisters

Pat told this joke in a newspaper and thought it a good one Still have to spring it on some one he chuckled So the afterward Pat went to a dance During the evening one of his partners said How beautifully you waltz Who taught you?

My two stepsisters quickly replied Pat's broad grin upon his face

AS TO WRINKLES

Wrinkles are the special delight and bete noir of every woman They are caused by the fine muscles of the face losing their tone the shrinking of the tissues and the filling of the skin to the depressions which are left If they are the result of advancing years but are caused by ill health bad diet anxiety or climate much can be done to lessen these blemishes

Massage of the face is well and highly recommended and justly so for it is unquestionably true that proper and systematic course of face massage will do a great deal to help these finger marks of time by giving one and vigor to the tired decayed muscles and underskin A lotion which is positively asserted to be efficacious as a preventive is made from the beaten whites of two eggs with the addition of three times as much rose water and half a teaspoonful of powdered alum This should be kept closely corked and used before retiring every night But if this is no help to the heavy looking for the outward reflection of its mood does it ever occur to her that she is not to face its highs? If the temper is bad and the level of all sweetness it will surely leave its disfiguring traces upon the countenance while the eyes never look clear and bright where a selfish sunless nature exists

SOFT WHITE HANDS

For improving the appearance of the hands some of the simplest remedies are very efficacious A nightly rubbing in buttermilk is said to whiten and soften the hands but he dwells in a city flat can more easily procure olive oil rub it lightly in after a very hot bath and put on a pair of old loose gloves It is a wise economy to buy a pair of slightly soiled gloves (preferably white) for the purpose as at least three times as large for night wear Almond meal used in place of soap will make the hands feel delicately soft Another preparation calls for two ounces of oatmeal one quarter of an ounce of powdered borax and one pint of rose water Let the mixture stand for three days and then strain and add one ounce of alcohol The alcohol prevents souring—the drawback to many oatmeal preparations An old prescription for darkened hands is the application of a paste made with powdered alum and white of egg spread on the hands at night with loose gloves worn over

A BEAUTIFUL CUSTOM

In the fatherland it is the custom when moving to take live coals from the old hearth to kindle the fire in the new home And in leaving the old home the grosmutter breathes a prayer for peace to the next tenants while on entering the new home the entire family say Let joy enter and sorrow depart —a beautiful custom well worth imitating in this hurrying new world

WHEN YOU MOVE

One who has frequently moved vouches for the comfort derived from things labeled—a list being made in a note book while packing is in progress Then barrels and boxes having been numbered with blue pencil can be put in the proper place when carried into the new home so the shirt waist box will not be carried to the kitchen nor the box of shoeblacking utensils left in the front hall And having made an inventory of the contents of bureaus and packing cases the man of the house will not need to rummage through the table linen in vain quest for his laundry nor the school boy turn things topsy turvy in a hunt for his ball glove All curtains bed spreads bureau and washstand fittings as well as cushion covers should be laundered before the old home is left so that settling will not be delayed but rather hastened by having these accessories fresh when the straightening process begins

HER EMERGENCY SHELF.

With a can of chicken tongue salmon shrimps mushrooms asparagus peas beans sweet corn and tomatoes two or three kinds of soup a tin of dried beef a box of wafers several glasses of jelly and a bottle of salad dressing on her emergency shelf no housewife need be dismayed when unexpected company is announced

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMER

In the summer time when Old Sol plays sad havoc with the skin causing sunburn and freckles one of the following lotions should be well rubbed in regularly every night

(1) Two ounces of lemon juice half a drachm of powdered borax and one drachm of sugar mixed well together and put into a glass bottle

(2) A cupful of new milk to which has been added one third of the quantity of lemon juice

It is also said that these sun spots will readily yield to the application of strawberry juice or buttermilk In case of eruption or disfiguring pimples forming on the skin, flowers of sulphur will be found to be a very excellent agent for clearing it A teaspoonful of sulphur mixed with the same quantity of honey or maple syrup should be taken for three mornings in succession Three days should then elapse without taking any until the treatment should begin again for three more mornings Pass three more and take for three a third time

CALIFORNIA GIRLS OUT-GROWING BROTHERS.

Betty Martin Thinks Their Physical Development is Reversing.

That Canadian professor who expressed the opinion that college training is bad for girls, had better come out our way and take a look at the native product pursuing the higher education. He certainly would be obliged to eat his own words after even a casual inspection of California college girls. They are the finest, healthiest and most robust lot of young women in the world, and their brains are on a par with their brawn. In fact, if the girls keep on growing at the present rate, California will produce a race of giantesses beautiful of form and feature.

The worst drawback about this state of affairs is that the young men are not keeping up with their sisters. This was striking apparent at the High School party given at Maple Hall recently by the Law Senior Class.

Taken as a whole, the physical superiority of the young women over the young men was most pronounced, and a matter of general comment. One of the chaperons present gave a very pertinent opinion on the subject, and one worth repeating.

"The reason of it is plain enough," said she. "As soon as our boys get into High School they begin to think they are men. They smoke vile cigarettes and nasty smelling pipes—keep late hours and abuse themselves in all sorts of ways, while the girls go climbing and rowing, take physical culture and dancing lessons and everything else to make them strong and fine looking. Bah! the trouble with our boys is that they try to emulate their fathers! And the worst of it is, our girls will have to marry them!"

With this sage conclusion the chaperon shrugged her shoulders, and turned to watch her daughter gaily two-stepping with a nice looking young man, and apparently not caring a bean that she could survey the room over the top of her partner's head.

"For my part," challenged another "chap," who had been audibly wishing for the dancing to end, "I don't like these big girls."

"Why not?" questioned the other.

"Oh, they stay on the market too long. Men are afraid of them!"

At this point the musicians began to play "Home, Sweet Home," and the chaperons gathered up their shawls and their young folks without exchanging any more views on matters matrimonial.

Mr. Alvin Powell and family have gone to St. Louis, where they expect to remain long enough to view everything of interest at the fair.

Mr. Powell has an important position in the electrical department of the Exposition. At its finish he will return and complete his course at the University of California.

Speaking of the University, brings to mind that Miss Charlotte Canty, whose name is already familiar to readers of McClure's, is among those taking advantage of the summer school.

Miss Canty, although still very young, has already entrenched herself on the literary ladder, and has written some charming bits, redolent of true feeling. She is a native of San Francisco, but has resided in Oakland for many years.

Mr. W. C. Morrow, who has done so much toward encouraging Californian litrary aspirants, predicts for Miss Canty "not a national, but an international fame," if he is rightly quoted. At any rate, Miss Canty is a writer to be proud of, for although little more than a girl, she has for fourteen years past been employed by an Oakland dry goods firm, and has only been able to indulge her literary proclivities during spare evening hours.

On Wednesday of this week Miss Julia Fraser left Oakland on an extended visit to friends in Portland, Oregon. Later on Miss Fraser will proceed to the Northern Indian Reservation, with a view to gathering material for short stories, after which she will return to California and travel southward, visiting friends, of whom she has more, probably, than any other woman in the State, for be it remembered that her father, who passed away less than a year ago, was at one time traveling missionary for the entire stretch of country west of the Rockies and north of Mexico to the British possessions, and that he never lost grip on the affections of the people he encountered among his travels. His daughter Julia of late years had entire charge of his correspondence, and has the friendship of hundreds whom she has never met personally.

Miss Fraser is responsible for the new eight-cent stamp—the one with that quaint Martha Washington head on it—for it was she who wrote an article to the Ladies' Home Journal containing the suggestion, which met the eyes of the Postmaster-General at Washington.

In the interests of the Presbyterian Home Missionary Society Miss Fraser will make a two months' tour of the State, lecturing at many places, after which she will settle down in her Myrtle street home, if present plans are carried out.

The time of the year has come for the establishment of wick-i-ups and a renewed acquaintance with mother nature.

California climate is particularly adapted to out of door life, and from now on, until September, the hills and valleys will be dotted with tent dwellers.

There is no surer way of cheating the doctor than by a simple change of surroundings, and one should be taken, whether the purse be lean or plethoric.

Let the dwellers by the sea go to the high Sierra, and let the inhabitants of the heights come down to the shore and make acquaintance with the ocean, by way of enlarging the viewpoint.

The trouble with most of us is that our lives are too circumscribed. They lack that variety which is the true spice.

For once in history, a bald pate is shown to have advantages unknown to the possesors of full heads of hair. William A. Morris of Colorado owes his rescue from drowning to the fact that his bald head persisted in showing above the water to such an extent that onlookers were moved to employ boat hooks in his rescue, so that, instead of being eaten by the fishes at the bottom of the river, as had been his intent, Morris is being taken care of at the Sacred Heart Convent of Spokane.

Whether the man himself has changed his mind in regard to living, and looks upon his bald head as a means of grace, has not been told. At least, if he wants to make a second attempt toward seeking a watery place of rest, Morris should take the precaution to purchase a dark colored wig, and, rather than risk chances on its floating away from him, tie it firmly under his chin.

In view of the terrible disaster which has just occurred in New York waters, it might be well to ask three questions regarding our bay craft.

Are the boats never overcrowded?

Are they all well-manned?

Are the life-preservers in thoroughly good condition?

Ella Caminetti, who received the nomination for Grand President of the Native Daughters on Thursday, is well known throughout California, and also in Washington official circles, where she lived with her husband during his term of office.

Mrs. Caminetti was in line for office at the last election, but for diplomatic reasons her name gave way.

The Native Daughters aim to be impersonal in the bestowal of favors, and like to have different sections of the State represented.

Mrs. Caminetti is an impulsive woman of magnetic presence, and very outspoken, as becomes her mountain life. She is a graduate of the State Normal School at San Jose, and has engaged in teaching, off and on, for many years.

In line, the Native Daughters never had a more able representative than Eliza D. Keith, nor a harder worker. She is indefatigable in her efforts to make the organization a power in the State, and is one of the leaders in the work of reclaiming the old landmarks.

TOWN TALK.

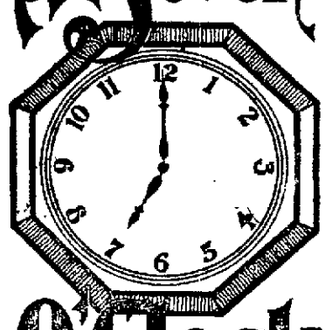

It's a fine, newsy issue, that of Town Talk this week. Gossip about the Leiters, the Blaine divorce, the Dingees, the Oakland Club, a society renovatory, Abe Ruef's social triumph, various weddings and engagements are related by the Saunterer. The story, sketches, jokes and verse are all of good literary quality and the departments interesting. Theodore Bonnet's article on the George Collins case will interest lawyers.

Married Women Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

A Matter of Health
Modern scientific medicine recognizes (1) that disease is most frequently transmitted by dust and dirt, (2) that the ideal method of getting rid of disease germs is by removing them (asepsis) rather than trying to kill them (antisepsis). Fumigations attempt to destroy; the compressed air removes. The simplicity and efficiency of the method will recommend it not only for household purposes, but also where clearing is necessary as a sanitary measure.

DELINQUENT TAX LIST.

FOR THE YEAR 1903.

The Delinquent Tax List of Golden Gate Sanitary District, in the County of Alameda, State of California, for the year 1903.

Public notice is hereby given that default having been made in the payment of taxes due to the Golden Gate Sanitary District, in the County of Alameda, State of California, for the year 1903, upon the property hereinafter described, the Tax Collector of the County of Alameda, by authority of law, did upon Monday, November 30th, 1903, and upon Monday, April 25th, 1904, at 6 o'clock P. M., levy upon said property. Now, therefore, I, James B. Barber, Tax Collector of the County of Alameda, State of California, will on SATURDAY THE 2ND DAY OF JULY A. D. 1904.

At the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, sell the same at public auction in the Tax Collector's office in the County Court House of the County of Alameda, in the City of Oakland, unless the taxes delinquent, together with the costs and percentages, are paid, or so much thereof as may be necessary for such purposes.

Public notice is further given that pursuant to the resolution of the Sanitary Board of said District in making such sale, I will sell each of the respective parcels of property upon which said taxes are a lien to the person who will take the least quantity of land, or in case an undivided interest is assessed, then the smallest portion of the interest and pay the taxes and costs due, including fifty cents for each lot, piece or tract of land separately assessed. Each purchaser at said delinquent tax sale will receive a certificate of sale from said Tax Collector and said real property will be sold subject to redemption within the time and upon the condition established by resolution of the Sanitary Board of said District.

Such re-registration began on the 1st day of January and will be in progress at all times until forty days preceding the next election in November.

In order to facilitate the work of re-registration, attention is called to the provisions of Section 1097 which reads as follows:

3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of his father while he was residing in the United States, and under the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.

4. In other cases, upon the affidavit of the party that he is or will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election.

Further notice is hereby given that Affidavits of Registration must be sworn to before the County Clerk or his deputies, and that they can not, owing to the provisions of the new Registration Law, be sworn to before any other officer.

The office of the County Clerk will be, until further notice, open for registration from nine a. m. until five p. m. each day.

PICKET IS GUILTY.

Henry De Roy, a picket placed by the Cooks and Waiters' Union in front of the restaurant conducted by James Kanelahis at 827 Broadway, pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace this morning in Police Judge Samuels court and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 with the alternative of spending ten days in jail.

De Roy states that he had traveled over all the world, but that he did not know the constitution of the United States prevented him to do picket duty. After having pleaded guilty, the defendant did not know whether he wanted his sentence or not. He consumed ten minutes' time of the court in attempting to make up his mind. Judge Samuels asked him if he wanted to withdraw his plea. He did not want to do this.

The court then said there was nothing for him to do but to pronounce sentence.

De Roy is alleged to have stood in the door of the restaurant and to have tried to dissuade persons from entering the place from this position.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 18.—A solemn memorial service for Gen. Bobrikoff, Governor-General of Finland, was held at the ministry of the interior today.

Much interest is manifested in the political results of Gen. Bobrikoff's assassination and some of the Finnish senators have arrived here for the purpose of considering the subject with the authorities. The papers continue to discuss the matter with earnestness, with the exception of the Svet, counselling against harsh measures.

The Viedomosti strongly insists that the Finnish nation should not be held responsible for the crime and that repressive measures would not only militate against the situation in Finland, but prejudice the interests of the whole empire.

"The necessity for equal, friendly and loving relations toward all nationalities under the empire," the Viedomosti says, "is one of the plain teachings of history."

HAVENS WANTS LETTERS.

John W. Havens applied yesterday for letters of guardianship over his infant son, John W. Havens, Jr., who was bequeathed property valued at about $20,000 by his late mother, Mrs. Gertrude Goewey Havens. The three brothers of Mrs. Havens are opposing her will, claiming that she was mentally incompetent when she executed the instrument. She died about a month after she made the will. Her baby had not then been named. The estate consists chiefly of shares of stock of the Goewey Estate Company.

PROMINENT DEMOCRATS DO NOT AGREE.

Good Story on Frank Jordan—Fresno Mixologists Lose Places --Street Car Men.

The views of prominent Democrats and journals are just now interesting. Henry Watterson says he prefers McClellan, but thinks Parker will win. Carter Harrison is of the opinion that Bryan's personality and inevitable oratory will strongly influence the convention in favor of some candidate less objectionable to him than Parker. Harrison looks for something like a stampede. Some of Bryan's friends are reported as affirming that he will under no circumstances bolt the convention. The New York Sun is out for McClellan, who is, of course, Tammany's preference. The Chicago Chronicle, a strong Democratic paper, still has hopes that Cleveland may be nominated. The Springfield Republican thinks that there are many Democrats in the South and West who will hesitate to indorse a candidate who, like Parker, Bryan bitterly opposes. It thinks there will be a disposition to look elsewhere in the interests of harmony. The World continues in daily editorials to demand from Parker "a ringing note."

It will be a great convention. Bryan will be there with his magnetic voice and generous winning smile. Crafty "Dave" Hill, whom Bryan hates because of "I am still a Democrat—still, very still," will be there, and a battle of words between the two is joyously anticipated. The imposing figure and rotund voice of Bourke Cockran will be in evidence, and the smooth ecclesiastical face of Arthur P. Gorman will draw many eyes toward the Maryland delegation. James B. Weaver, who ran for President on the Populist ticket in 1892, will be at St. Louis as a delegate from Iowa, from Missouri there will be Champ Clark, a picturesque figure; and from Texas, Bailey, the hot-tempered. "Pitchfork" Tillman will be there, with his cropped bullet head, and so will John Sharp Williams, with his wooly hair. Yes, it will be a great time—as Senator Ingalls would say, a halcyon and vociferous time.—The Argonaut.

Frank C. Jordan, clerk of the Supreme Court, has a distrust of photographs. He declares they exaggerate worse than an Alameda county politician. His experience with a photograph is a sad one, and he and his household will long remember it. While casting about for a country place to install his family for the summer, one of his friends showed him a photograph of an ideal place—an old adobe house with wide frontage and a great expanse of orchard and flowering shrubs. It was to let.

The photograph was enough, and the impulsive Jordan closed the deal without going to see the place. Between a Saturday night and a Monday morning he packed up his household effects, gathered up his family, and went to take possession of his summer home. But when he got there he suspected something had gone wrong with his eyesight. The high, wide-spreading adobe house was 15 feet by 12. The orchard had thirty trees and a few small flowers. He cautiously interrogated the members of his family as to whether they saw the same as he did, and their verdict was unanimous. Jordan mopped his brow, placed his family in a near-by hotel, and came back to the city to learn how the shrinkage had occurred. Then he sadly discovered he had been the victim of a practical joke. The photograph had been taken with a wide-angle lens, which magnified everything to palatial proportions. Jordan now thinks a photograph is as delusive as a mining prospectus.—The Wasp.

There are some seventy bar-keepers in Fresno that are mourning lucrative positions which they were unfortunately compelled to relinquish upon their embracing the tenets and faith of the union label. It was a few weeks ago that the mixologists were blandly plying their art where the chandeliers glow and the mirrors gleam and the clink and clink of glasses make sweet music to the rounder's ear. Then one night the word went round that they must join; the fiat had gone forth; the delegate had spoken. They must unionize; they must affiliate to overwhelm the bloated plutocracy. They didn't know what that meant; they simply supposed they had got things mixed with the last drink. Like sheep over a stile, they filed into the fold. That was one night. The next morning, while the mesmeric shepherd's yodel was still sounding in their ears, they woke to find themselves locked outside the fold, poetically speaking. While the zealous men of the froth and flask had been unionizing the employers had been enrolling with the Citizens' Alliance, and bright and early the next morning every bar-keeper was locked out, and he has stayed locked out to this day.—The Wasp.

The members of the California delegation to the Republican national convention expect to cut a wide swath in Chicago. They plan to make things hum in the neighborhood of their headquarters. I hear that Henry T. Oxnard expects to join the men from California and assist them in sustaining the State's reputation for hospitality. The candidate for United States Senator is a good "mixer" and is on intimate terms with all the big men of his party. While he is doing politics in Chicago, Senator Bard, whose nature is that of the shrinking violet, will be enjoying all the comforts of home under his own roof-tree.—Town Talk.

The "kid" party threatens to come into vogue in Oakland. How characteristic of the somnolent bug! "Kid" parties drifted into the limbo of foresworn pastimes several years ago, or to be more accurate, about the time that Ethyl Hager presided over the one at which Addison Mizner shocked the girls by simulating a small boy in distress. But Oakland has revived the edifying function, or at least one of its belles the dashing Winifred June Morgan, experimented with one last Tuesday, and I am told that it was a very enjoyable affair. It was attended by the smartest young society people of the city. The men appeared in little white sailor suits with big collars and with whistles dangling from cords. The young women appeared in short frocks with their hair braided in pigtails. "Ruthie" Waterman won a prize for being "the cutest little child in the party." She wore a pink dimity frock with white lace insertions. The boy's prize went to Mr. Fraser, who wore kilts just as he did when he was a small boy.—Town Talk.

The emptiness of the honor of going to Chicago to obey the orders of a State convention has struck Mr. John D. Spreckels so forcibly that he decided to stay at his seaside hotel, and vouchsafe his alternate, Mr. Abe Ruef, the privilege of sweltering in the heat and grime of the metropolis of the Middle West. It has been explained that Mr. Spreckels is in ill health, but that is not his only reason for not taking the trip. If the program called for election to the National Committee perhaps he would be willing to risk the tedium and the hardships of the journey. But he is not even inclined to make a fight for that honor, and it is to be bestowed on no less a distinguished son of California than George A. Knight.

It is pretty generally believed that Judge Van Fleet, who entered the contest for National Committeeman against Mr. Spreckels four years ago and won out, is to be re-elected at Chicago. But the name of Judge Van Fleet does not appear on the program. And by the way, George Knight is looming on the irrepressible political horizon as the representative Californian in National politics. President Roosevelt likes Knight's frank and breezy Western ways. Knight's bonhomie is Rooseveltian, and mutual admiration has sprung up between the statesman and lawyer. Knight has been asked by the President not only to second his nomination but also to do some spellbinding through the East. The President wants to see Knight on the National Committee and his wish will be gratified. In the event of Roosevelt's election Knight will have considerable influence with the Administration.—Town Talk.

Again the white-winged dove of peace has had its wings clipped at the French Hospital. This time it was not a capital operation, and with careful nursing the dove may get back into form again. But if it is nursed by the nurses whose methods of nursing caused its present lameness, the aforesaid dove may turn into a gamey sea-gull and never more be the messenger of a harmonious household. Those nurses at the French hospital are a lot of gay, young, innocent things, and that's where all the trouble comes in. The head nurse proved that one of her subordinates, during the long and weary watches of the night, had introduced a bun into her system. Horrors! The idea of nurses masticating buns on duty! "It might be worse. Let's investigate," said the keen-eyed chief. The investigation produced many results in the shape of "dead soldiers," laid away to rest behind bureau drawers and other hiding places. Now it is not charged that any particular nurse "had a bun," though it is said one nurse did have a bun. You can figure that out for yourself. It is like the weight of Charley Hill's brick and a half. If one bun and a dozen "dead soldiers" cause a revolution in the French Hospital, what will be necessary to create an agitation at the annual election of the officers of that frequently disturbed institution?—News Letter.

In conversation with an Eastern visitor, it was developed that the United Railways is being very generally criticised for the slouchy and ragged appearance of its platform men and conductors. San Franciscans are so used to seeing the carmen in the garb of tramps and bearing the appearance of a section of Coxey's army that this condition arouses scarcely any local comment. The men aver that they cannot afford new uniforms because the cost is from twenty-five to thirty-five dollars for each man. The company states it is said, that it has no desire to enforce any rule regarding uniforms because it does not wish to lend the men a pretext on which to hang another strike agitation. In regard to the price of the uniforms of the men, it occurs to us that it is excessive. The militia and the United States army are better clothed than are the carmen, at about one-third the price. The United Railways Company should make an arrangement by which a continued contract with some reputable firm would enable the men to secure uniforms at cost, or very nearly cost. A good uniform with leather re-enforcement to the pockets should not cost more than $15.—News Letter.

SEEKS YOUNG WIFE.

J. E. Becker, a young mechanic, residing at 34 Fourth street, San Francisco, is making a search for his pretty young wife, who came here last Sunday from Fresno to meet her husband, and who, since her arrival, has mysteriously disappeared. The young wife, whose Christian name is Amanda, is twenty-one years of age. She was accompanied by a two-year-old babe. She was dressed in black. These are the meagre facts on which the husband hopes to locate his bride.

The only clew that has thus far developed is the fact that the wife and her babe were seen in the City Hall park about a week ago. Since then no trace has been found of either the child or the mother.

GEO. NUSBAUMER IS DEAD.

EX-COUNTY SURVEYOR PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN SUNOL.

Ex-County Surveyor George L. Nusbaumer died yesterday at Los Alisos, Sunol in the fifty-second year of his age.

The announcement of Mr. Nusbaumer's death comes as a surprise to most of the friends of the deceased because it was understood that he was in good physical condition despite the paralysis of vocal chords which prevented speech above a whisper.

The affliction was the result of paralysis of the lower limbs with which Mr. Nusbaumer was stricken about three years ago. He was for a time so afflicted that he was unable to even move about.

At length, however, he regained the use of his limbs as also of his mental faculties but his voice became almost inaudible.

Skilled scientists endeavored to remove the affection of the vocal nerves but without success. This affection was occasioned by a deep-seated disease which, unknown to Mr. Nusbaumer's friends, gradually undermined his constitution and the end came as a consequence.

Mr. Nusbaumer came from a family which, for fifty years has been among the most prominent in this county. He was educated here and it was here also that he practiced his chosen profession of civil engineer, serving for twenty years as the surveyor of Alameda County. His paralysis compelled him to allow the work of that office to devolve upon his assistant, Mr. Prather, who succeeded him at the last election when Mr. Nusbaumer was unable to aspire for a renomination to his old position.

There is no part of Alameda County which Mr. Nusbaumer has not surveyed either for the county or private individuals. It was under his direction and professional aid that hundreds of the roads of Alameda County which are considered among the finest in this country, were built.

The deceased was as skilled and accurate in his calling as he was energetic and, as a consequence, no flaw was ever found in his work.

The deceased leaves a widow, Mrs. Florence Nusbaumer, two brothers, Albert and Emil Nusbaumer, the latter of whom is one of the brightest attorneys in the State and a former resident of this city but now located at McCloud River and a sister, Mrs. W. Whitmore.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Albert Brown.

A PERIL OF HER SEX

HOW A KENTUCKY WOMAN MET A CRISIS IN HER LIFE.

Adopts a Resolute Course and Escapes From Troubles Which Had Made Her Wretched for Two Years.

The experience of Mrs. D. C. Wedding, of Hartford, Kentucky, is of value to every woman, as it will point out a certain means of escape from a distressing situation to which time must inevitably bring her. Concerning the difficulties which she encountered at the change of life, Mrs. Wedding says:

"In the spring of 1898, when I reached the turn of life, I was seriously ill and was confined to my bed for six or eight months in all, during the two years following. I had chills, fever, rheumatism. My stomach seemed always too full, my kidneys did not act freely, my liver was inactive, my heart-beat was very weak and I had dizziness or swimming in my head and nervous troubles.

"I was under the treatment of several prominent physicians but they all failed to do me any good.

"After suffering for two years I learned from an Arkansas friend about the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and I decided that I would try them. The very first box I took made me feel better and when I had taken four boxes more I was entirely well, weighed fifteen pounds more than when I began, resumed my household duties and have since continued in the best of health.

"I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people on the basis of what they did for me, and I feel that I cannot praise them too strongly."

This wonderful blood tonic is a perfect regulator of a woman's system. It banishes nervousness, headaches, dizziness, depression of spirits and carries safely through all the physical crises peculiar to the female sex. It is sold by all druggists throughout the world.
